IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the Chicago & North-Western Railway is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the last two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been relaid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee line and Pan Handle routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Iones, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Monahan, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d35

WOMEN AND DEVILS.—Old Winston was a negro preacher in Virginia, and his ideas of theology and human nature were often very original.

"Winston, I understand you believe every woman has seven devils. How can you prove it?"

"Well, sah, did you never read in de Bible how Mary Magdalen were cast out by seven devils?"

"Oh, yes, I've read dat."

"Did you notice how 'em be in 'em, cast out by any other woman, sah?"

"No, I never did."

"Well, den, all de odders got 'em yet."

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, October 26, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 60 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine, some clouds.

Erratum.—In the last number of the Star (39), in the "Releases," read A. G. Ingram instead of J. C. Ingram.—Millennial Star, Oct. 4.

The New Chief Justice.—Chief Justice Alex. T. White arrived in this city last evening, accompanied by his wife, son and daughter. We bid them welcome to Utah.

The Sanitarium is a monthly journal, published in New York, and devoted, as its name implies, to subjects connected with health. It contains a great deal of information upon this important subject.

A Change.—The cloudiness and coolness of Saturday brought the mercury down to about 61, and yesterday was quite chilly most of the day. As for today, though a few drops fell yesterday, the attempt to multiply them into a shower was a failure.

Homestead Patents.—The following Homestead Patents have been published as having been received by Oliver A. Patton, Register of the U. S. Land Office in this City, and ready for delivery:

Joshua Tenny, George W. Brown, Ezra Adams, James Carlisle, Daniel Lewis, Chancy Hadlock, Frank Johnson, Simon Schuchter, James Pullen, William Hallenbeck, John Holmberg.

Samuel Bringham, William Parker, Burr Krost, William Bricker, Robert Broadhead, Daniel Johnson, George Garza, Edward Walker, John S. McFarlane.

Wide Awake is one of the best illustrated magazines for girls and boys published in America. It is much like the St. Nicholas, though lower in price. It is beautifully illustrated, and printed on good paper, and each number is full of a general favorite with the juveniles. The number before us contains seventy pages and upwards of forty illustrations, besides a page of music. Published by D. Lothrop & Co., Boston.

Theatre.—There was an uncommonly large audience at the Theatre on Saturday evening. Mr. Croxall may congratulate himself upon a very successful benefit. The performance was a varied one, commencing with farce, which was played spiritedly, to the great amusement of the audience. The concert was well received, especially the solos of Messrs. Hedger, Weihe and Croxall. Mr. Vivian closed the programme in his own entertaining and masterly style.

At the 15th Ward Hall, on Wednesday evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, a varied entertainment, musical and otherwise, will be given, the occasion being a complimentary benefit to Elder Douglas A. Swan, who will leave shortly to go on a mission to Australia. Brother Thomas C. Griggs is announced as musical conductor of the affair, and Brother J. M. Chamberlain as organist. The programme presents an excellent array of talent, and the entertainment will consist of songs, recitations, duets, quartets, &c.; an attractive bill, and the occasion should bring out a large audience, which, in all probability, it will do.

Young vs. Young.—At the afternoon session of the District Court, on Saturday, the attorneys in the matter of Young vs. Young, where the defendant was required to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt, in not complying with an order requiring him to pay alimony pendente lite, continued their arguments. C. H. Hemstead for the defendant, and J. B. McBride, closing for the plaintiff. At the conclusion of the hearing of the attorneys, his Honor Judge Boreman announced that he would probably deliver his decision in the case on Wednesday, when he desired that the defendant should be present.

Tabernacle Meetings.—Yesterday afternoon the congregation was addressed by the following Elders, who were called at the recent conference to go on missions to various parts of the world, and who will soon leave for their various fields of labor:

Theodore McKean, William McKean, Joseph F. Simmons, E. W. East, John Morgan, Janus F. Wells, Kaud H. Brown, Hans Thurneson, Platte D. Lyman, Thomas Callister, Hamilton G. Park, Thomas Harris and I. M. Coombs.

