CORRESPONDENCE.

ONE OF THE HOLDERS OUT. Yusta Prison, Yuma Co., A. T., July 10, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

As 'o-morrow is my last day in the "pen," for some time at least, I thought you would bear with me while I relate a few of my feelings as they occur to my mind. As you are aware, six of us brethren from the Mesa came here on the 12th of April; Brothers Robson and Stewart April; Brothers Robson and Stewart for B) days, Brothers Phillips and myself for three worths and Brothers as been thrown out the machine self for three months, and Brothers Spilsbury and G. T. Wilson each six months. On the whole we found prison life a little ahead of what might have been expected, and we inight have been expected, and we have made the best of it and enjoyed ourselves in the most agreeable manner, according to the circumstances we are placed in. Brothers Flake, Skouson, Robson and Stewart have served their terms of imprisonment honorably and returned home with the good feelings of the officers of the institution, as well as the inmates of the "pen." The question might be asked, What have you done against the laws of your country that you languish in a felon's cell? My crime consisted of crime consisted of HOLDING OUT.

The indictment against me was trumped up. I was convicted without a jury and sentenced without a trial, The allments of childhood need careful attention and wise treatment. Some people think "anything is good as I plead to the indictment under the enough for a child, and there isn't head of "unlawful cohabitation" in much the matter with it anyhow."
But judicious mothers know better, and the marriage relation as that term has been rendered in so lucidly clear and ransparent a manner, even so very lear that the blind can see it, by his Honor Judge Zane, in that ruling, which am fully persuaded in my own mind was the first effusion in the shape of Sold everywhere. in extra-judicial decision of the kind that was ever so solemnly and elaborately proclaimed from a bench of justice since the world began. Not even in the dark ages, when God talked face to face with such favored men as Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Iacob, Moses and even His Son the Redeemer of the world, was ever such sexual intercourse, within or without the marriage relation. The "holding out" cannot be made a rime in sense, or common iaw, as it is only an act of the mind. Even the dark pages of history, now to be read, containing the decisions and edicts of the Inquisition of the 16th century, have no parallel for inconsistency and ambiguous incongruities for that now being displayed by the legislators of our nation in her once honored judiciary. It seems that meaning to cohabitation even hinted at affixing a penalty without the act of

has been reached in the now boasted land of light and liberty, where freedom of speech and the press, and religious toleration are fully guaranteed, without respect to race, color or

If promiscuous intercourse of the sexes was the evil the law sought to suppress and correct, it would receive our hearty co-operation and support, and if the seducer and debauchee were hunted and prosecuted with one-half the eagerness now displayed in rading upon the Latter-day Saints, a spirit of consistency would be manifested which would be more in accordance with the teachings of holy writ. We are branded as disloyal and

DEFIERS OF THE LAW. Was it defiance of the edict of the king in Daniel when he continued to pray to the God of heaven? If so, he was justified in it, for he was delivered by the power of the Almighty, and his accusers were destroyed. Did the three Hebrew children defy the royal mandate, when they refused to worship the golden image which Nebuchadnez-zer, the king, had caused to be set up, or did they "hold out?"

And what became of those men who bound them and cast these "holders out" into the flery furnace? We must now, on account of the stubborn will of Moses and Aaron, class them as deflers of the law of the Egyptian government, for they, as well as all the Hebrew children, were doomed by law to perpetual slavery but Moses and Aaron could not see the point, so they stubbornly resisted the decrees of Pharaoh until he with all the army and wealth of his kingdom were overwheimed in the returning waters of the Red Sea. His army consisted of over 600,000 footmen, 200,000 horsemen and 50,000 chariots, and all this vast destruction of life and property was caused by their woolding.

erty was caused by their "holding out." Moses himself had been when an infant, marvelously preserved, being a child of promise, by being concealed contrary to the commandments of the king for three months by his parents, who were guilty of high treason for they both "held out,"
We now come to Joseph and Mary they mutually agreed to "hold out" against the decree of Herod, and they fled to Egypt to save the life of their child, and of course they "defled" the edict of their tyrannical king. Last, but not least, Christ proclaimed himself to be the Son of God, and when asked by the high priest, if this was so. He die not deny it; everything points to the fact, that if Jesus had denied that He was the Son of God and humbled Himself before that august body, and plead for mercy, as some of the shrunken half-wheat and half-smut have done, no doubt that intelligent tribunal who tried Him would willingly have granted Him his life. But He sought no mercy, Him his life. But he sought no mercy, He asked no favors, but as a man and a God, He died that all might live unto Him, and follow Him in His life and sufferings, and even death, if required. In conclusion, I will say, neither bonds nor imprisonment, the love of life nor fear of death, shall deter me from obeying and honoring God and keeping His commandments, for I received not the testimony of the truth ceived not the testimony of the truth of this work. from man, but from my Father who is in heaven. I know of a surety that the work is true, and to my fellow-prisoners would say, be patient and trust in God, waiting for the hope of Israel. Your brother in the new covenant, JAMES T. WILSON.

Everybody's Air-Brake.

"Yes, sah," said Uncle Zach, "I'se watched it forty years an' its as I sez; De fust of May an' Christmas day of the same year allers comes on the same week day. Further conversation proved Uncle Zach a most incredulous person.

Chancing to mention Dr. Carver's feat of breaking glass balls with a rifle, he "I heerd 'bout dat shootin' sud knowed right off it wasn't squar'; dat was a Yankee trick, boss' sho's you born. "What was the trick?"

"Dar wuz loadstone put into de glass balls, an' likewise outo de bullets; so when de bullet fly outen the gun, it an' de ball jes drawed tergedder, which, in course, brokes de glass—dats de Later, Uncle Zach observed a rope running along the side of the car. "Boss, what's dat line fur?"

"To apply the air-brake in case of accident." Then we had further to explain how the force of the brake was obtained, to which Uncle Zach responded: "Look a here boss, you sholy don't

Why, de biggest harricane whatever blowed couldn't stop dis train runnin' forty mile a hour. An' you think I gwine to b'ieeve a little pipe full of wind under de kyars can doit? No, There are a great many Uncle Zachs who judge everything simply by appearances. The air-brake does not seem to be a very powerful thing, but power and efficiency are not necessarily equivalent to bigness and pretense. Philip Beers, Esq., who resides at the United States Hotel, New York City and is engaged in raising who Is just what its name implies; a Purely Vegetable Compound, that acts directly upon the Liver; curing the many diseases incident to at important organ, and preventing the numerous ailments that arise from its deranged or torpid at 'on, such as Dyspebsia, Jaundi, Rilliousness, Costiveness, Malar Sick-Headache, Rheumatist ere It is therefore a truism that I have Good Health the Liver must be kept in order.
