HARD TO TELL WHO WILL WIN.

Political Parties Cautious in Their Estimate of the Final Result.

ELECTION PROCEEDS QUIETLY.

Very Little Disturbance, but Considerable Argumentative Discussion.

ONE-THIRD VOTE CAST TO NOON.

"Americans" Challenge Well Known Citizens on the Ground of Non-Residence.

Today is the day of tightest tension in the political affairs of the city, but demonstration is not a part of it. Instead there is the great task of getting the largest possible percentage of voters to the polls, and this is consuming the time and talent of the chairmen of the three parties. The heaviest voting is reported for this afternoon. Reports sent out at 12 o'clock indicated that about one-third of the entire estimated vote had been cast. With about 7,000 in the boxes, 14,000 remain to go in this afternoon, and the rush will come towards the close of the day, when men return from work.

After noon there was the heaviest rush since early morning. It was composed of those who had a chance to get to the polls during their lunch hour, and ran the vote up from a third to nearly half of what is counted upon.

RESULT STILL IN DOUBT.

How the election will go is still a matter that is hardly even to be forecasted, except out of the previous faith of one who may guess. Thompson's strength is certain, but opinion differs greatly as to whether Morris or Lynch is the man who will beat him, or play him the closest second in the final stretch to victory.

BETTING FLUCTUATES.

On Second South street the large crowd of men with money to back their opinions, stood today as they stood yesterday, filling the walk and the long list of bets posted on the bulletin. The completion of the list changes from time to time as men come to back each candidate, and all three of them seemed to have plenty of money behind their choice. Morris was high man for a while, and then Thompson forged ahead with a list of bets at even money against the field. Lynch seemed to be the stronger of the three during most of the morning, and at the noon hour, while Morris money seemed to turn on the margin of the vote he would receive, his figures running from five to nine times that of Morris.

ELECTION IS QUIET.

The election is the quietest in the city's history, and is rather accounted for by the fact that none of the three parties is willing to make a preliminary demonstration, for fear it might be called off later in the day. The calm probably proceeds from the unusually active demonstration on the part of the winners this evening and tomorrow morning. No two men on the streets seem to get together without entering upon a political argument. The winning candidate, it is estimated, must have over 7,000 votes, and few men are willing to concede any one of them over 2,000 in addition to this figure, or to concede less than 2,000 below it.

AFTERNOON CLAIMS.

At 2:30 p. m. the Republicans claimed the Third precinct by 700 and the First precinct by a smaller lead. The Democrats claimed the Second, Third and Fourth precincts. The Americans claimed the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, Forty-first, Forty-second, Forty-third, Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, Sixty-ninth, Seventieth, Seventy-first, Seventy-second, Seventy-third, Seventy-fourth, Seventy-fifth, Seventy-sixth, Seventy-seventh, Seventy-eighth, Seventy-ninth, Eightieth, Eighty-first, Eighty-second, Eighty-third, Eighty-fourth, Eighty-fifth, Eighty-sixth, Eighty-seventh, Eighty-eighth, Eighty-ninth, Ninetieth, Ninety-first, Ninety-second, Ninety-third, Ninety-fourth, Ninety-fifth, Ninety-sixth, Ninety-seventh, Ninety-eighth, Ninety-ninth, One hundredth.

WHEN POLLS WILL CLOSE.

The polls will close at 7 o'clock to-night and after that very little to be known until about 10 o'clock, when reports will begin to come in. The final result, however, will not be determined until possibly midnight.

"AMERICAN" TACTICS.

Block Voting by Challenging Well Known Citizens.

That the "Americans" are in desperate straits and have gone into the fight to win, at whatever cost, is evident from the tactics pursued for many days in the thirty-eighth district, for instance. They had prepared a challenge list of 300 names, among them were some of Salt Lake's most prominent citizens. These men, when they presented themselves to vote, were promptly challenged on the ground of non-residence. Such men as J. E. Kidder, E. C. and Verne L. Halliday were charged on this ground, and when they demonstrated with the challenger and Martial Law Will Probably be Proclaimed—Socialists Broke Promise and Precipitated Trouble.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—A cable dispatch to the Herald from Prague says: Barricades formed of stones and garden seats have been erected here and barbed wire has been stretched across the streets by the rioters who shoot from the barricades at the soldiers.

