REV. STONE ON THE BIBLE.

Rev. George W. Stone gave the last of his series of lectures on "The Bible in the Light of Modern Knowledge." list night in Unity hall. The speaker i part:

"The Bible was not intended as an authority, aid, or guide-it is a history of the derivation of the Jewish religion, It is the history and biography of the Jewish race, and valuable for the rec-ard it makes of the first religion, and the The Bible is a source of spiritual strength. It shows us the lives of other men who lived long ago, but who had the same passions and feelings that we today have. The flery assertions of men like ingersoli are simply attacks on the old religious ideas held by men. But But they have no weight with the broadminded man of today,

The Bible is not a cryptogram. There are people who are looking for some servet writing in the pages of this book. A man not long ago ninounced that he had discovered a cipher in the works of Shakespeare, and all the world laughed at him, and yet there are thousands of at him, and yet there are thousands of Prople who today play nuzzles with the Scriptures. They try to find prophecies of future events in the records of an ancient people, and they pore over the words until they think they have found something which foretoid an event which has nonured. fitting prophecy in which has occurred—fitting prophecy in backwards. Not long ago I listened ta & group of well dressed men discussing a chapter in Ezekial, which they said had to do with the Spanish-American had to do with the Spanish-American war. They were in earnest, and it made me heart sick to think of men wasting their energies in that foolish way. These old sayings referred to events in their own time, and were not intended for prophecies." prophecies

THOMAS CAN'T RESIGN. National Guard Captain's Resignation Not Accepted Pending Inquiuy.

To the Editor.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 2. What! You don't mean to say that it is 50 years since Capt. Daniel Carns drove his company into this city and camped on Union square?

Well, if you don't believe it, just look at "the calendar and you will see that this is Oct. 2, 1904.

Of that little company we rarely see any, but yet a few have acquired some little celebrity, among them A. F. Mo-Donald, Robert Lang Campbell, David McKenzie, Mrs. William Jennings, H. W. Naisbitt and the Geddes family, Many of the company found employment under Bishop Sharp at the stone delfs of Red Butte and Little Cottonwood. Among the valuable men in th wood. Among the valuation has in the company were Father William Paul and sons. Being accustomed to the use of tools, every broken tongue, reach, wagon-wheel, etc., found in them the very men for the occasion, Capt, Carns appreciated this and when the cattle and wagons were turned over to the emigration company, friendship be-tween the captain and his willing workers was kept up until both passed away. Salt Lake City was then but in its infancy. Main street was still agricultural. Corn, cabbage, potatoes, etc. were behind all the pole fences of that day and the water sects were then everywhere used for irrigation. Fruits were already appearing to the delight of the citizens and the streams of the street sparkling attractively. Father Paul had been a strict re-ligionist and a keeper of the Word of Wisdom before he heard the Gospel. In fact, when the Elders found him he was half converted and when he joined the Church he gave all his energy and ability to the advancement of the new cause. After some years' devotion he,
