

chairman—I move that we delay the course of Hon. C. Cannon as our Delegate for eleven sessions, and the unfair manner in which he was excluded from the Congress. We entertain for the highest consideration and return him our thanks for efficient labors in behalf of the of this Territory.

HON. JAS. SHARP

called on said the principles of the People's platform are his sentiments, John T. Calne his sentiments—universal and constitutional liberty for all. He did not detain the audience.

German Joseph Stanford moved for the highest consideration of the principles contained in the People's platform as the sentiments of the assembly. Unanimous.

The chairman spoke in terms of commendation of Hon. John Calne.

A vote of thanks was given to the chairman, and the meeting adjourned.

speeches were all given with spirit, and greeted with vociferous applause. The votes were unanimous, the numerous "liberal" present not offering any opposition, and the whole affair was a magnificent success. About 5,000 persons were gathered in and around the tabernacle and its vicinity.

In the close of the meeting the session formed and the visitors escorted to the depot, where the special train awaited them. The People's candidate addressed the train, complimented the bands, the people, etc., and congratulated them on their prospects for success. The train reached this city a little before 1 o'clock, and everything was admirably managed by Superintendent James Sharp.

The People's Ratification at Ogden was a splendid initial popular endorsement of the principles and platform of the People's Party.
