EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, Dec. 28, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Going Home.—Messrs. John T. Caine, Jr., and Robert S. Campbell, of Logan, who with their families have been spending a week in Salt Lake, return north Friday.

Personal.—Mr. John M. Young, principal of the 17th Ward school, started for Park City this morning to spend remaining holidays of the season.

H. G. Cummings, Esq., one of the proprietors of the Logan Leader, is in town, seeing the sights.

Fireman's Grand Ball. — The Fire Brigade of this city will give a grand ball in the Theatre on New Year's Eve, Friday evening, the 31st inst. The arrangements are extensive and will be complete. The ball promises to be a big affair. The brigade will appear in full uniform. Everyone should go who gets a ticket.

Travelling Troupe.— The Brigham City Dramatic Association are playing an engagement at Logan. They are reviving ancient favorites such as "The Honeymoon," "Miralda," "Woman's Love," "Love in Livery," and other pieces so popular here in the old Social Hall theatrical times.

Concert and Ball.—One of the grandest affairs of the season will be the concert and ball to be given in the Theatre on Thursday evening in aid of the Masonic Library. In addition to the dancing, a fine programme of songs, duets, instrumental overtures, solos and various orchestral selections, has been prepared, and will certainly be an attractive feature of the occasion. See the programme.

Tickets for "Pique."—The sale of reserved seats for to-night's performance has been remarkable, considering all things. Since the box office opened this morning, tickets have been going at a rate that gave the genial Rossiter but little time to drum his fingers on the cash desk. This will be the fourth performance of "Pique," and we will not be at all surprised if there is a full house to witness it. The play deserves it.

Big Business.—The police court is doing a thriving business during the holidays. Not less than 24 saloon keepers have been arrested either for selling liquor without license or selling it after lawful hours. A number of these have been fined, and others will be, in due course of business.

Two Chinamen have been taken into custody for keeping opium houses. A number of other petty cases are also on the docket.

"Leader" Notes.—From the Logan Leader of the 24th:

The pay car of the U. & N. visited Logan again last Tuesday and sped its way northward. These monthly distributions of cash play quite a part in the life of our city nowadays, as some thousand or more people are directly or indirectly interested therein. In fact, all the inhabitants are benefited in some degree thereby.

An anxious daughter would be glad to hear of her parents, Jens and Ane Christina Stiborg, who emigrated from Fredericksharen, Denmark, in April, 1865. They had six children, the names of three of whom were Else Marie, Magnus and Mary. The family are supposed to reside in Utah, and any information respecting them will be thankfully received. Address this office or Bishop Henry Hughes, Mendon, Cache County, Utah.

Soldiers Rampant.— Last evening, a couple of "boys in blue" came in contact with the police in the exercise of their duties, and departed in a little worse condition than they approached. Officer Pratt was assaulted by one of three soldiers who were having a high old time on Main street, and received a blow from his fist. He arrested his assailant, assisted by night-night-watchman Dobson, and took him to the City Hall. The other soldiers followed, and near the Hall they became very abusive to the police and exhibited some ugly looking knives which they brandished threateningly. An altercation followed and an encounter supplemented the whole, in which one of the two blue boys got badly punished and afterwards incarcerated, and the other took to his heels and left for a more congenial neighborhood. Both the soldiers who were locked up were afterwards delivered to the military authorities. The one who was arrested first, got pretty well bruised by a fall he sustained while the officers were arresting him.

