

SCHOOL BOARD AND ECONOMY

Supervisors Are Dispensed With At Executive Night Session.

NEXT YEAR'S TEACHERS LIST

Principal McKay of the Lowell School Will Not Be Re-employed—Other Business.

A very interesting and lengthy session of the board of education was held last night at which the teachers for the coming year were selected. The most important action of the board was the abolishing of the positions of supervisor of music and supervisor of drawing and practically abolishing the department of manual training, as a separate and independent department. Most of the work of the board was done in secret session which lasted until about 11:30 o'clock, after which a short open session was held to authenticate the work of the secret session.

ECONOMY THE WATCHWORD.

Economy was the main issue and it was thought advisable to drop some of the supervisors and let the work of their departments go along under the supervision of the teachers. Accordingly, supervisor of music Prof. W. A. Wetzel, and supervisor of drawing Mrs. F. R. Elliott, were not re-elected by the board, and although Prof. Samuel Doxey is retained, he will serve as principal of one of the smaller schools, and at the same time train the manual training, and his three assistants, Mrs. Tomlinson, Miss Jessup and Miss Corbett, are released, and what manual training is taught, will be taught by the regular teachers under the direction of Prof. Doxey.

BOARD PASSES BIG DEFICIT.

The board faces a deficit, it fears, of about $40,000, and it was voted that a large majority of the members that economy must be practiced and it was thought that the best way would be to let some of the supervisors go and let the work of their departments go along under the supervision of the regular teachers. Nelden, Henderson and Young urged that all of the supervisors be retained, but they favored disposing with all of them if it had to be done and not retaining one and let the others go. Prof. Doxey was saved by the motion of Mr. Moyle, that he be retained as supervisor of manual training and principal of one of the smaller schools. Those who voted with Mr. Moyle on his motion were Glaum, Newman, Branning, Cummings and Cheesman. Those who voted against him were Young, Nelden and Henderson.

Prof. Christensen was instrumental in securing the re-election of Miss Rossie Pollock, supervisor of primary department. He argued that primary department is one of the most essential things in school work. Mr. Nelden urged that if any of the supervisors were kept, all should be kept. He didn't believe in letting out a competent man like Mrs. Elliott and keeping a great husky man like Prof. Doxey on the list. He considered such action a shame and a disgrace. To the honor of Newman argued that there was too much supervision in the schools and too many days.

VOTE SEGREGATED.

Judge Henderson asked that the vote on Doxey and Miss Pollock be segregated. This was done, and Doxey was re-elected, as was above. The vote on the re-election of Miss Pollock was as follows: Ayes—Branning, Cheesman, Moyle, Newman, Young, Nelden, Henderson and Glaum. Mr. Cummings had declined to be present at the meeting. So Miss Pollock was retained by a unanimous vote. The vote on retaining the three assistants in the manual training department was a tie, and the women were accordingly not retained. Cheesman, Young, Nelden and Henderson voted against the women, and Glaum, Newman, Moyle and Branning voted in favor of them.

LET'S LOWELL PRINCIPAL OUT.

No definite action was taken by the board upon the re-election of the principals, although the committee submitted a report favoring the re-appointment of all the principals except Prof. C. N. McKay. The report was discussed, but, upon the statement of Superintendent Christensen that he had promised Prof. McKay that no definite action would be taken at this meeting, so that he would have time to submit his resignation, the report went over until a future meeting. It is understood that Prof. McKay has not been in harmony with the present school administration, and that Supt. Christensen considered his reappointment as rather an obstruction to the progress of the schools and as a detriment to the harmony which should prevail in all school work. Eight out of the ten members, at a previous meeting, voted to not re-engage him. The postponement of action on the matter will not alter the proposition in the least as far as Prof. McKay is concerned, as it was done to give him an opportunity to resign in his resignation. Prof. McKay has been employed in the Salt Lake schools for 13 years.
