

DESERET EVENING NEWS

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Contracts will be let this week for the new business block to go up on the site of the old First Methodist church.

A Smith of this city, who conducted a loan office on Main street, died Saturday at Chicago, from Bright's disease. His wife left Salt Lake Friday for Chicago.

The rush of tourists yesterday with fair and conference visitors, was so great as to break all records, and the hotels were unable to take care of all applicants.

The regular monthly meeting of the Veteran Volunteer firemen will be held this evening, Oct. 2, in their Canyon Road hall, where all veteran firemen are welcome.

The Federal building contractor received word Saturday that a car load of furniture had been shipped, but when it will reach Salt Lake is one of the uncertainties.

The big automobile belonging to E. H. Perkins, which was attached when he disappeared from Salt Lake, has been turned over by the sheriff to Attorney L. R. Rogers.

Miss Belle Kearney, the writer and speaker, and prominent member of the W. C. T. U., will give tomorrow evening, an illustrated lecture on Japan. Miss Kearney is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Bower.

Harry Watkins of the Bruneau Land & Irrigation company is at the Culver, conducting a party of homeseekers to Idaho. He will bring a large number of settlers to the state in the spring.

Manager A. A. Tremp of the Pure Food show paid a lost bet Saturday night, by pulling W. Baxter up street in a little red wagon, headed by a band. Mr. Tremp had bet it would rain, and it didn't.

The committee on buildings and grounds of the board of education will meet in Clerk Judd's office this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and the regular monthly meeting of the board will be held on Tuesday night.

While shooting quail on the Crimson farm yesterday morning, Charles Cain Cilson was accidentally shot by a companion, the victim being concealed in the brush at the time. The shot took effect in the face and arms, but it was not thought any serious injury will result.

Upon the complaint of Mrs. Joseph Johnson, who runs the Culver-Kennedy lodging house, her husband has been put under bonds to keep the peace by Justice Dina T. Smith. Mrs. Johnson fears that her husband desires to kill her, as he has talked threateningly of doing it.

Jerry Sullivan, the tragic miner who was hurt in an explosion at the Raymond mine a few days ago, died at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday morning and will be buried tomorrow afternoon in Calvary cemetery. Services will be held at St. Mary's Cathedral at 1:30 p.m.

Landlord Sam Ewing of the Culver is an enthusiast in the matter of utilizing the water from the Liberty Park wells, but he has forgotten all about the wells in a new found joy that reached his section of the country in the shape of an eight-pound boy. The entire family is doing well.

A special organ recital was given in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon, on which occasion Elder Nephi L. Morris delivered a most interesting discourse on "Mormonism." The recital was well attended by tourists, who expressed themselves as greatly pleased with both the music and speaking.

The McGuff vineyard of 21 acres near Ogden, produced this season 21,000 baskets of grapes for shipping, in addition to a great quantity of inferior grapes which will be converted into wine. Mr. McGuff has been very successful in this business and proposes to enlarge his vineyard to 44 acres at an early date.

The automobile in which Kilpatrick, the daring one legged rider ascends a steep incline during the state fair has arrived, and is being overhauled at a local garage. The machine is a white steam car of the runabout order, and bears a New York license number. It is a genuine car, and will run on the streets as well as on the platform where the dangerous ride is performed.

In regard to the cruel treatment of a horse by a person in the northwestern part of the city, which was reported to the humane officers recently, City Humane Officer Mann states that the horse was not being worked at all as represented, but had been turned out to die and was about starved to death. He investigated the case and shot the animal, and had it hauled to the crematory.

The crew on a car bound for the state prison, Saturday, caught a fine large eagle on east Fourth South street. The "bird of freedom" had struck a live wire and fallen to the ground with his wings so paralyzed that he could not fly. However, he could fight and put up a pretty stiff article in that line until he knocked on the head so that he weakened. The captive was brought up town in triumph.

The second week of the Pure Food show opened today at Utahan Park, where visitors are at liberty to sample 30 different foods, cooked in as many different ways. During the week daily band concerts will be given, while special days have been set apart for special people. Tuesday is grocer's day, Wednesday, telephone girls and clerks, and so throughout the week. In addition to the pure food display, special attractions will be seen on the stage in the pavilion.

A pleasant entertainment was given Friday night in the Twenty-seventh ward chapel in aid of the ward relief fund. The attendance was fair notwithstanding the fact that a good and excellent program was presented, the most noticeable feature of which was two numbers by the Imperial orchestra of the Thirty-third ward. The young people composing this organization have evidently practiced long, faithfully and hard and their work did them great credit.

G. A. Hammond of the reclamation service returned Saturday from a hurried trip into California, Oregon and Nevada. While away he inspected the Klamath lake project, northern California and the Sun river project in Montana each of which, he says, will reclaim about 250,000 acres. On the former the preliminary work is done, while on the latter it is progressing quite satisfactorily. Mr. Hammond will leave soon for a trip to Oklahoma, Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

Despite the inclement weather Friday night's opening social in the Pioneer stake house was grand success. About 1,000 young people were present and during the evening dancing was enjoyed, refreshments served and a choice program rendered. Elders John Henry and George A. Smith were in attendance and made a few appropriate remarks congratulating the people of the stake on their magnificent new hall and urging the young people to avoid temptation and conduct themselves in a becoming manner. The hall was tastefully decorated and all present had a most enjoyable time.

The standing of the Salt Lake High school in relation to the large eastern colleges has been firmly established by the admission to the full freshman class of Harvard university without condition of Royal Martineau, who graduated at the head of the high school class of 1905. This is the first time that a Salt Lake high school graduate has been admitted to Harvard without condition and it is a high compliment to the school as well as to the young man himself. Mr. Martineau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Martineau of this city, and graduates of the High school and the Collegiate Institute in his year's classes were also admitted to the Harvard freshman class the same as Mr. Martineau.
