

Politicians, who live for no other end than for politics and who hope to make their fortune by that, may perhaps be excused. For they often do not believe in anything but the maxim, that "might is right," and that every means by which might can be secured, is lawful. But when ministers of the Gospel stand shoulder to shoulder with such men, even with infidels, and lead the gloria of their ministerial presence to the cause, what excuse can they make? When did they see their Master in such assemblies? Or His Apostles? I should say, never.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.

HENRY PINNER DELIBERATELY BLOWS OUT HIS BRAINS.

Following closely upon the awful occurrence of last evening—the death of C. S. Whitney—came the self-murder, this morning, of Henry Pinner, a Jew, who has been the representative in this city of the firm of Konigsberg, Falk & Meyer, tobacco merchants, of San Francisco. When last seen alive by his friends this morning, Mr. Pinner seemed in good health and spirits. About half-past 10, however, he was seen by an employee of Bamberger & Co. to come from the back of the Post-office and go southward over a fence into a yard near by. A moment after a pistol shot was heard in the direction he had taken, and parties who rushed to the spot were horrified to see him lying on the ground in a pool of blood. The revolver—38 calibre—lay beside him, having fallen from his hand, the body lying on its back. Blood was oozing out of the mouth and nose, and two ugly wounds in the head—one on each side. The ball had entered just above the right ear, and ranging backward, came out on the other side of the head. The body was taken up and carried into Mr. Greenwald's, where the deceased had his office.

Just after the shooting Mr. Greenwald discovered an envelope addressed to himself, on his table. Enclosed was a note for a young lady who was engaged to be married to the deceased and a note to Mr. Greenwald, giving reasons for the rash act, and showing that it was premeditated. It was dated August 5th, and was as follows:

When you find this letter I shall be gone to where return is impossible. Hard have I tried to avoid it, but there is no chance left for me in life, and I'll have to do it. For in life nothing but disgrace would be left for me, and I can't await that. In going away I leave you, poor fellow, in the lurch for the money I owe you. I am sorry for it, but couldn't help it. With this you will find my watch, scarf pin, and so forth. Keep them. Write to my cousin Albert Abel, Denver, Col., and tell him how I died. Also for him to inform my mother that I died suddenly after a few days' illness, so as to keep the knowledge from her that her son died a suicide.

My brain is all mixed up, and I am even now racking my brain trying to find a way out of my misfortune, but there is none. Good bye.

HENRY.

The portion of the note which is omitted refers to some private affairs and as to how the shocking intelligence should be conveyed to the deceased's betrothed—an estimable Jewish lady, who formerly resided in this city.

Mr. Pinner was 34 or 35 years of age, and had a fair education. He was at one time deputy sheriff at Denver, Colorado, and was editor of a German paper there, the Journal. His remains were taken charge of by his friends here, and placed in the hands of Sexton Jos. E. Taylor for interment.

OUR OGDEN LETTER.

OGDEN CITY, Utah,
Aug. 2nd, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

This is.

and since my residence in this place I never witnessed one that passed off more serenely. The opening was very quiet and the judges seemed to be in no rush whatever to commence the day's doings. Several of them were absent and before the election could commence three vacancies had to be filled. The substitutes were J. W. Brown, Jr., E. Tiltson and Fred. Foulger. The operations for the day then set in, voting began. But it was not very vigorous. However, the coming and retiring of the franchise holders were gradual. No crowding—there was ample room at each of the for every voter to deposit his ballot. I did not hear any one challenged, and few others than members of the People's Party cast a vote for any of the candidates. I did not see any scratching, but still I was told that a little of that work was done.

At 30 minutes past two in the afternoon 446 votes had been polled. The citizens who were interested continued to exercise the right of suffrage during the remainder of the day, but there was no excitement—little animation; the people seemed to wear a thoughtful aspect. About 15 minutes past 7, 755 votes had been deposited in the boxes. The election was drawing to an end for this time. Shortly afterwards the voice of the judge in a rather loud tone pronounced the word

CLOSED.