Eightieth Birthday. — Sunday, the 26th inst., was the eightieth anniversary of the birth of Sister Elizabeth Ann Whitney. She was born on Dec. 26th, 1800, in the town of Derby, New Haven County, Connecticut. In Kirtland, Ohio, in the year 1824, she married Newel K. Whitney, whom she has survived over thirty years. Her life is well known to thousands of the Latter-day Saints, to whom she is endeared by the angelic sweetness of her disposition, her unswerving integrity to the truth, and the many graces and virtues for which her character is noted. On Sunday, which spent at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. F. Hall, in the 17th Ward, quite a number of her intimate friends gave her a pleasant surprise by calling upon her in a body, and holding a sacred meeting beneath her roof. Sister Presindia Kimball presided, and she and every one of the others made brief and suitable addresses. Sister Whitney was presented with many little gifts and comforts by her kind-hearted friends, and was made still more happy by the presence of those whom she can confidently regard as faithful to her in her declining years. We wish her many more birthdays equally pleasant and agreeable among her friends on the earth before she joins hosts of other equally as dear, on the other side of Chicken Stealing. — The petty crime of chicken stealing is one which seems to be increasing. Such thefts are of almost nightly occurrence and it begins to appear as if there was a regularly organized band of thieves in this community, who make this an especial branch of their nefarious business. It is needless to say that something should be done, and it effects but little to say that something must be done to put a stop to it; such expressions are as useless as they are hackneyed, unless seconded by suggestions that will be effective, if put into execution in suppressing the evil complained of. Chicken stealing is not the darkest crime in the calendar, but it is one sufficiently reprehensible and annoying to induce the exertion of efforts that will tend to diminish the frequency of, and if possible put an end to the contemptible practice. It must be a self-evident fact that all the fowls stolen are not devoured in person by the robbers of the roost. If their own were the only mouths they supply, numerous and voracious though they may be, our peaceable, poultry-owning citizens would have comparatively a light grievance to complain of, and it is not impossible that they might be led to enter into a compact with the plunderers to supply them with enough chicken to satisfy their appetites, as often as they return, provided they could thereby secure immunity from the wholesale depredations of which they are made the victims by these thieving night prowlers. The number of chickens which are stolen, indicate that there are places where the thieves dispose of their plunder for pecuniary or other considerations, and reap a rich harvest by the traffic. The question is, who are they that patronize these characters, thus encouraging them in their lawless course, and assisting in the robbing, not only of their neighbor's roosts, but of their own, if they have any. For the chicken thief neither has a conscience about stealing nor a preference as to whose chickens he steals. All's one to him. He respects no person, and is just as apt to plunder the shop of his patron as he was to deplete the coop of the primal owner of his spoil. We do not mean to say that all shop keepers or private citizens, who purchase poultry of a thief, are the intentional aiders and abettors of his petty villainy, but we do wish to impress upon the minds of such persons the stubborn fact that the effect is exactly the same in either case—that the practice of stealing is fostered by the custom they extend to strange and irresponsible sellers. It might not do away entirely with thievery, for people to exercise due caution in patronizing individuals whom they do not know and restrain the desire for striking a bargain with them, simply because their goods are cheap (for theives can afford to sell at a sacrifice); but, on the other hand, such caution and self-denial might contribute somewhat towards diminishing the kind of stealing now under consideration. Again, why cannot the owner of poultry, stolen or otherwise, operate in some way conjointly with the peace officers, and by tracking the robbers to the places where they receive compensation for their depredatory services, not only secure the arrest of the thieves, but also of those who employ them, intentionally or heedlessly? There are laws to punish receivers of stolen goods as well as those who steal them, and we believe that a little rigorous execution of the same in a crusade against the chicken thieving system would quell the mean practice to a considerable degree, and thereby be a genuine blessing to the community.

"Pique" To-night. — From the dodgers accompanying the News last evening, as well as the advertisement in another column, and numerous comments in theatre-going circles, our readers have, ere this, learned of the intention to repeat the play of "Pique" this evening. This will give all who were prevented from attending last week, one more opportunity of seeing this successful piece, previous to its withdrawal to make way for the "Banker's Daughter." "Pique" is a play that takes with all classes, and has fairly captured the Salt Lake public. It is admirably cast among the members of our Dramatic Club and their assistants, and it is safe to say the young performers have so far won their biggest triumph in its presentation. As to-night is positively the last of "Pique," it should be witnessed by a large audience. The "Banker's Daughter," with its new and gorgeous scenery, will be played on next Saturday night—a fitting performance with which to open the New Year.

Drizzle, Drizzle.—Still the rain holds on. If we had nothing else by which to remember holiday week of 1880, the miserable state of the weather would furnish the requisite memento.

Nervous Cases.

Advancing years, illness, disappointed, and hereditary predisposition all operate to drive the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and sleekness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. 8dsw

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

to note what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N. W. Palace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking, Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed at which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you want the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route, and will take no other. dawly

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1878 I was taken with a violent BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1879 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I purchased it of my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.

"My Policy."

Having long been a resident of this city, it has been my aim to ascertain the wants of its people, and then study to satisfy them. In purchasing that popular article known as "HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR," for Coughs, Colds, Influenza and all affections of the Throat, and Lungs leading to Consumption, "My Policy" has certainly been appreciated as can be seen by its largely increasing sale, by what the people say of it, for best physicians prescribing it, all the druggists recommending it, the testimonials received almost daily, proclaiming its wonderful cures, etc., etc. Ask your druggists for "Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar," and take no other. Price 50 cents and $1.
