

OREGON DEBATEERS RECEIVE DECISION

Veatch and Galloway Prove to Be Superiors of Utah Team.

JUDGES STOOD TWO TO ONE.

Visiting Team Composed of Veterans
Who Won Audience of Rivals
By Brilliant Showing.

In the final interstate debate of this school year, the University of Oregon team, composed of John C. Veatch and Francis V. Galloway, both members of the Kappa Sigma college fraternity, was victorious over the University of Utah team, winning by a vote of two judges against one for Utah.

The Utah team was composed of Christen Jensen and Richard W. Young, Jr., and the debate for Oregon was the final of a series of four, in each of which the Oregon team was successful, thus winning first honors in the northwest for the year. The Utah team was represented by the speakers being well prepared, rebuttal ably delivered, and arguments forcefully brought out. The victory of Oregon was not decisive enough to put her team in a class better than that of her opponents, but to make it a fair fight with only a shade of superiority for the winner, Judge W. H. Kinsie, who was to have presided, was unavoidably detained, and in his absence President Kingsbury introduced the speakers.

YOUNG OPENS DEBATE.

The task of opening the debate, always considered one of the most difficult of the evening, fell to Richard W. Young, Jr., who was not at all affirmative of the question:

"Resolved, That the fifteenth amendment and the second section of the fourteenth article of the federal constitution be repealed."

Mr. Young was making his maiden effort as an intercollegiate debater, and when Veatch of Oregon arose after he had concluded, it was apparent from the contrast that four years of training in public speaking release one from the strain and nervous restraint of a first effort. Mr. Young improved rapidly in form as his speech proceeded, showing first that the clause in the question relating to the second portion of the fourteenth amendment need not be considered, as the issue would hang on the fifteenth, which, if repealed, would necessarily carry the other matter with it. He then brought out the fact that the negro is the inferior of the white race in all lines, the race never having advanced in art, science, or literature.

J. C. Veatch, who opened for the negative, declared that the Utah argument was a fiction that was commonplace 15 years ago, and that has been eliminated in the past decade from serious consideration. The burden of proof, he declared, was to prove that the amendment had created certain evils, that its repeal would rectify them, and that it could be repealed without harm to the nation. He then proceeded to show that the amendment had not fulfilled the purpose of its enactment.

GALLOWAY THE STAR.

F. V. Galloway, the second Oregon speaker, proved himself to be a master of diction and delivery, winning the audience from the first, and carrying the evening's star debate. He exhibited a chart showing the rise and fall of negro literacy, and made a decided hit by declaring that it was impossible to conduct elections without attempts at fraud. "We cannot do it in Oregon," he said, "and how is it with you people here in Utah?"

This effort marked the close of the principal speeches, and was followed by three rebuttal speeches, by Young, Veatch, and Jensen, who closed for the affirmative. Veatch in his final effort, marked by witty retorts and sharp thrusts, declared that the fifteenth amendment is the only thing that stands between the negro and an inflamed race passion that might become incited at any time. Young held that the repeal of the amendment meant that franchise would be a reward of progress, and would come to all those worthy of exercising it. Jensen, in closing the entire debate, reviewed his arguments, and declared that the affirmative was somewhat spoiled by interruptions from Veatch, who rose to ask for information twice.

The judges were H. H. Henderson, R. N. Baskin and Farley B. Williams, and their decision for the negative brought cheers from the crowd, which was satisfied with the result.

DOING BUSINESS AGAIN.

"When my friends thought I was about to take leave of this world, on account of indigestion, nervousness and general debility," writes A. A. Chisholm, "I tried Dr. King's New Life Pills, and when it looked as if there was no hope left, I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are doing me. I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best of all tonic medicines. Guaranteed by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 50c.

TODAY'S ORGAN RECITAL.

Singer With a Romantic History Will Appear at the Tabernacle.

At the organ recital given by J. J. McClellan, organist of the tabernacle, Saturday afternoon, Galloway, "There is Green Hill," will be sung by Miss Toona. Miss Toona is a member of the French Grand Opera company, and is the American representative of L'Artiste club of Europe. She is giving the lecture on "The Great Southwest" this week at the Orpheum, and it is through the courtesy of the Orpheum management that Miss Toona sings this afternoon.

Miss Toona has a romantic history; her father being Alexander Coutts-Johnstone, a nomadic member of a prominent Scotch family, and cousin of the late Baroness Burdette Coutts. He came to America in the early '50s and married an Apache; subsequently he was killed by Indians in a land where Grouse and Rattlesnake attended to her education. In 1886 she entered a chorus in a theatrical company, but withdrew her singers on the plea that she had evidence that the prize awarded had been prearranged. During her stay in this city she has been entertained by Mrs. E. E. Stephens, Prof. E. E. Stephens and others connected with the local musical colony.

