

Local and Other Matters.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 9.

Trio Band.—A trio band of 20th Warders hold themselves in readiness to engage to play at parlor dancing parties. So says their advertisement, in another column. All three are good musicians.

A Smash.—On Second East St., a short distance below Second South, lies the wreck of a hack. The front wheels, springs, &c., are in an exceedingly demoralized condition. Probably the accident occurred last night.

Going to St. George.—To-morrow morning Brothers George Romney and William H. Folsom purpose leaving for St. George. The former goes on a visit to his relatives there and the latter will remain some time, attending to matters pertaining to the building of the Temple.

Walker House.—Before us is a complimentary from Mr. E. Hotchkiss, the new proprietor of the Walker House, to attend a reception, in the parlors of that hotel, on to-morrow evening. Mr. H. is a hotel-keeper of extended experience, and is capable of sustaining the good reputation of the house.

Traffic Suspended.—Snow is over three feet deep in the vicinity of Mayor Wells' saw mill, Big Cottonwood, the road is blocked in consequence, and ore is being hauled from Silver Fork, Big Cottonwood, over into Little Cottonwood Canyon, the road through the latter being still passable.

Accident.—Last evening as Mr. and Mrs. Payne, of the 12th Ward, were returning home from meeting, the latter tumbled against an obstacle on the path, near the house, causing her to fall and hurt her arm so severely that for the present it is rendered useless. No bones were broken, however, the injury being of the nature of a severe wrench or sprain.

Illegal Voting.—This morning William Jeffries, of Grantsville, appeared in Court and plead guilty to an indictment for illegal voting. The Court stated that he did not want to take a course toward the accused that would have the appearance of persecution, or something to that effect, and imposed a fine of $20 and $10 costs.

A Double Case.—On Saturday lawyer W. R. Keithley made affidavit before Justice Pyper, charging a miner, named John Goddard, and a woman, named Smith, with lascivious cohabitation, and the two were arrested on a warrant issued by the official named. Subsequently the woman made affidavit against Keithley, charging him with assaulting and beating her, and he also was arrested, making it a kind of three-handed affair.

Deseret University.—The Fall Term of this Institution closed last Friday, and the Winter term commenced this morning. The University has now more than a hundred pupils, and has room for more. Every department is provided with first class teachers, and the method of instruction is of such excellence that the progress of students can not be otherwise than satisfactory, hence the Institution is in every way well worthy of public support.

From Cache to St. George.—About fifty men are now on the way or soon will be from Cache Valley to St. George, for the purpose of spending the winter months in working on the Temple at the latter place. Some of them reached this city to-day, among them Brother H. Brown, a mason, and an excellent workman, the same who built the Providence meeting house, and the Logan Co-operative building, both creditable structures. St. George will be a lively place this winter.

Fish Killing.—We are reliably informed that the practice of killing fish by blasting the streams with giant powder is becoming alarmingly prevalent. If this barbarous mode of destroying fish is allowed to proceed unchecked the streams will soon be depopulated of their finny inhabitants, and fresh fish become an exceedingly scarce article in the Utah market. If we remember aright, there is a statute relating to the matter, which should be rigidly enforced.

About A Horse.—The other day a young fellow, named Green, lost a horse; the animal went to the lot of a party in the 10th Ward, who gave it in charge to a third party, named Workman. The owner found it in Workman's possession, but could not induce him to give it up, and the other charged him with stealing the horse. The case was before Justice Pyper to-day, when it was plainly shown that Workman had no idea of stealing, but merely held on to the animal till Green "proved property." The case was dismissed, Green paying the costs.

Shooting Affray.—On Saturday afternoon, as the northern bound train of the Utah Southern was passing West Jordan, two men stepped out of a saloon and one of them fired a shot at the other. The bullet appeared to enter the man's mouth and come out at the cheek for as soon as the shot was fired the blood spurted from that portion of his face. Immediately on discharging that shot the man who fired it turned on his heel and walked away, the other in the meantime having drawn his pistol kept up a kind of fusillade at the retreating figure, rapidly advancing a few steps after every shot, until his pistol was emptied, but his antagonist turned neither to the right nor the left, going straight ahead, not even looking over his shoulder at the party who was so diligently and persistently endeavoring to perforate him. The injury of the man who was hit is not supposed to be dangerous.

