Baptisms in Sussex .-- Elder James W. Paxman, son of President Wm. Paxman, of Juab Stake, writes to his father from Uckfield, Sussex, Eng-land, September, 26th, that he naw lately added four members to the Church by baptism, and has a good prospect of baptizing three more in the near future. The young man is enjoying his mission and is full of the spirit of his calling.

EAST INDIAN MISSION. TERRITORIAL ITEMS. SUMMARIZED FROM LATEST EX-CHANGES

-Several hard fights occurred at Wallace, Missouls County, M. T., election day, and pistols and knives were somewhat in play, but no serious damage was done. A Swede was stabbed in the thigh of each leg with a penwe have distributed a sugar-sack-ful knife, but the cuts are not dangerous. -In his annual official report Governor Bunn says concerning Idaho: The funded debt of the Territory has been practically wiped out. The population is stated to be 88,000, which should entitle the Territory, in the Governor's upinion, to be admitted into the Union as a State. The value of the assesses property in the Territory has increased

50 per cent over last year, and is now placed at $9,380,000. The export of minerals for the fiscal year was $7,-

-There is not a single cat within the limits of the town of Leadville, Colorado. Cats have been imported there by the hundreds, but not one has ever survived the second week of residence

However, as there are no rats or mice in Leadville there is no real need of cats, and it makes but little difference whether they live or die. The thin atmosphere at that altitude (10,200) is as fatal to the vermin as their foe, and the inhabitants are thus mercifully spared the affliction of both.

-Deputy Sheriff Ed. Winn, of Eagle Rock, Idaho, received a dispatch on Saturday morning to arrest a man named Tobia Homer for murder. He was a brakeman on that division. In ten minutes after the receipt of the telegram Ed. had his man. The particulars of the murder are: On election night a dance was going on at Spring Hill, when a fight between a lot of cow boys and railroad men took place, and Homer hit a man named Frost on the head with a rock, from Milton Nobles' comedy drama, "Love and Law," at the Theatre last evening. The play went off with the same vim and spirit as before and was as hugely enjoyed.

To-night "Interviews," another amusing plece, illustrating some of the trials of an overworked editor and other funny incidents. of newspaper office life, will be presented. We again anticipate a big house and a booming performance.

Counting the Votes .- The official canvass of votes cast at the late election for Delegate to Congress, com-menced to-day at the office of the Utah Commission. The board met at 10 o'clock and organized, with Secre-tary Arthur L. Thomas as chairman. Returns are in from all the precincts with the exception of Deer Creek, Tooele County, and two precincts in San Juan County. It is whispered that the prospects are quite encouraging for a majority in favor of Hon. John T. Caine.

Robbery at Ogden. - About eight o'clock last night, in the neighborhood of the Isilroad depot at Ogden, Mr. S. S. Gates, a book agent, while on his way to the Central Hotel, was atlacked by a couple of highwaymen. One seized him by the throat and the other held a pistol close to his face. They went through his pockets and relieved him of a pocket-book containing $35. A ten dollar bill which was in his vest pocket, escaped the notice of the roobers. The rufflans tore Mr. Gates' clothing in the struggle incidental to the robbery. He communicated the facts of the affair to the Ogden police, who are on the lookout for the highwaymen. Mr. Gates came to this city this morning.