FAKIRS GET BUSY.

News of Daynes Burglary Followed by Flood of Sure Thing Letters.

News of the Daynes robbery has spread over the country rapidly and the firm is now receiving many offers from alleged detectives, mediums and others who think they see a chance to rake in a few dollars. In the meantime the police officials are working on the case and doing all they can to get a clue as to the identity of the burglars and the location of the stolen property.

This morning Mr. Daynes received a communication from an alleged detective agency in St. Louis in which was stated:

"We know the robbers who stole diamonds, watches and jewelry from you and will return the robbers with the goods if you employ us." If the so-called detectives know anything about the affair and can do as stated in the communication, all they have to do is to deliver the goods and secure $1,000 reward. Mr. Daynes does not place any confidence in the outfit as he thinks if detectives knew anything about the robbers and where they are, they would immediately get busy and earn the $1,000 reward.

BITTEN BY A SPIDER.

Through the blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington of Bosqueville, Texas, would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Buckle's Arnica Salve. He not only recovered, but the salve healed, and four boxes healed all the sores." 25c. Guaranteed at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

SONS OF WALES ORGANIZE.

Auxiliary of the Cambrian Society Launched With Due Eclat.

A society called "The Sons of Wales" was organized last night at Coater's music store as an auxiliary of the Cambrian society. The object is to perpetuate the Welsh language, and for the study of its literature, music and history. The society starts with 20 members, with M. J. Thomas as president, and John Evans as secretary. The committee to prepare regulations and by-laws, includes M. J. Thomas, John James, Ross Davies, Evan Arthur, John Evans and W. D. Phillips. The society sang "Arbyd y Nos," a melody composed in the time of Elizabeth.

THE PRICE OF HEALTH.

"The price of health in a malarious district is 25 cents; the cost of a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Ella Clayton, of Noland, Ark. New Life Pills cleanse gently and impart new life and vigor to the system. Satisfaction guaranteed at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

GEORGE N. BLACK LECTURES.

Condemns the Prejudice Manifested Against the Jews in America.

President George N. Black of the B'nai B'rith at Los Angeles, lectured last evening in the Jewish temple. In his address he condemned the prejudice manifested against the Jews by people in this country.

"There seems to be something in the atmosphere of freedom in this great land that makes Jews forget their religion. We cannot hope to find the reason for this, but this much is certain—the Jews of the country must combine for self-protection, for the preservation and growth of their religion and for the safety of their grandchildren."

The speaker declared it a purpose of the B'nai B'rith to Americanize the immigrant Jew, and was opposed to legislation tending to exclude foreign Jews from this country.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The final Symphony orchestra concert was given yesterday afternoon in the presence of a fairly good audience. The turn-out was mostly made up of ladies, but it was pleasant to note that the family gallery was crowded with the music students of the Latter-day Saints university. It can be said without flattery that the program was one of the most finished, if not actually the most finished which the orchestra has yet presented. The main interest, of course, was attached to the first rendition of Mr. Shepherd's new numbers, the "Valse Lente" and March "Pittore-sque." It is not too much to say that in them Mr. Shepherd scored a triumph, and if the name of DeLisser Tschickowsky had been written opposite these numbers instead of that of Shepherd, not one in a thousand would question the authorship. The "Valse" has a beautiful theme with a rich serious swing, and it was capitally done by the performers. The March, which the instrumentalists must have found something of a chore to perform, was played with but without her singers on the plea that she had evidence that the prize awarded had been prearranged. During her stay in this city she has been entertained by Mrs. E. E. Stephens, Prof. E. E. Stephens and others connected with the local musical colony.

ried out, the finish being especially strong. They showed a rich imagination and mastery treatment on the part of the author. The other numbers of the program, "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream," the "Mendelssohn Symphony No. 3," the beautiful Strauss Waltz "Wiener Blut"—a charming melody after the manner of that preceded it—and the "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar were all rendered in a fashion which showed the orchestra had made strong improvement since its last appearance. The strings especially distinguished themselves. "Adagio" to the Symphony was rendered with a majesty and a studiousness that was excellent. The flutes and clarinets did good work in the "Adagio" and the brasses through the whole evening were better than they have ever been.

Mrs. Walter G. Tattis, the harp soloist, made a charming impression by her two numbers, and was called back to the stage and presented with a handsome floral offering. Her work is that of a real artist, and the addition of her instrument to the "Shepherd" March was like throwing a shower of pearls over the general effect.

