GIRL HALF MAN'S AGE.
Marriage solemnized yesterday between girl of 15 and man of 30.

Graham Higginson, 35, and Lizzie Crittenden, who is reported to be but 15 years of age, appeared in the office of the county clerk yesterday afternoon and applied for a marriage license. Earlier in the day the couple had been arrested at the Metropole hotel by deputies from the office of the county sheriff. It appears that Higginson and the Crittenden girl had eloped from Bingham Monday, and though the parents of the girl had notified the officers to watch for the couple they managed to elude the police for some time. After being placed under arrest the man in the girl asked to be permitted to get married and this was consented to. They appeared at the office of the clerk and securing the license were married. The father of the girl came to town to take his daughter back to Bingham with him, but the marriage had taken place and the couple were not to be found.
