Dr. FOOTE, Senior,

Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York,

Hereby cautions the public NOT to Employ or Communicate With a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. Foote, of New York, the well known specialist, as abundantly proved by affidavits. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an exposé made there, he changed his base and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. Foote, the well known author. Mr. John F. Trow, of the well known Trow's Directory, in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex-Governor Frank Fuller, of Utah, and the Hon. Abram Wakeman, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surveyor of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of Foot or Foote, excepting Dr. E. B. Foote, the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Hubert T. Foote. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. Foote, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBride, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. Foote professionally or to order remedies should address either

Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr., 120 Lexington Ave., New York.

THE BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.

Editor Deseret News:

The closing exercises of the first term of the tenth academic year of the Brigham Young Academy took place on the 16th of October, 1885.

The day also happened to mark the close of the tenth year of the Academy's existence.

The musical exercises were ably conducted by Prof. William Vogelberg, and were interspersed throughout the proceedings in a very pleasing manner.

The reports of the teachers were favorable, showing a marked advancement by the students in the various branches. Mrs. Jennie Tanner represented the Ladies' Work; Brother Willard Done the Preparatory Department; Brother Joseph B. Keeler the Intermediate Department; Prof. Benj. Cluff the Academic Department, the Mathematical Course, Book-keeping, and the Theological Organization; and Prof. Jas. E. Talmage the Scientific course, the Polysophical Society, and the Domestic Organization. The Principal read his report to the Board of Trustees, from which the following are excerpts:

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Departments.	Registered.	Left.
Preparatory	42	3
Intermediate	43	4
Academic	29	—
Normal	26	—

THE NORMAL DEPARTMENT,

in charge of the principal, assisted by Brother Jos. Nelson, contains 26 students, of whom 10 are beneficiaries of the Church appropriation, and the other 16 independents. Thirteen of these are now in their second year of normal training; four have taught on several occasions in the schools of this city during absence of the respective teachers; and all have faithfully assisted in our repetition and due work during the term. Daily lessons in theory and practice of teaching were given by the principal.

FACULTY LABORS.

There have been eight regular teachers and nine assistants, during the term, who together have taught 317 weekly recitations.

THEOLOGICAL ORGANIZATION.

The theological statistics are as follows: Three Seventies, 8 Elders, 5 Priests, 9 Teachers, 32 Deacons, 81 lay members, 3 not baptized; total, 142. Besides the theological classes reported under the various departments, there were held six general repetitions, six Priesthood meetings, seven general meetings on Wednesdays, six missionary meetings and the various theological appointments were distributed among the students as judiciously as possible. Two rebaptisms and one ordination took place during the term. Our missionary meetings have been largely attended, and have been addressed occasionally by prominent Elders and returned missionaries; also letters from former students, now on foreign missions, were read. Quorum meetings were held every alternate Thursday.

DOMESTIC ORGANIZATION.

The students from abroad have been distributed in 23 boarding places, and been visited bi-weekly by 15 appointed visitors, who made their reports every alternate Thursday. The new experiment of our own boarding-house has thus far proved an unqualified success. According to the regulations adopted for conducting the same, of which a copy is on file, Mrs. Jennie Tanner is acting as matron, Brother J. B. Keeler as steward, and Brother Willard Done as presiding tutor. There are 32 gentlemen and 9 lady boarders registered, who occupy 21 rooms, besides the dining and study rooms.

The students of the Academy are tabulated domestically as follows: From Provo, 34; Springville, 1; Spanish Fork, 3; Payson, 6; Goshen, 1; Benjamin, 1; Pleasant Valley, 1; Lehi, 3; Alpine, 3; American Fork, 1; Pleasant Grove, 4; Juab County, 3; Sanpete, 12; Millard, 14; Sevier, 5; Iron, 2; Beaver, 1; Washington, 3; Uintah, 2; Wasatch, Box Elder, Tooele, Weber, 4; Cache, 1; Idaho, 4; Arizona, 1. Total, 142.

CLOSING REMARKS.

It is to-day ten years since the Brigham Young Academy commenced its operations with Elder Warren N. Dusenberry as its first principal. What changes since then this institution has undergone; what trials it has passed through; what difficulties overcome; what opposition encountered; what hopes realized, and what its influence has become among the youth of Zion—all that constitutes its history, which so closely resembles the development and fortunes of the whole Latter-day work, that we justly feel comforted in the reflection of its having become an inseparable and living part of the latter. The spirit that dictated its foundation, that shaped its organization and controlled its administration, whispers to us prophecies of increasing usefulness for the future.

