THE MISSION TO IN-VESTIGATE.

THE request of the Legislative Assembly, embodied in the memorial telegraphed to Congress on Thursday hight, is very reasonable and commendable. An excitement without any real occasion has been created in va.ious parts of the Union, by religious zealots who have been worked upon by a few cunning adventurers in this locality. Meetings have been held at which inflammatory speeches have teen made, exhibiting an astonishing lack of information on the "Mormon" question, and extreme meas ures have been urged upon Congress catensibly to put down poly-of responding to the popular demand iversal Christendom, and much as -or what appears to be such, for the its existence in Utah is to be deplormeetings held and all pertaining to the worse than the disease if these them have been greatly exaggerated by the press—have hastened to de-vise means that exhibit the marks of each determination rather than the disease it to be forced upon a people who will be found very much in earnest in defence of what they hold to be their rights thoughtful statesmanship. of free government and equal rights in its treatment of Utah or the "Mormon" question. The enemies of Utah have always been opposed to such enquiry. They want no commissions of that kind. Investigation is not to their taste. They proteed by misrepresentation of facts, the infiaming of the public mind, and the incitement of public mind, and the incitement of public men to act as the unthinking masse demand. Such a Commission as is asked for would be a wet blanket on the flames of anti-"Mormon" passion, and a developer of the true features of the Utah situation, and this would prove destructive to the schemes of the plotters.

Whether Congress shall take the course of prudence or of folly, of investigation or of blind haste, of statesmanship or of demagogery; the Utah Legislature in asking for the Commission has done its duty to the Territory and the country, and the result remains for the nowers that be to determine.