Socialist organizations have distributed 1,200 revolvers. Five thousand Czechs and students have declared their solidarity with the revolutionists.

An officer of dragoons named Von Benesch was yesterday thrown from his horse which was frightened by the noise of the firing, and broke his foot. The mob tried to lynch him.

It is reported that martial law will be proclaimed today. The trouble arose out of the authorization which has been granted 8,000 Socialists to form an orderly procession on Sunday in order to demonstrate in favor of universal suffrage.

Gendarmes, cavalry and infantry were brought from the country to strengthen the police.

Soon after noon the Socialists decided to break their promise to be orderly and attacked the police with sticks and stones. The police defended themselves with revolvers and rifles but were unable to save themselves.

The captain of the dragoons therefore ordered his men to attack at full speed on the rebel army, the dragoons.

The Socialists were dispersed. Three regiments of infantry then occupied all the streets and public squares. Four persons were killed and a boy's head was split open. About 100 other persons were injured and 200 rioters arrested.

Pavements were stained with blood. The superintendent of police received 13 wounds. The tram cars and other means of conveyance have been stopped.

RUSSIAN MORE FREEDOM.

Czar Issues a Project for a Sweeping Extension of the Suffrage.

WITTE IS FORMING A CABINET.

His New Government Seems to be Getting Well Under Way—Reign of Riot Dying Down.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—The project for a sweeping extension of the suffrage in elections to the national assembly, promised by the emperor, is published.

After the first days of confusion and doubt following the issuance of the manifesto giving a constitution to Russia and nominating Count Witte premier, the latter's new government appears to be getting fairly under way.

The cabinet with which Count Witte will undertake the difficult task of guiding the nation on its new course of constitutionalism and preventing the radical and agitator elements from driving it on the rocks of revolution is now beginning to take form.

Situation in New York Unique, as It May Result in Democratic Defeat by Straight Party Tickets.

BETTING 2 TO 1 ON MCLELLAN

In Philadelphia Indications Are That Vote Will be as Heavy as in Presidential Year.

New York, Nov. 7.—An unusually lively interest in the city and county election was manifested today by the rapidity with which the voting proceeded. There was very little disorder.

There were 222 arrests for illegal voting up to 2:30 p. m. An incident of the election was the decision of some of the captains and watchers at the polls for W. R. Hearst. Later in the day S. Fulton Cutting of the Citizens' Union, complained to Police Commissioner McAdoo that there was electioneering at polling places. Mr. McAdoo ordered it stopped.

During the afternoon each of the three leading candidates for mayor expressed his confidence of his election.

New York, Nov. 7.—Election day in this city dawned clear and crisp with every indication of an enormous vote being polled, the greater part of it in the morning.

The polls opened at 6 o'clock and in nearly every precinct hundreds of voters were already in line. There was practically no cessation between the formal closing of the canvass and the opening of the polls.

The morning papers were filled with minute directions as to voting places and the advice was timely as the prospect was that an unusually large number of ballots would be unintentionally invalidated by the voters.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Milton Franklin Andrews and his consort, Nilda Petrie, who had fled after brutally attacking and robbing William Ellis, a horseman at Berkeley, whom they had lured from Australia, were dead last night in the rooms at James Meagher house at 769 McAllister street. The police had surrounded the place. Andrews was hidden in a closet when a policeman by subterfuge entered the room.

Realizing that their hiding place was discovered, the young woman persuaded the policeman to leave the room. She locked the door and immediately afterwards two shots were heard in the apartment. The police broke in and the bodies of the fugitives with bullet holes in their heads were
