EVENING NEWS.

Monday, May 24, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 76 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Fine.

Tabernacle Meeting.—Elder Orson Pratt preached in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon.

Buggy Cushions Lost.—Lost some time on Saturday, two black leather buggy cushions; the finder will be rewarded on leaving them at this office.

Distinguished Visitor.—Hon. Richard C. Parsons, who was a member of the Forty-third Congress, from Cleveland, Ohio, is in town and stopping at the Townsden House.

Hall's Journal of Health for June contains "A Vegetable Diet," "Mistakes Matrimonial," "Mothers and Nurses," "Rich Without Money," "Longevity," "How To Bacco Hurt," "Clean Collars," "Women as Barbers," "Infantile Diseases," "Home Adornment," and many other attractive articles. It is a useful periodical. For sale at Dwyer's.

A New Town.—The Beaver Enterprise of May 21 says—

A new town has just been started by the name of Troy, which is creating quite an excitement among the mining camps. The spelter as shanties will suspend business in a few days, for two months, to watch the movements of Troy, and the miners intend to have a little sport in the way of fishing and hunting till the excitement is over.

Railroad Official.—We had a call to-day from Mr. C. G. Eddy, General Western Agent of the Chicago and North Western Railroad. Mr. Eddy is known to many citizens of Utah, who, in doing business with him, have always found him to be an efficient and accommodating railroad official and a most courteous gentleman. He purposes remaining in the city several days.

Examination of Ben Tasker.—The examination of Ben Tasker, charged with stealing the valuable horse belonging to Dr. Williamson, was resumed at eleven o'clock, and shortly before one o'clock for half an hour was taken. It is doubtful whether the investigation will be finished to-day. Owing somewhat probably to the notorious character of the accused, an unusually large number of spectators were attracted to the court room.

That Accident.—Chas. D. Crouch, the boy who had one leg crushed and the other cut off Saturday, by being run over by a street car, has been suffering great pain since the accident, which is the result principally, we understand, of the muscles, etc., of the thigh being injured by the crush. It is the opinion of the surgeon in attendance that the leg will be saved, but the lad may probably be a little lame after his recovery.

Decoration Day.—The following was handed in on Saturday evening, with a request to publish in today's News:

All soldiers who fought in the late war, on either side, are specially requested to attend, and all persons wishing to participate are cordially invited to take part in the decoration of the graves of our nation's dead. The following is the programme of ceremonies at the Camp Douglas cemetery:

From Beaver.—Mr. James Fennimore, photographer, formerly of Savage's Art Gallery, who has been in Beaver for the last six months, is in town. He purposes soon to start on a tour through southern and southwestern Utah, for the purpose of obtaining scenic views. He is particularly desirous to visit what is called the "Big Boulder country," which is on the southern slope of the Wasatch range of mountains. He visited that part of Utah a year or two since with Powell's expedition, and he states it is the finest part of the west with which he is acquainted, the soil being remarkably fertile and it has large bodies of splendid timber, streams of water are very numerous, and the scenery, which is varied and broken, is beyond comparison the finest he ever witnessed, some waterfalls being several thousand feet high.

We learn that a company of men, from Payson, intend leaving for the Big Boulder Country on the 1st of June, with a view to selecting locations for settlement.

The country has never yet been explored, having merely been casually visited by Major Powell. The expedition of that gentleman will visit and explore that locality this season, and Mr. Fennimore purposes making an effort to accompany that party.

First Company.—The following telegram was received at President Young's office this afternoon—

"New York, May 24.

"Brigham Young:

"Gowans, Hughes, Nuttall and Thomas Ball arrived with a company; they leave to-morrow a.m. Well."

W. C. STALKER.

Returned from Provo.—Yesterday morning a number of Elders, including Apostles A. Carrington and John Taylor, Superintendent Feramuz Little and others, together with portions of their families, left this city at eight o'clock, in a special train, for Provo, for the purpose of accompanying Presidents Brigham Young and Geo. A. Smith from the latter place home to this city.

The meetings held at Provo yesterday were numerous attended, and were addressed in the morning by Elders George Dunford, Feramuz Little, James P. Freeze and E. F. Sheets, and in the afternoon by Elders L. E. Harrington, Albert Carrington, John Taylor and R. F. Neslen. An excellent spirit prevailed.

A special train from Provo conveying Presidents Young and Smith and party to this city left Provo at ten minutes to five o'clock in the evening and made the trip in one hour and thirty-five minutes.

Home Missionary Appointments for next Sunday, May 30—

Fort Herriman—Elders Isaac Groo, Thomas Taylor, and Karl G. Maeser.