Mr. Flanagan, the flutist, added to his already high reputation by his rendition of the "Concerto" by Mozart. He plays with astonishing skill and ease for one so young, and shows steady advancement in his work.

The sole drawback of the concert was its length. The management must learn to compress the program to one hour and a half instead of having it last two hours. The concert was yesterday, 15 minutes, too, were lost in waiting for late comers in the audience.

Prof. Lund of Provo, who came up to be present at the birth of Shepherd's new lighting changes, was especially enthusiastic over those numbers, and the program of the orchestra in general.

A good bill is promised at the Lyric vaudeville theater beginning this afternoon. The program is a good one, and the performers are of the highest caliber. The program of the orchestra in general.

TO MAKE A SPARKLING "U."

Students of University Hit Upon a Novel Scheme in Ornamentation.

The students of the university have decided to take up the matter of rejuvenating the big "U" on the mountain east of the city in near prospect. The big letter was originally made as the result of a class quarrel, two of the factions of which ran a race to put their tokens in line on the mountain side. The efforts of both factions, however, were finally centered on the big "U" and it has been decided to make the ornamentation permanent by building it in such a way as to be strikingly it over with particles of broken mirror, giving to the line a glinting effect that may be seen many miles. The work will probably be undertaken by the students about May 15.

Women have decided that in case they cannot vote, they will cut out the "protection" provision. Perfectly proper. Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is good for most everything. 25 cents. Tea or Tablets. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 312-214, 50c. Main.

FRED MILLER IN TOWN.

Atty. for Pettibone, Moyer and Haywood Looking for a Witness.

Fred Miller, one of the attorneys for Pettibone, Moyer and Haywood, charged with complicity in the murder of Frank Steinhagen, ex-governor of Idaho, is in the city. Mr. Miller comes from Spokane, and is in Salt Lake for the purpose of looking up a certain witness wanted by the defense. Mr. Miller is emphatic in his denunciation of the interference of President Roosevelt in the case of his clients and his personal reference to them in his public writings.

"Roosevelt's letter was written for the purpose of breaking down the last bulwark of defense of the accused," said Mr. Miller, "and we think with malice aforethought to prejudice the public mind against the defendants." Mr. Miller denied that the Federation of Miners had anything to do with securing Senator Borah's indictment for land frauds. "Mr. Borah himself says that this indictment is the result of personal hostility to him of United States Dist. Atty. Hulick."

Mr. Miller further said that elaborate preparations are being made for the defense in the case of the accused men, and they would be defended by Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago, E. F. Richardson of Denver, J. J. Nugent of Boise and himself.

WORK IN MANUAL TRAINING.

Splendid Exhibit by Pupils of Ogden District School.

An exhibition of the handiwork of the pupils of the Ogden school was on display at the rooms of the school last evening, and it was a most creditable exposition of the work of the pupils of that institution. The rooms had been lastfully decorated for the occasion, and the exhibits, which were arranged on three floors of the building, were visited by a large number of parents of the pupils and friends of the school.

The visitors were conducted through the building by Miss L. M. Qualtrough, principal of the school, and Miss J. Katherine Caulfield, who has charge of the manual training department, and their assistants. The work of each department was excellent. In the woodworking department a hand carved book case by Harold Martin, was especially meritorious, as was also a solid oak chair by Van Bledsoe. The whitening table showed the possibilities of this art, while the exhibits in the sewing department, by the girl students, were of a very high grade and reflected much credit upon the young ladies of the school.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony M. Nelson announce the engagement of their daughter, Daisy Nelson, to J. Lee Hagen, the wedding to take place in June. Mr. Hagen is the son of the artist, John Hagen.

Miss Edna Dwyer gave a box party for the Crossman play on Thursday night, and last night entertained Miss Crossman at dinner.

A marriage which will be in the nature of a surprise to their friends is that of Miss Laura Ellsworth and Mr. George Bushnell of Ogden, the event taking place quietly at noon on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Griggs. Deputy David Smith performing the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride is a popular young girl of Ogden, and the groom a member of the Stevens Improvement Co. of that place. They will start tomorrow for Salt Lake, and will be at home to their friends at 615 Twenty-first street.

About 50 people were present last night at the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Eberhardt in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Eberhardt, who were married in Salt Lake in Batio. The rooms were beautifully decorated, fruit blossoms and cut flowers being used with ferns, smilax and palms, with charming effect, the dining room with its table adorned with apple wares, some of which hung a cloud of white tulle and pink ribbons, being especially effective. Delightful music was furnished by a number of relatives and intimate friends assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Chambers and Miss Hildebrand moved from their residence on Fifth South street and are at home at 161 F Street.