Gone to St. George.—Bro. Silas L. Jackson writes from St. George, November 2, concerning the company who went from Nephi to work on the Temple at the former place. They left Nephi Oct. 20, and went as far as Little Salt Creek that day; 21st to Scipio; 22nd to Fillmore; 23d to Baker's Pass; 24th to Wild Cat Canyon, severe snowstorm; 25th to Beaver; 26th to Paragonah, wet night; 27th to Parowan, heavy snowstorm; 28th to Cedar City; 29th to near Bellevue; 30th to Washington; 31st to St. George.

The company was organized as follows—Andrew Love, president; George B. Reid, commissary; Silas L. Jackson, secretary; Wm. Bird, chaplain; Samuel Tolley, George Read, Edwin Scott and Sister Scott, cooks.

The following are the names of the brethren gone to work on the Temple—G. B. Reid, J. Adams, W. Bird, S. L. Jackson, J. G. Bigler, Jr., J. Foutz, E. Scott, S. Tolley, E. Shepard, H. Mangrum, G. Read and D. Bigler.

Arrested and Discharged.—This morning Col. W. N. Fife, of Ogden, was arrested and taken before Commissioner Toohy, on a charge preferred by Eugene Lascelles, of assault and beating the latter in this City, on Friday evening. The accused proved to the entire satisfaction of the Commissioner that the charge was groundless, as he had been absent from the City nearly fifteen months, until the day after the beating was done, and Lascelles failed to adduce a particle of evidence to sustain the charge.

It may be well to state that some time since a vile slander against a member of Col. Fife's family was published in a disreputable paper of this city. It is also well understood that the cowardly calumny emanated from the pen of Lascelles and the knowledge of his guilt of the dastardly act was the probable cause of his suspecting Col. Fife administering to him the whipping. Whether Lascelles or the editors of the sheet alluded to are most to blame in the matter, it is hard to say.

EASTERN.

CHICAGO, 6.—The following are some of the expressions of the western press on the elections: The Louisville Courier-Journal regards the result as an overwhelming revolution, not a mere revolt, but says the republican party is still a power in the land, and the revolution must be met by a policy, national and positive, not negative, on all the leading questions of the day. It says the danger and weakness of the democracy is that the accident of success has caught it with many uncertain dependencies. "Assuredly," it says, "we owe our victory to our liberalism, and we must keep on liberalizing. Success should make us neither exacting, nor critical, nor inert, nor narrow. Steady's the word and broad, broad as the country."

The Chicago Times designates the victory as a white elephant in the hands of an opposition without a head or settled principles, and predicts that before 1876 the party will fall to pieces for want of any vital principle of cohesion.

The Cincinnati Gazette attributes the defeat in great part to the failure of the republican party to afford relief to the people from many minor evils, but concludes, "If the republican party will profit by the severe punishment it has received, both it and the country will find the disaster of the present week a blessing in disguise."

The St. Louis Globe thinks the republican party has been relieved of a great deal of rubbish, and that if, in getting rid of Butler, it can get rid of Butlerism, and if time-servers and place hunters who have used the party for their own ends can be made to learn that the people won't endure them, even for the sake of republicanism, it will not only be a better but a stronger party.

The St. Louis Republican says the downfall of the republican party is sudden and crushing, and that it never can be resuscitated as a controlling power in American politics.

The Tribune's Washington special says the propriety of the reorganization of the law providing for the organization of Congress on the 4th of March instead of the 1st Monday in December, is again suggested; in addition to the usual arguments in favor of such a law the republicans are seriously considering it, because, they say it will give the democrats, who are in the majority in the new House, two long sessions, which will be ample time for them to handle themselves with.

NEW YORK, 6.—The case of Tilton vs. Beecher will be called up on Monday next in the city court, Brooklyn. Beecher's counsel have appealed from the decision of the court denying the motion for a bill of specifications. Moulton has been summoned to appear on Monday to plead to the indictments for libel on Mr. Beecher and Miss Proctor.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 7.—A special says the chances of various prominent gentlemen for the Speakership of the next house are already being canvassed. General Banks, Fernando Wood, S. S. Cox, and ex-Governor Walker are the persons most prominently mentioned, and although it is conceded that the democratic majority will prefer a straight-out party man, it is argued that some compromise may be made or understanding arrived at by which General Banks could be united upon by the democrats and conservative republicans. The republicans now concede the democrats a majority of 73 in the next house.

