Woman Killed Coyote-Miss Maud Waters of Shoshone, Ida., who is visit-ing with the family of Dr. W. M. Thome of east Tenth South street, distinguished herself the other night by picking off, with a rifle, a coyote that had killed 12 of the doctor's chickens.

Chase-Chace Reunion-The seventh annual reunion of the Chase-Chace Family association will be held at otel Vendome, Boston, at 10:30 a., Thursday, Sept. 6, 1906. Ex-Gov. Bates and representatives of several of the leading family associations of New England, are to be guests of the Chases on this occasion. An invita-tion to attend the gathering is extended to all of Chase-Chace name or descent.

Kelly Filter Press-The Kelly Filter Press company of this city has filed its articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office. Its capital stock is $250,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each. John W. Nelil is president; A. G. G. Wilson, vice president; E. R. Pembroke, treasorer; A. L. O. Genter, secretary D. J. Kelly, manager. The company con-trols the patent rights to the Kelly filter press and the Kelley sand and alum separator,

Bert Harris Missing-Bert Harris of Butte, aged 22, and his mother came to this city last Wednesday from Montana, and when the train was at Farmington, young Harris went into the rear of the car, and was not seen His mother took rooms at the Conway on West Temple street, and with the help of the police, is try-ing to locate her boy. At the same time, he is said to have been seen in this city asking help from people to

"Rough House" in Laundry-The American laundry, across from the lice station was the scene yesterday afternoon of a "rough house. of the girls operating a machine got her hand caught in the roller and was slightly injured. Chris Opie, a driver, started to apply turpentine to the in-jury when Engineer J. W. Clark snatched the can away from Opie. This started a fight during which several took a hand. The police were called in and placed Opie and Clark under arrest. They were released after furnishing $10 ball,

Brings Good Report-Hyrum Sains. bury is back from a trip to Garland where he found the entire country in a high state of cultivation. The beets are in fine shape as there is no fly or blight this reason, while the dry land grain is so high that heading machines can not be used, but the regular reapers have to be called into service, and the grain has to be bound and stacked just like the irrigated Generally, the dry wheat only grows to a very moderate height and heading machines are used, which clip off the tops and leaves the straw to be plowed under or burned over. The country looked very attractive to Mr. Sainsbury,
