

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Home missionary meeting to-night.

Prove an organizing literary club.

Prof. Measer is taking leading part in the movement.

J. B. and Uncle Tom's Cabin, with blood and accompaniment, will appear at Haverly's Salt Lake Opera House on Friday night.

It would be observed by a notice published yesterday that Abraham Taylor, an old resident of the city, is dead. He survived his wife only a few weeks.

The boy Drury whose leg was broken several days ago had not yet been put on his feet, up to this morning it would probably be attended to.

A young lady on the Erie R.R. recently caught a glimpse in an opposite mirror of Talmage's face during a yawning, when she exclaimed: "I declare if there isn't another of those horrid tunnels."

In the East Ward, on the corner nearly opposite Seventh East Street, the sidewalk is transformed into a miniature lake. The difficulty is increased by a number of open post holes, into which some people have lately stumbled, getting their clothes drenched and their shins peeled.

There is probably sufficient law in the matter of the escape, unless indeed it might be well to compel the provision of a stout knotted rope in each room. That is cheap, effective, and can be supplied universally.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Exposed Ears.—It is stated that E. Bacon, of Georgetown, Bear Lake County, Idaho, had his ears frozen during the late cold spell, while he was in bed covered with any number of pairs of blankets. The thermometer showed 55° below zero at the time.

Flooded.—Watermaster Wilcken is besieged from every quarter of the lower half of the city by the flooded population. They want the water drained off, or to be supplied with boots, rubber boots, life-saving belts and other devices, to prevent the concomitant catastrophes of a deluge.

Snowslide Fatality.—On Monday there was a snowslide in American Fork Canyon. William Willot and James Burgess were buried in it. Willot's body was recovered and buried yesterday at American Fork. He was a German, aged about thirty years. Burgess was an American, thirty-five years of age. The two men owned the Missouri, Cloud Burst, and several other valuable mines, on which they have worked for several years. Neither had any relatives in this part of the country.

Minnie Palmer.—Some idea may be formed of the popularity of Minnie Palmer by the following from the New York Chippie:

"Long before all the seats on the lower floor were occupied at Haverly's Theatre to witness the opening performance of Little Minnie Palmer, a portion of the crowd filled the lobby so that the holders of coupon tickets had great difficulty in passing through to their seats, and the crowd, including many ladies, remained standing all the evening. Applause was unintermitted and bouquets numerous."

She will appear at the Haverly Salt Lake Theatre to-morrow night. Don't you forget it.

From Cincinnati.—We were pleased to receive a call to-day from Mr. T. G. Woodmancy, who represents the well known and popular stove house of Wm. Rector & Co., who manufacture the celebrated Champion Monitor cook, as well as a very superior line of heating and other stoves. The increasing popularity of their stoves in this Territory are too well known by the people to need any special comment. A complete line of their stoves are constantly kept in stock by Z. C. M. I. who are the sole agents for the Territory. Mr. W. will remain in town for a few days and then will proceed to the north.

A Singular Character.—We learn from a relative of the late William Walker, who was recently murdered in cold blood, at Park city, some singular circumstances concerning him. He had a large volume of what he claimed to be revelations from the other world. Before receiving his purported communications he would fall into a species of trance, from which he would partially emerge and commence speaking. Among other things he had drawn the ground and upright plans of an immense building he called a temple, which was to be ten stories high, and cover an immense surface of ground, and was to take 500 years to build. The great mining vagary he concocted was, he claimed to procure the money with which to found a gigantic empire. The plans alluded to are said to have been drawn with mathematical precision, notwithstanding that he was an uneducated man.

Jurors.—The following have been drawn for the February term of the First District Court, to be held at Provo:

GRAND JURORS.
J. E. Daniels, Jr., Samuel Liddell, Aaron Peterson, George W. Jacques, all of Provo; J. A. Barton and Luther Tuttle, of Mant; Don C. Johnson and L. D. Crandall, of Springville; Thomas Mammott, of Seely; Millard Co.; John H. Murdoch, of Heber City; and Christian A. Larsen, of Ephraim. The balance of the grand jurors are drawn from the northern portion of the District.

The above grand jurors are required to be in Provo Feb. 19th, 1883, at 1 o'clock p. m.

THE CAPTURED OUTLAWS.

SOMEWHERE MORE ABOUT THE BANDITS.

Frank Hawley, who is the undoubted leader of the gang of desperadoes is not more than 25 years old, above the average height, not stoutly built, but muscular and active. His face is long, the nose being thin and prominent, and there is a special rise on the upper part, what physiologists call the facial angle of aggression being specially conspicuous. He has a look of daring combined with an appearance of sagacity that plainly indicate his character. He is very non-communative.

THE SAME GANG—CAPTAIN DEAL.

who led the posse which started from Nevada after the bandits, is an able and indefatigable officer. He believes in staying by his men through thick and thin. In deference to his more advanced age, the members of his party procured a bed for him in a house at one of their camping places. On being informed of this he inquired where the others were going to sleep. Outside in the stack yard," was the reply. "Then that's where I'll sleep to," said he. I don't propose to fare any better than the rest." Captain Deal is 58 years old, hale, hearty and active.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE.

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story: "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave my case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, which benefited me. I continued until I took nine bottles. I am now in perfect health having used no other medicine."
