If the Mormon cause is to be the peculiar charge and ward of God, or has been, it is but human that bad men should be seeking its de-struction; but to make a superficial judgment in the matter, it always seems that Satan has more powers at work than God himself, and vary often it has seemed that the former had the mastery. The teachers of the sectarian creeds seems to have no knowledge of God out in time, and, as usual, filled with a variety of interesting and useful reading. Get a copy and see for yourself.