The remarks of these Elders showed that they are imbued with a truthful conception of the nature of the work they have to perform in going forth into the world to preach the principles of salvation. Each of them delivered a strong testimony to the truth of the great latter-day work, speaking with much assurance.

At the meeting was a very interesting and impressive one, and could scarcely fail to impress even strangers with the idea that there must be some powerful motive force, in what is called "Mormonism," that does not appear on the surface, to cause men to unhesitatingly leave their homes and families and travel thousands of miles in distant lands to promulgate the principles of the system among their fellow creatures. It is a spectacle that is not produced by any other system extant, and of itself appears sufficient to cause unprejudiced people to inquire into the extraordinary cause which produces so remarkable a result.

NOTICE.

A MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Company will be held at President Brigham Young's office, Salt Lake City, Monday, November 1st, 1875, at 7 p.m., for the purpose of electing directors and officers for the ensuing year.

By order of the Board, T. G. WEBBER, Secretary.

THIS IS THE MEDICINE OF NATURE.

For Destroying and Expelling all kinds of Worms, Cleansing the Body, Blood, &c.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

A few of the most common symptoms which indicate the presence of worms:—Changeable Appetite, Offensive Breath, Pains in the Stomach and head, Grinding of the Teeth during Sleep, Pale Face with Hollow Sunken Eyes, Itching of the Nose and Fundament, Irregularity of the Bowels, a Short Dry Cough, Loss of Spirit, Feverishness and Disturbed Sleep, Rising in the Throat causing Stitches, &c.

DO NOT LET YOUR CHILD DIE.

Shall the bad of infant bloom soon be hurried to the tomb? Mother, you with watchful eye, Do not let your darling die, Mark the dulness of that eye, All irregularity.

Mark that pale, white and deep, And the feverish stifle sleep, See the stomach full and heaving, And the bowels still debarred, Mark that breaking pain and woe.

SAVE IT—SAVE IT!

Why has your darling never smiled, The warm and rosy cheeks away? Sink it to death and dire decay! Hear then the really welcome sound, Save it! a remedy is found.

PLAVER'S never-failing Powder and Syrup. A cure most sure and speedy makes. Kills the death-worm, and the gloom, Changes to matchless health and bloom; It never fails, it never cures, It cures the child, the youth, the man; It cures, too, with haste, Not supplanting to the last, Hundreds who have tried it all attest It is the cheapest and the best. Try it—try it—try it—try it—Every parent now should buy it, Wait not till another day, Till every chance has passed away, Make at once the solemn vow That you will try it—try it now! Mother, you with watchful eye, Do not let your darling die.

Another Trip.—Hon. A. P. Rockwood has just returned from another trip, in collecting statistics of the material resources of the Territory. This time he has been to Wasatch, Summit and Morgan Counties. He is meeting with success that exceeds his most sanguine expectations. Day after day he is leaving for sample and Sevier Counties, and from the latter he will proceed to the more southern ones, and expects to be gone about five or six weeks. He visits every settlement in the Territory, so that the information he collates will be reliable and complete, and consequently valuable.

More Missionaries.—Yesterday afternoon, at the meeting in the New Tabernacle, Elder John Taylor presented the following names of additional brethren, called to go on missions:

Owen Dix, Thomas Mathews, Lyman S. Wood and Thomas E. Jeremy.

The congregation voted to sustain those Elders in going on the mission to which they are appointed.

Hurt His Head.—This afternoon a lad named Bodles, son of Brother Henry Bodles, was standing under a couple of openings in the upper floor of the new Bank building, when a half brick descended from a distance of thirty-five feet from where he stood, striking him on the side of the head and inflicting a cut, from which the blood flowed in a copious stream. He had the wound plastered up, and the injury was not so severe as to disable him.

Accident.—At the end of last week, James Lelimer, employed on the Utah Southern railroad gravel train, had one of his legs accidentally crushed between a couple of cars. His injuries are not considered dangerous, and he will probably be able to be about again in a couple of weeks or so.
