

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1893.

GRAVITY SEWER STOPPED.

The Stop is Taken as the Result of a Clash Between the Board and Contractors.

The board of public works met last evening to discuss the gravity sewer aqueduct. During the afternoon the board had visited the sewer line in order to get themselves on the matter.

At the meeting the engineer notified the board that he refused to confirm the order allowing the contractor to start the work. A long debate then ensued on the matter and manner of construction. Mr. Hobson, one of the contractors, asked permission to speak. The request was granted, and among other things he said:

"When we made our bid, we sent samples with it, and they were sent to the Board of Public Works, on which our figures were made. If the samples were not satisfactory the bid should have been rejected, that's all. We were willing to have those bricks submitted to any test, and I am confident that they will stand up to any test, by crushing them, or otherwise."

After a number of questions had been propounded, and squarely and fully answered, the matter was referred to a special committee to conduct further investigation by some of the inspectors.

The question of employing outside workmen became up for consideration, and finally work was ordered stopped until an investigation can be had.

The board will meet again tonight to deliberate further on the question.

Charter Amendments.

The Western Loan & Savings company through Francis Armstrong, president, and Clarence George, secretary, filed with Territorial Secretary Michaelis, and yesterday afternoon, the first "no man's land" amendment was introduced into the Senate by Senator George Hersey. The amendment, which is a short statement of the views of the Bank of Mormon, Elder Lyman then spoke on Church discipline and after the closing exercises, conference adjourned for three hours. The report of the investigation from all the wards were presented at each session of the conference.

complaint, and alleges that his income does not exceed $1,100 per annum. He applies for application for temporary leave of absence, and is granted it by the Board, and also has a written certificate to substantiate his citations with regard to his wife's misconduct.

Wasatch Stake Conference.

The Wasatch Stake conference convened at Heber on Saturday and Sunday, July 29th and 30th. On Saturday morning Elder Abram Hatch, president of the Stake, Richard Harvey and Joseph Lauter were the speakers. In the afternoon Elder P. M. Aquan, after hearing the Bishop's report, commented upon the same and advised the people how to live. Sunday morning Elder John M. Morrison, Elder H. M. Alexander and T. R. McAllister, all of the Presiding Bishopric of the Presidency of the Territories, were the speakers. The general and local Church authorities were then convened and sustained, after which Thomas Hobson and Elder Abram Hatch were sustained as the presiding officers of the conference in place of George Hersey. Elder Lyman then spoke on Church discipline and after the closing exercises, conference adjourned for three hours. The report of the investigation from all the wards were presented at each session of the conference.

ALFRED BOND, Clerk.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Sacramento—Continued.

The opening of a new Congress always brings to the front a thousand and one schemes new and old to control the number of bills introduced in Congress, and it is again seriously proposed that the House have a special committee, the approval of which shall be required before the bill can be introduced. At first glances this is apt to regard the proposition as a good one and in the line of a sound policy, there is certainly a lot of time and money wasted on bills that are utterly absurd. But a little consideration will convince most people that a committee entrusted with the power of deciding what bills shall and shall not be introduced would be a much greater and more dangerous peril than the shower of bills now poured upon Congress, especially when introduced in a manner unbecoming a woman by means of profane and vulgar language. Mr. Tufts further denies that he is worth the amount claimed by his wife in her petition to her to be continuing the charitably, as the trustees have stated that she would not care to be chairman of the committee which would be appointed to consider the bill.

There may be a surprise in store for everybody in this instance.

St. George, Utah, were the result of the discussion never will affect the country, and if it does, it will require more months than some people seem to imagine weeks necessary to accomplish.
