

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents are asked to send their names and addresses, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

HAPPY NEW YEAR.—Of course it will be a happy new year, the human family, including the printers, all know it to be a day of rest to the weary; therefore, as it is customary everywhere, there will be no issue of our paper to-morrow.

THEATRICAL.—The drama of "The Idiot of the Mill" was performed for the fourth time yesterday evening, and considering the many arrangements elsewhere, it is a fair success. The drama was well acted. Mademoiselle Mathilde gave us a faithful picture of a devoted wife and a faithful daughter. The conflicting emotions, love and duty, were portrayed by her in a masterly manner. Mr. Waldron as Berthold Arnau was excellent. Messrs. Hardie, Graham, Lindsay, and Hyde filled their parts to the entire satisfaction of the audience. Mrs. Clayson made the character of Mrs. Garthney prominent and acted it exceedingly well. The Salt Lake Mail, in their review, has a most interesting performance, were favorably received.

This evening one of the strongest bills is presented, the thrilling drama of "The Idiot of the Mill" and the Negro Minstrel in an entirely new program, including a local hit entitled "A scene in Savage & Ottinger's Photographic Gallery." "The Idiot of the Mill" is a stirring melo-drama, with startling situations, among which the attack on the mill by the brigands and the destruction of the castle are most prominent. From beginning to end it is interesting, exciting and also amusing. Mademoiselle Scheller appears as Lendormie, the idiot boy, (singing several songs), Mr. Waldron as Pierre Lenoir and Baron Spackman, the Chief of the Black Band of death, Miss Adams as Marie, Mr. Margrett as Simon de Soft, and the rest of the characters in best hands. This new entertainment should attract a large house. "The Idiot of the Mill" will not be repeated and a new program will be given every evening. Those who desire to see this great sensational melo-drama must therefore not miss this opportunity. The final tableau of the Idiot is alone worth the price of admission.

"The Daughter of the Regiment," a play of Salt Lake's favorite dramas, will shortly be produced again. "The Broken Sword" is still in active preparation.

TO RENT.—Persons wishing to rent Lock Boxes at the Post office, can be accommodated, by leaving their names at the office as early as possible. The office for general delivery will be open on New Year's day, from eight to ten a.m.

FROM CACHE.—Capt. Abe Garr, from Millville, Cache County, gave us a call this morning, stating that matters and things up in "Egypt" were in a flourishing condition. The people from there who had been on the C. P. & N. R. had returned, having filled their contracts. Cooked chickens, spare-ribs, roast potatoes and "goodies" of a substantial nature made up the Christmas bill of fare in the country.

GONE NORTH.—This morning Prests. B. Young and George A. Smith, Elders Wilford Woodruff, F. D. Richards, George Q. Cannon, B. Young, Jun., Joseph A. Young and other brethren started for Ogden, where they will hold meetings.

DEED.—Only one poor sealowag drunk to-day. Must be recuperating for to-morrow.

DYING.—An old friend of everybody's, who has made himself conspicuous by visiting the halls of the rich and the huts of the poor, the world over; a historian whose able pen has recorded the acts of the just and the unjust, including some of the great and important events of the latter days, the destruction of millions of lives and the parent of another generation, equally as numerous, after playing a successful engagement of 366 days in the Theatre of Time, will make his farewell speech to the Salt Lake audience as the City Hall clock strikes twelve to-night.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning, about ten o'clock, while Jones & Groves, men working at a deep cut on the grade, above the entrance of Round Valley in Weber Canyon, there was a "cave" which resulted in the death of two young men named Jess Read and Richard Gibbs. The body of Bro. Gibbs was taken to his parents in Cache Valley, that of Bro. Read to the residence of John Miner, in the 9th Ward, from which the funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

FOUND.—One half of a lady's trail and the running gear of two "Gremlin Bends," the owners can recover the same by applying at the City Hall. Some local notices have points only perceptible to the writers; we trust this one is not so ambiguous, but that "the who runs, though a fool" may read.

MARRIED.—In this City, December 28th, 1898, by President D. H. Wells, Mr. James Ashman and Miss Francis Gedding.

DIED, in Salt Lake City, Dec. 28th, of Diphtheria, Kate Ruth, daughter of Henry and Sarah Benham, aged two years and five months. Millennial Star please copy.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.—The women of Dakota City, Nebraska, are out with strong resolutions in favor of the right of suffrage for their sex. They resolve that suffrage is the inherent right of every individual with-out regard to sex. The Omaha Herald has never been able to see, it says, why a white Anglo-Saxon female, with straight hair and aquiline nose, is not the equal of a black African male, with kinky hair and a flat nose.

THE WAY.—History gives no correct account of the person who first invented the now universal habit among the "small fry" of hanging up their stockings on Christmas and New Year's eve. It is a custom, however, which to dispense with would be equivalent among the children, to an annihilation of the holidays themselves. It is not generally known that there is a certain, unerring rule, which, if followed, will insure every stocking to be well filled, whether among rich or poor, and without the usual expense of laying out money. The rule is to keep the stocking on.