Seven hundred and fifty-eight was the total number of votes cast. The spectators, ticket dispensers, etc., departed for their homes, and the "counters" retired inside to count, among them were some of the candidates. I did not wait to witness the operation.

Throughout the day the weather was beautiful. The heat was not so intense as it had been for some time past. Those who lived at a distance, and others who were unable to walk far, as well as the aged were brought to the polls in conveyances provided for the purpose, and returned to their residences.

All is quiet here now. There is no excitement—nothing special to engage the tongues and attention of the gossipers, or sensation mongers. Even the gallant defenders of the National life and honor, are gone, and the

MORMONS STILL LIVE.

There is no District Court in session; no grand jury to indict, and but little in the crusade line has been done for a few days past. It is true that William Skeen, of Plain City was arrested, on Saturday on the charge of having too large a family. He was interviewed by the clerk of the District Court, which resulted in his (Skeen not the clerk) being bound over in the sum of $2000, to appear when required by a more august body of inquisitors, Messrs. James Iverson and J. M. Dee furnished the security.

When Mr. George Chandler was arrested, a short time since, on a similar charge, he was taken before the Commissioner, by whom his bonds were placed at $1,500. But since an indictment was found against him the sum has been INCREASED TO $2,000.

He had no difficulty in procuring the additional security—the same bondsmen, Messrs. George W. Driver and John J. Fay continuing.

From this time till the Court meets again, on the 18th of September, there may, perhaps, be a season of quiet. Of course we cannot tell. The spotters and deputies are still here, and they may, and probably will, strike out to hunt up grists for the mills to grind when the "gods" set them in operation again.

In the mean time our City Marshal and his aids can watch the burly burglars, of whom we have here a good quota. They have recently made a few successful, and quite a number of unsuccessful attempts to burglarize some of the residences and business places of our citizens. In most cases they have been routed and have run. A few have been gathered in by the city guardians, and the others will be looked after.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EPHRAIM, Sanpete Co.,

Editor Deseret News:

I was in hopes some abler pen might have done justice to the funeral services of one of Ephraim's pioneers, Elder Thomas Thorpe, aged 70 years, who died July 26, 1886. In 24 hours from his demise all that was earthly was encased in a metallic casket from Salt Lake, furnished under the supervision of funeral director D. Candland; the procession formed at residence and proceeded to the meeting house. Then with prayer and hymns of praise the exercises opened.

Bishop Davis, Elders A. H. Lund, D. Candland, Chas. Kempe and President Beal gave gospel consolations and pleasing reminiscences of the deceased's life, who, with his wife, in St. Louis, in the cholera scourge of years ago, gave such proof of the spirit.

Forty-six well loaded vehicles followed Brother Thorpe's remains to the grave.

Absence on pressing business north alone prevented President Peterson from being present and adding his meed of respect to one of Israel's good men.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir.—The celebration of the twenty-fourth in this place was a great success. The people assembled at 10 a. m.; called to order by the marshal of the day Thomas Blackburn; prayer by the chaplain, J. T. Lazenby; remarks by the orator of the day, Father Allen Taylor, of Missouri and Nauvoo celebrity; speech by Hiet Maxfield; remarks on the exodus, by E. H. Blackburn; lecture by J. T. Lazenby, on the gathering and settling of the valleys; songs, recitations, etc.; closing remarks by E. H. Maxfield, on the situation.

Committee of arrangements: Thos. Jakeman, George Okerland, Ida Bush, Nathan T. Maxfield, Susan Turner, Cynthia McLellan.

YOURS ETC. ROYAL.

The report is accompanied by some excellent verses, composed for the occasion by Miss Ida Bush, but the News has not space at command, for their insertion.

A FAMILY BLESSING.

Simmons' Liver Regulator—the favorite home remedy—is entirely vegetable, and is the purest and best family medicine that is compounded. No error to be feared in administering, no injury from exposure after taking, no loss of time. It is the best preventive medicine, and safe to take, no matter what the sickness may prove to be, and in any ordinary disease will effect a speedy cure.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head, everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Salt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing. Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: 'The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters.' Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Z. C. M. I.
