The examination of Mrs. Mary A Mayberry as to her sanity was again postponed last night by Judge Morse on account of the inability of Drs Mayo and Odell to attend the hearing Unless another postponement becomon next Monday evening, Sept. 26,

In the case of Henry M. Pearson against John Howe, which was on trial yesterday in Judge Morse's court, the jury falled to agree on a verdict and was discharged by the court at 8 o'clock last evening after being out since 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The action involves the collection of $50 alleged to be due as commission for the sale of real estate.

I, Watters, the well known member of the Congregation B'nai Israel, says, relative to the recent Jewish rioting in London, that the cause of the trouble vas the renegade Jews who are in reality outcasts and anarchists, and have no real affiliation with the fatthful. They aim to cause trouble on the day of atonement, wherever they can, generally wind up their attentions with rock throwing.

The case of A. H. Rock et al., against Arthur Murphy was dismissed by Judge Lewis yesterday afternoon upon motion of defendant's attorneys on the ground that there was no cause of action suit was brought to recover $18,500 for an alleged breach of agreement concerning the sale by plaintiffs to fendant of some mining claims located in American Fork canyon. At the cou clusion of plaintiff's testimony yes-terday afternoon the motion for dismissal was made by defendant's attorneys and was granted.

DESERETEVENINGNEWS C. F. MARTIN DIES ON TRAIN.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 22.-Word bas reached here that Charles P. Martin. secretary of the National Live Stock association, while Journeying to Cheyenne. Wyo., from this city, was seized with a hemorrhage of the lungs and expired a few minutes after being removed from the train at Greeley, Colo. Mr. Martin had long been afflicted with pulmonary trouble. He is survived by a widow who was notified by message of his death.

When the National Live Stock association was organized in Denver sev-eral years ago, Mr. Martin was chosen secretary and was unanimously re-elected at each annual meeting of the organization. Through his position he became one of the best known in the west and he had a host of friends. Mr. Martin also had an enviable newspaper career, having edited sov-eral papers in the west and held important positions on others. He served the Associated Press for several years as its Denver representative, Mr. Martin superintended the taking of the first government live stock cen-

Secy. Martin was well known in Utah and very well liked by the stock-men, here for whose interests he worked as heartily as for the stockmen anywhere else, and the announce-ment of his death comes as a shock and a surprise aithough it has been known for a long time that his hold on life was none too strong. When J. C. Leary was told this morning, by a "News" reporter of the sudden death of Secy. Martin, he gave a start of surprise and then exclaimed, "So he's gone. Well, that unsettles the National Livestock.

was quite affected by the sad intelli-gence, for he has known Mr. Martin intimately for many years. Mr. Leary said that to the best of his information and belief the deceased came from In diana originally, locating in New Mexico, where he became a sheep man and also edited the Springer Stockman This was in 1883, when Martin was about 21 years old. He was none too robust then, and the understanding was that he had come out into the mountains for his health. About 1890. Mr. Martin went to Denver, where he was night man for several years on the Associated Press. His health, however did not improve, but he managed to hold his own, and later, on the organization of the National Livestock sociation, he became its secretary, position which he held up to the day his death. Mr. Leary and other stock men are unanimous in praising th grit their secretary showed in his fight for life. The majority of men would have given up long ago, but not Mer-He held on, and would never give Many has been the time when it seemed as though he was about to go but he would invariably recover through his marvelous recuperative powers, and on the work would g again. Mr. Martin had a splendid mastery of his peculiar work, and an exhaustive knowledge of its innumerable details. He was the man for the position, and he with President Spring made a team 'hard to beat.' Mr. Martin was a forceful character an aggressive personality, and to his indefatigable efforts, the stockmen of the west are indebted for many mater ial benefits. At this time of writing it is not easy to say who will succeed him, for the present his assistant, Mr. Johnson, will hold down the chair.

ing that class of goods. She wrote on the inside of one of the boxes she made her name, and "Please answer this." before packing it away, and the box was received for use at the grocery department of Z. C. M. Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Ethel Harris Ethel Harrington grounds of cruelty and non-support, They were married at Morrison, Ill., on Aug. 25, 1900. The complaint alon Aug. 25, 1900. The complaint alleges that defendant on Sept. 9, 1904, threatened to kill her and on numerous occasions has used vile and threaten-ing language towards her. For the past five months plaintiff alleges that she has been in ill health and defendant has failed to provide her with medical attention and she has been com-pelled to call upon her parents to pay her expenses at the hospital where she is being treated. She asks that she be awarded a reasonable sum as alimony.
