UTAH BOYS AT MANILA.

Guns of the Battery Command the City—What the Nebraskans Say.

A squad of the First Nebraska infantry came in this morning over the Western. They are all members of company G, and were near neighbors to the Utah boys at Manila. They say that the Utah battery commands the city from a hill, and they laugh at the talk [illegible] of danger from the insurgents. The Nebraskans left Manila on Dec. 16th and are on their way home. Sergeant Smith, who is the leader of the party, says that Utah ought to be proud of her batteries.

GROANS OF A TAXPAYER.

Protests Against Unnecessarily Increasing Burdens on the Farmers.

Tells What These Have to Bear Now —But He Knows Only in Part the Office Man's Situation.

Smithfield, Utah, Jan. 16, 1899.

To the Editor:

In my opinion the farmer or tiller of the soil has to bear the greatest burden of any portion of the people of the whole world. Therefore I wish to plead their cause.

It appears to me from the tone of the Governor's message to the Legislature, [illegible]
