REQUISITES' SEVERAL. of such Instruments!

The MAION & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the case" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest compati-THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal morit have been "awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reperts of the Judges from which the following is an extract:

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN from which the following is an extract:—

quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Sigued by all the Judges. (Sigued by all the Judges.)
The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus de clared to rank first, not in one or two re spects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. The triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have unformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions.