After the reading of the principal's report, President A. O. Smoot, Harvey H. Cluff and Wilson H. Dusenberry, of the Board of Trustees and Elder David John, addressed the students and visitors in instructive remarks.

Some of the students' work was on exhibition, and was viewed by the visitors.

The principal announced that the second term would begin on Monday, Oct. 19, 1885.

WILLARD DONE, Secretary.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SOME QUERIES AROUSED BY THE PRESENT SITUATION.

ASTORIA, Oregon, September 9th, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

I wish, through your valuable paper, to ask one or two questions. Were not courts established for the purpose of maintaining peace and good order in the community? and that where there is any dispute between parties and the parties cannot between themselves settle the question in dispute to their satisfaction and that of all concerned—is it not for this reason that courts were instituted, to settle difficulties, and thereby minister to the peace and happiness of the community? also to oblige all parties making contracts to adhere to those contracts entered into?

Now, suppose I should enter into a contract with a man or woman, or with men or women, can I say to either party, after awhile, Here, I don't want to be bound by this contract any longer, and without the consent and against the wishes of the other parties, break my contract with them! What would be the next step? Would not the other party enter a complaint against me in court and I be required to explain the reason why I did not abide by my contract? And would the court settle the dispute to the peace and good order of the community? Or, say I go into court and tell the judge I wish to break my contracts with other parties that I have contracted with, without their consent and against their wishes; would not that be a one-sided question? Could any court liberate me and be justifiable, or by so doing minister to the peace and good order of the community?

Now, some of the Latter-day Saints enter into the most sacred covenants or contracts before God and man, with 2, 3 or more women, to live together as husband and wives through time and eternity; to love, cherish and minister to the comfort of each and all parties. After awhile, can the husband the head and front of this sacred contract, without the consent, and against the good wishes of the other contracting parties, ladies and children too at that, flesh of his own flesh and bone of his bone, violate his contracts and be justified by the courts to the peace and good order of all parties, and in the sight of God? Would not that be a one-sided question? And could not either or all of these ladies and children enter a complaint against the husband and father that would take such a course, for a violation of said contracts mutually agreed and entered into? Could the court settle the trouble to the peace and good order of that family or of the community, especially when some of these contracts were entered into before there was any constitutional law to the contrary.

On the other hand, were courts established to force the breaking of sacred contracts against the wishes and consent of both parties, and when the poor deluded women are parties to this contract that there has been so much talk about, to be cast out into a cold world, with helpless children, and sorrow, mourning, tears, anguish of mind and body, and probably death, murder, where otherwise peace, joy, happiness and blessings might have prevailed?

In the breaking of sacred contracts why are not the wives who are parties to said contracts given a chance to explain their views? And if they and their husbands are satisfied with their conditions, who has a right to step in and force them to do that which they revolt at?

Listen to the poet:

When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not thee o'erflow,
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

And furthermore, did not the Government foster these people in the infancy of their organization by appointing the head and front of said people to the highest office in the Territory? And did not Orson Pratt and others preach plurality of wives in the States years ago without the Government taking any steps to inform the people of their doing any wrong? Did not Rev. Dr. Newman years afterward come to Utah and try to prove in our own Tabernace, from the book that all Christians believe in, that plurality was not sanctioned by God, and yet signally failed, notwithstanding all his knowledge of Hebrew?

Fearing that I may be too lengthy, I will close, praying that all the Saints may be faithful.

Your brother in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, E. J. BROOKS.

JUAB STAKE CONFERENCE.

NEPHI, Utah, October 19, 1885.

The quarterly Conference of the Juab Stake of Zion was held at Nephi, Oct. 17th, and 18th, 1885. There were present of the Quorum of the Twelve, Apostles Lyman, Grant and Taylor, who addressed the Saints, exhorting them to repentance and to be diligent and faithful in keeping the commandments of God. The principles of the Gospel were expounded in great plainness.

Pres. Canute Peterson, of Sanpete Stake, also addressed the Saints on matters relating to the Manti Temple, making an earnest appeal to the Saints to be faithful in paying their Temple donations so that the building may be completed in due time and the Saints receive their blessings.

Brother B. H. Roberts, who has been making a tour through the southern part of Utah, lecturing to the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Improvement Associations, and traveling in the interests of the Contributor, attended our conference, and we had the pleasure of listening to two very eloquent discourses delivered by him.

The general authorities of the Church were sustained and some few changes were made and some vacancies filled in the Church organization of the Nephi branch.

A good spirit prevailed throughout the conference, and the people had an enjoyable time together.

Yours respectfully,
THOMAS CRAWLEY, Clerk.
