A Weak Heart

Seldom gets strong again without help. Awake or asleep, it never stops, and consequently has no period of rest or relaxation in which to regain lost vigor. You should avoid exertion, excitement and worry as much as possible, to relax the strain, and take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which is a heart tonic, to strengthen and restore vigor to the heart nerves and muscles. The symptoms of a weak heart are shortness of breath, palpitation, feeble or too rapid pulse, hungry spells, hot flashes, dizziness, smothering spells, pain in heart or side, etc.

I had been treated for heart disease by different physicians without any improvement. Finally my doctor informed me that there was little hope of my ever being able to do a day's work again. About that time a gentleman called upon me, and said, "I heard of your condition, and have come to tell you that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has been taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. He examined me and said, 'God bless Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It has made you better in a few days than I ever expected to see you again.' I am now well, having fully regained my health by the use of this remedy."

If the Tonopah bout takes place March 18, then Corbett and Herman will box March 18. But in case Gans and Britt meet March 18 the Young Corbett bout will be held two days later on March 20.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT REASSEMBLES FEB. 12.

London, Feb. 10.—The British parliament reassembles Feb. 12, in the presence of King Edward and Queen Alexandra at a full state ceremonial. The opening has aroused intense interest in London, as the government intends immediately to inaugurate measures to check the power of the house of lords. King Edward has indicated that this speech from the throne be kept strictly secret and while the address will doubtless refer to the long list of pending parliamentary measures, it is probable that some reference to the house of peers may be included. The Irish question also is likely to occupy the attention of the session, the government being about ready to submit the proposed reform measures. Elaborate preparations have been made for a fast and pageant and the gorgeous ceremony in the house of lords. The modus vivendi arranged last year

MOTHERHOOD

To first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as an I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, and is a powerful tonic and other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulcerations and inflammation, and the results less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the steady of American mothers in preparing for childbirth. Not what Mrs. James Chester of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value in this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it, and I did so. I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women. It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

A JUST REWARD.

Italian Who Knocked Motorist Down Got a Good Beating.

San Francisco, Feb. 10.—Police reserves were called at this evening to quell a street riot on Sutter street, between Fillmore and Devisadero streets. The motorist of an outboard Stupper street car, obeying an order recently issued by the city, stopped his car because four Italians persisted in hanging on to the running board on the left side of the car. They were finally driven off by the police. The motorist was called out, and they had to use force to restore order.

WOUNDED HIS WIFE AND SHOT HIMSELF.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—After writing a letter saying he would make a final effort to reconcile with his wife, and failing, Willard himself shot himself in the chest, and then shot his wife. A postscript to his letter says: "I hope 'how will be a free man before long. I think he was justified in killing me. I wish him success."