MEMPHIS, 8.—W. O. Harvey, of the firm of Ely, Harvey & Richardson, Frank M. White, of White & Co., and several other merchants were arrested last evening by U. S. marshal L. R. Eaton, on warrants charging them with a violation of the Enforcement Act, in discharging colored men from their employment for re using to vote the democratic ticket in August; they appeared before a U. S. commissioner this a. m., and gave bonds of $2,000 each for their appearance at the next term of the U. S. Circuit Court. It is said that five hundred similar warrants have been issued.

Jack Phillips, a negro, who outraged the wife of White, the planter, so brutally that she will probably die, was last night committed to jail, and while on the way, in charge of an officer, becoming alarmed at the crowd, he attempted to escape by running, when he was fired on by the crowd, and literally riddled. The woman outraged was the principal witness in the case.

PHILADELPHIA, 7.—It is reported that Father Gordeman, pastor of the St. Boniface cathedral, has absconded with the lady organist and the church funds; an investigation will be held.

NEW ORLEANS, 7.—U. S. Marshal Delyi, and Lieut. Hodson of the U. S. cavalry, were arrested by the sheriff of Lincoln parish yesterday, by order of Judge Trumble, for contempt of court, and they are now at Vienna, awaiting the judge's action.

A dispatch from Monroe this morning, says that twenty men of company B, 3d U. S. Infantry, Captain Head in command left here this a. m., for Lincoln parish; it is said that cavalry have been ordered from Shreveport to the same parish, but for what purpose it is not known.

PHILADELPHIA, 7.—On Thursday, the day after Father Gordeman disappeared, Bishop Wood received a letter from him, stating that he had left the Catholic church because he could not believe in the infallibility of the Pope, and saying: "By the time you read this you will know all about me, therefore I have no need to make an explanation." He also said that his debts had overwhelmed him.

MEMPHIS, 7.—Only five indictments were found against the persons arrested here last evening, charged with a violation of the enforcement act; the story that five hundred warrants had been issued is unfounded.

NEWBURY, 7.—The trotting stallion 'Manhattan,' valued at twenty thousand dollars, was fatally injured to-day by running away.

ATCHISON, Kansas, 7.—The State vote from 91 districts elects 24 democrats, 2 republicans and 2 reformers in the House, and nineteen republicans, and 13 democrats and reformers in the Senate.

NEW YORK, 7.—Cyrus J. Murray, of the firm of Murray, Meade & Co., wholesale dealers in shoes, whose failure was announced yesterday, states their liabilities will amount to $250,000; he attributes the failure of the firm to the general shrinkage in business.

The laborers in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Great Western Railway, at the new tunnel in Jersey City, are on strike in consequence of a decrease in wages; those paid a dollar and a half a day have been reduced to one dollar and thirty-five cents, and those paid one dollar and seventy cents have been reduced to a dollar and a half.

A very large and enthusiastic crowd of people visited the matinee performance of Charlotte Cushman, at Booth's Theatre this afternoon; the play was Macbeth. The occasion of the general attendance at the performance was that this was the farewell representation of Miss Cushman on the mimic stage. William Cullen Bryant made an address at the close of the play, concluding by placing a laurel on Miss Cushman's brow. The distinguished actress made a feeling reply, and the programme having been concluded, she was driven away from the theatre to the Fifth Avenue Hotel; a grand serenade followed.

During a drunken quarrel to-night, Joseph Rosenthal pushed his wife Mary Ann, aged 32, from the roof of their residence, 43 East 14th Street, and she was instantly killed; the murderer was arrested.

WASHINGTON, 8.—Among recent postal changes for the Pacific coast, are the following: A post office established at Shaunti, Beaver Co., Utah, James H. Knight, p. m., William H. Schack is appointed postmaster, at Diamond, Juab Co., Utah.

NEW YORK, 8.—The Times says it is highly probable that seven of the eleven propositions submitted to the people, with a view to an amendment of the State constitution, have been defeated; those rejected are said to be the amendments aimed against bribery at elections, that extending the governor's term to three years, and shortening the time within which he can retain bills for signature, those designed to check incurring indebtedness by the State or local governments on behalf of railroad or other corporations, and those providing for the punishment, as a criminal offence, of the giving or taking of bribes by members of the legislature or others holding office under the laws of the State. Those supposed to be adopted are the ones intended to check special legislation for canal jobbery and the alienation of the sinking fund.

