

The telegrams often come to us laden with news from the South American Republics, about revolutions, counter-revolutions, battles, assassinations, &c., in which rival bandit chiefs display their blood-thirstiness. In lieu of giving these petty sanguinary details in full, we clip the following from an exchange, which tells the story of that section of the earth so cursed by man, yet so blessed by nature:—

About one month before his death, General Bolivar, the so-called "Liberator" of South America, wrote a letter to the late General Flores of Ecuador, in which the following remarkable passages occur, which have never before been published in the English language: I have been in power (yo he mandado) for nearly twenty years, from which I have gathered only a few definite results:

1. South America, for us, is ungovernable.
2. He who dedicates his services to a revolution ploughs the sea.
3. The only thing that can be done in South America is to emigrate.
4. This country will inevitably fall into the hands of the unbridled rabble, and little by little become a prey to petty tyrants of all colors and races.
5. Devoured as we shall be by all possible crimes, and ruined by our ferociousness, the Europeans will not deem it worth while to conquer us.
6. If it were possible for any part of the world to return to a state of primitive chaos, that would be the last stage of Spanish America.

THE OLDEST RELIC OF HUMANITY.—The oldest relic of humanity extant is the skeleton of one of the earlier Pharaohs, encased in its original burial robes, and wonderfully perfect considering its age, which was deposited about eighteen or twenty months ago in the British Museum, and is justly considered the most valuable of its archaeological treasures. The lid of the coffin which contained the royal mummy was inscribed with the name of its occupant, Pharaoh Mykerinus, who succeeded the heir of the builder of the great pyramid, about ten centuries before Christ. Only think of it; the monarch whose crumbling bones and leathery integuments are now exciting the wonder of numerous gazers in London, reigned in Egypt before Solomon was born, and only about seven centuries or so after Mizraim, the grandson of old father Noah, and the first of the Pharaohs, had been gathered to his fathers! Why, the tide mark of the deluge could scarcely have been obliterated, or the gopher-wood timbers of the ark have rotted on Mount Ararat, when this man of the early world, lived, moved and had his being! His bones and shriveled skin are cotemporary with the nineteenth century, and the date of the crucifixion is only about midway between his era and ours.

Dickens has announced that his present intention is to return to England in the Ouba on the 22d of April.

A little girl walking in a Cemetery, and reading one after another the praises upon the tombstones of those who sleep beneath, exclaimed, "I wonder where all the sinners are buried!"

Special Notices.

On and after 1st April, 1908, where letters and papers for more than one person are put in the same box, fifty cents will be charged for each person, in addition to the regular box rent, except when such persons belong to the same family or to the same firm.

I am reluctantly compelled to make this charge, because of the smallness of the revenue of this office.

COUNTRY DEALERS North and South will find it to their advantage to regard the advertisement of GEO. DUNFORD & SONS, in another column. He drives a lively business in Hats, Caps, &c., on the Wholesale principle, and wants produce.

President Heber C. Kimball understands that there are many in this city and in other places adjacent, who have wool to card. He has put up a store and has the place where his two double carding machines work, in the 10th Ward, near Pugsley's mill and the Ward Meeting House, fitted up so that carding can be done occasionally when the weather moderates. He also has David Le Baron to work them—a man whom the people know to be honest, for he has been well known among them for many years. He can cheerfully recommend Mr. Le Baron as an honorable man, who has always given satisfaction to his customers when running machines for him. People bringing wool can have it done when they bring it, if there is enough at the machines to run a day. Being grease as usual, say one pound to seven. If the people will not bring wool along to be carded, the place will be closed.