The Daughters of Utah Pioneers will meet next Wednesday at the Lion House at 3 o'clock for the semi-monthly study session, which promises to be unusually interesting.

A pleasant surprise was given in honor of Miss Bess Tovey, Wednesday evening, at the home of Miss Jaule Knight. The surprise was given by several selections on the piano during the evening, and some very interesting games were played which were enjoyed by all. A delicious supper was served in the dining room, the rooms being very prettily decorated with roses, carnations and lilies. Miss Knight was assisted in the dining room by Daisy Brown and Miss Nellie Knight.

Mrs. Fred Hornung leaves today for California for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. Tovey, accompanied by Miss Bess Tovey left Friday morning on a pleasure trip to California, to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Crawford.

Mrs. John C. Cutler, who was among the many who attended at the symphony orchestra yesterday, afterward entertained her guests at dinner at the Bradford, the party numbering, besides the hostess, Mrs. Phummar, Mrs. W. W. Ritter, Mrs. Willard Dene, Miss Dene, and Miss Mabel Cutler. Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Daly were others who gave parties.

Mrs. Joseph Kimball, of 777 Seventh street, is spending a few days with her children in Pocatello.

By special request Miss Agnes Dahlquist, accompanied by six of her advanced pupils, gave a pianoforte recital last Wednesday afternoon in Logan, which was highly appreciated. Those taking part were Misses Dahlquist, Hazel Jagart, Edna Stookley, Florence Aveson, Bernice Davidson and Mary Lundberg. Miss Dahlquist has often been requested to devote a portion of her time in Logan.

Last night an enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Tovey, in honor of the birthday of the Relief society of the Second ward, planned by the teachers and members of the society. The time was pleasantly spent with social and musical entertainment and other social pastimes. Among the guests were Mrs. Musser, president of the stake, and her counselors, and the other guests numbered about 30.

Expresses His Great Faith In Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na Is a Tonic Especially Adapted to the Prevention and Relief of All Catarrhal Ailments Due to the Vicissitudes of Climate and Exposure Experienced by the Soldier.

An Old Soldier's Praise.
Mr. F. R. Cox, Avila, Pa., writes:
"I was taken with hemorrhages of the stomach and had from one to three a year."

"The doctors said my stomach could not be cured, and it was only a question of how soon one of these spells would kill me, and I was given up several times, as they had no hope for me."

"I finally wrote to you, and you said it was not a cancer or a tumor, Peru-na would cure me."

"I commenced taking Peru-na right away, and have never had one of those spells since."

"I am an old soldier, one of Phil Sheridan's Rough Riders, and pretty nearly played out now, but I have a pretty good stomach again."

COL. ARTHUR L. HAMILTON.

Gallant Porto Rican Soldier Gives Praise to Pe-ru-na.

Col. Arthur L. Hamilton, of the Seventh Ohio Volunteers, writes from 259 Goodale St., Columbus, O., as follows:

"Besides having the merits of Peru-na fully demonstrated in my family, I have a number of friends who have taken it for catarrh and stomach trouble and all unite in praising it. As a remedy for catarrh, I can fully recommend it."

In a letter to Dr. Hartman, Col. Hamilton writes:

"My command used your Peru-na during our service in the Spanish-American War, and I will say this, that if the War Department records are consulted, it will be found that the casualties in my regiment were less than in any other regiment of the Army Corps while at Camps Alger, Meade and Bushnell. The total deaths in my regiment during the seven months' service, were seven out of a total number of 1400. Of course, cannot help but think that Peru-na certainly was a great benefit to my command."

In a recent letter, Col. Hamilton says:

"I have used Peru-na myself and in my family for the last seven years. I have already written you about the good results I experienced with your remedy during the Spanish-American War."

In old age the mucous membranes become thickened and partly lose their function.

This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive disturbances.

Peru-na corrects all this by its efficient operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

One bottle will convince anyone. Once used and Peru-na becomes a life-long standby with old and young.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peru-na has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind.

Peru-na has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of the catarrh.

Almost Nervous Prostration.

Rev. A. M. Smith, Hahira, Ga., writes:

"For the past two or three years I have been troubled with nervousness, at times resulting in almost nervous prostration. Recently I have had very severe attacks, and was induced by a friend to try Peru-na. This I have done with more than satisfactory results, and consider Peru-na the best medicine on the market for what it is recommended."

"To all who suffer with nervousness in any form I would say, 'use Peru-na.'"