Judge Hogan intends to contest the seat of Meade from the 5th congressional district, and claims, in a card to the press, that he will expose the frauds practised to defeat him.

There were 183 deaths from diphtheria, in this city during the last two weeks in October. A scientific investigation is likely to be made into the causes of its prevalence with a view to sweeping measures for its prevention.

Rev. Jas. Theodore Holly, D. D., of Port-au-Prince, the colored bishop elect of Hayti, West Indies, was consecrated this morning in the Grouse church; bishops L. E. Potter, Kerfoot, of Kingston, Jamaica, officiated.

NEW ORLEANS, 8.—The committee of seventy telegraphed the President, protesting against the occupation of the State by Federal troops, and requesting their withdrawal, in view of the fact that a large number of negroes voted with the conservatives at the late election, and that peace and harmony are restored. They conclude by assuring the President and people of the United States of their determination to uphold the constitution and the cause of public liberty.

CINCINNATI, 8.—A most brutal and mysterious murder was committed in the tannery of Henry Treiberg, Livingstone St., some time between 10 o'clock last night and daylight this morning. A workman went to the tannery and, looking into the boiler furnace, observed, upon half consumed fuel, the body of a man, the arms and legs burned off. Herman Schilling, a workman at the tannery, who slept there at night, was missing; the body was extracted and identified as that of Schilling. In the stable were signs of a desperate encounter: a bloody pitchfork lay on the ground, and blood stains formed a trail to the furnace in the tannery. Within the enclosure in which the stable was located three fierce mastiffs were running loose, and from this and other circumstances it was inferred that the murderer must be perfectly familiar with the place as well as with the habits of the murdered man. Suspicious rest on three men—Andrew Egner, Fred Egner and his son George, who had been discharged from the employ of the tannery. Persons testify to hearing threats on Schilling's life from all three of these men, who were discharged yesterday evening, and were familiar with the premises. Egner and son kept a liquor saloon and cooper shop next to the tannery, and were often in and out of the latter place. Early last August a seduced daughter of Egner's died in childbirth at the hospital; Egner and son charged Schilling with her seduction and went into the tannery and beat him severely with cooper's staves. For this they were fined in the police court, heavily, and bound over to keep the peace for a year. Rufer, a discharged tanner, was in the employ of Egner last August. He denies enmity against Schilling, but says Egner's son threatened Schilling's life, and that several coopers, working for Egner, had said Schilling ought to be hung and burnt. Traces of blood had not been found on the clothing of any except on Rufer's, and the supposition is that these men entered the stable while Schilling was asleep, and beat him with clubs and a pitchfork, and attempted to burn him. The excitement is very great.

NEW YORK, 9.—A petition from citizens of Jamaica, Long Island, was yesterday forwarded to the President, asking the release from imprisonment and the remission of the fine imposed by a San Francisco court, upon Captain Robert Clark, of the ship Sunrise, for the alleged maltreatment of his crew; Captain Clark is a resident of Jamaica.

London papers of the 26th announce the suspension of Farrand, Gaunay & White, of Savage Gardens, in the corn trade, liabilities $50,000 pounds; and Lemon, Hart & Son, wine and spirit dealers, of George Street, Tower Hill; liabilities about 150,000 pounds.

Peruvian advices to Oct. 21st say that Congress has decreed the release of all purely political prisoners in the republic, and they have consequently all been set free.

Chilian advices to October 10th say that the Bishops of Serena and Concepcion have issued a pastoral, excommunicating the President, several members of the Council of State, and a host of Senators and deputies.

The civil suit of Tilton against Beecher came up this morning, before Judge Reynolds, in the city court, Brooklyn, which was crowded with spectators, including many ladies. Tilton was present with his counsel, Judge Fullerton, Wm. A. Beach, Judge Morris, and Roger A. Prior. Beecher was not present, but was represented by General Tracy and Shearman. When the case was called Judge Morris announced that the plaintiff was ready, but Shearman objected to the trial being commenced before the appeal had been heard on the order issued by Judge Nielson, and asked for delay that certain papers necessary in the case, should be printed. Judge Reynolds fixed the time for hearing the argument on