JUNE 6th.

Farmington—Elder G. G. Bywater.

Bountiful—Elder S. A. Woolley.

Two days' meetings will be held in that place, commencing on Saturday, June 5th and ending on Sunday, June 6th and 7th, at West Jordan June 12th and 13th.

Lecture on Dickens.—We acknowledge tickets to attend a lecture next Thursday evening, at Independence Hall, by Mr. Benjamin Fabian, on the life, character and writings of Charles Dickens.

Mr. Fabian is well known in this and other communities as a journalist and author, which may be taken as a guarantee that he is about to treat upon with judgment. His personal acquaintance and early associations with the great novelist cannot fail to bring out reminiscences of an instructive and pleasing character.

Tickets of admission can be had at the leading hotels and book stores.

Departed.—A few days ago Bro. Charles Tressler, formerly connected with Z. C. M. I. retail department, and recently dry goods clerk in the store of Day & Co., was confined to his home, with an affection of the bowels. On Saturday he appeared to be much better, and went to work to-day, but we regret to learn that he breathed his last this morning. He was an unassuming young man and bore an excellent character. He leaves a wife and three children. His death was quite unexpected and created a sensation among his immediate friends, by whom he was much respected.

The funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock to-morrow, at the 12th Ward school-house. We are requested to state that friends of the family are invited to attend.

Returned Missionary.—To-day we were called upon by Elder Chester Call, who arrived last evening from a mission to England. He left this city for his field of labor October 12th, 1873, and was consequently absent about one year and eight months. While in England his labors were principally confined to the Bedfordshire conference, and also for a short time in the Durham and Newcastle conferences. He enjoyed his missionary labors very much and returns in good health and spirits. On the way home he visited a number of his relatives in Georgia county, Ohio, by whom he was cordially received, and he had the privilege of preaching to them.

Theatre.—The Jockley Family gave two splendid performances on Saturday afternoon and evening. They are really able artists in their line, and do many extraordinary gymnastic feats in a masterly manner. They present a pleasing, yet sometimes startling, entertainment.

New Flagstaff.—The Deseret Telegraph Company have placed upon the top of the telegraph pole at the junction of East Temple and First South street, at the street railroad junction, a fifteen feet flagstaff, which will soon be adorned with a three feet by seven feet flag.

In New York State.—Abraham, Genesee Co., N. Y., March 10.

Emigrated to this country from the Sheffield Branch, with my wife and small family.

I have never known the time since I entered the church, that I could not testify to the divinity of the mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith; raised up to lay the foundation of this great work that will bring to pass the salvation of the living and the dead.

We were called to this country on the 10th day of October, 1839, and the first day of our journey was the Church, we found a strange land, notwithstanding our many relatives by which we were surrounded. I frequently bore testimony to the truth of the Latter-day work, inaugurated through the instrumentality of the Prophet Joseph, but without effect, so far as I was concerned, for a long time, until finally I had the privilege of baptizing one of my sisters.

We then began to meet together and administered the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. We began to gain strength and courage by attending to this sacred duty.

I baptized my youngest brother on the night of Feb. 2nd, 1840. He is a very promising young man, 20 years of age. On the 23rd of the same month I baptized my sister, and I have since baptized many more for all that I have passed through. We expect to complete our journey here, but without effect, so far as I am concerned, for a long time, until finally I had the privilege of baptizing one of my sisters.

I will just name an instance where I close this letter, wherein the power of our God was made manifest. One of our children, Alice Emma, aged two years, was suffering from a disease, which had the appearance of some kind of fever. I administered to her in the morning previous to going to work, but she was very sick during the day. I again laid hands upon her, and the child was immediately restored to health, to our God be the praise—Millennial Star.

Best root sugar can be made in California at seven cents a pound, including every expense.

Sam'l White, a prominent citizen of Ludlow, Mass., was bitten in the thigh by a bear Saturday morning (May 15) and died to death before assistance could reach him.

DIED.

In Salt Lake City, May 22nd, of inflammation on the lungs, in her 65th year, RHODA, wife of Samuel T. Smith, of Cedar Valley, U. S.

Deceased was a native of Ireland, was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Elder Goodman, of Lehi, in the fall of 1840, and was the first convert to the faith in that distant place. She was a most devoted and pious woman, and stood very high in the estimation of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

At West Bedford, Pennsylvania, England, April 22nd, ELIZABETH WILLIAMS, in the seventieth year of her age, the only sister of the late, painter, St. George.
