

From Germany.—This morning we were pleased to meet Elder Abraham H. Cannon, who returned last night from a mission to Europe. He left this city on the 21st of October, 1879. On arriving in England he was appointed to labor in the Nottingham Conference, where he remained but a few weeks, when he was, by appointment, transferred to the Swiss and German Mission. In Montreal he was taken into custody, but after being taken before a magistrate, and commanded, under threatened penalties, not to hold meetings or promulgate the doctrines of his religion, he was acquitted.

He was subsequently appointed to labor in the office of the Mission, in Bern, remaining in that position a year and four months, during which time he visited numbers of conferences and did a great deal of preaching in Switzerland. On the 24th of October last, the scene of his missionary labors was transferred to North Germany, where he remained until his release, being succeeded in that field by his brother, John G. Cannon, whose ministry is also being attended with favorable results.

Elder A. H. Cannon has performed a very successful mission. He has mastered the German language so that its use is equally as easy to him as the English. During his absence he baptized eighty-three new members of the Church. He has enjoyed good health, in which condition he returns to his mountain home. He came to New York with the immigrants, but remained at that point a few days with his father, Hon. George G. Cannon, who reached that city to meet his son the same evening the company departed for the West.

Bear Lake Buds.—From the Democrat: We understand the railroad company have withdrawn the men and teams from their labor in the vicinity of Soda Springs, on account of the extortionate figures demanded by the settlers for the right of way through their lands. This is unwise on the part of the settlers, and should they persist in this course, the railroad company may take another route and leave Soda Springs "out in the cold."

The citizens of Paris, with commendable energy, are improving their surroundings at present by erecting neat and artistic verandas and fences, and we understand several new residences are to be built this season.

Altogether this is the most singular season we have ever experienced. Cold changes the weather has continued from winter up to the present time, and the mountains are still covered with snow. The waters have scarcely commenced to rise yet, and the cold weather has much retarded vegetation. The hay bottoms, which have usually been flooded before this time, are dry and dusty. Unless warm weather sets in soon, our crops will be very light this season.

Cozens and Phelps have taken the contract to fill what is called the "Bennington Slough," and are now running from twenty-five to one hundred teams, and are making good progress in the work. The O. S. L. R. R. Co. were unable to contract the filling of what is called the "Montpelier Slough," consequently are having the work done themselves. They have now a large force of men and teams at work, and expect to have the job finished by the time the tracklayers reach there.

The above are the only obstacles of any consequence from the present terminus to Soda Springs, and with their completion the road will be open to the terminus in five weeks—the advent of the locomotive into Bear Lake Valley may be looked for at any time.

Back from England.—To-day we had an agreeable visit from Elder Rodney Hillam, who returned last night, in company with Elder A. H. Cannon, from a mission to England. He left this city April 17th, 1881, and during the whole of his stay abroad he labored in the Leeds, (Yorkshire) Conference. Most of his ministry was without the company of any other Elder.

He preached the Gospel in some villages where an Elder's voice had never been heard before, and in others where the message had not been proclaimed for twenty years. He traveled a good deal among relatives, and had the privilege of baptizing fourteen persons, besides visiting the families of other brethren where he was requested to conduct the funeral services, which they did, in a Baptist chapel, where they had the opportunity to not only testify to the worth of the deceased, but to the truth of the Gospel for the salvation of the living and the dead, as revealed through Joseph Smith the Prophet to about 300 persons. Elder Hillam returns in excellent health and good spirits.

Southern Colonists.—Elder B. F. Johnson, of Spring Lake Villa, disposed of his farm, orchards and cannery establishment a short time since, and has gone southward, as the advance guard of an extensive colony, to found and build up new homes. The colonists were terminated as to their future location, but purposed examining the Gila and Salt River Valleys in Arizona, as well as those of the Yoko and Janas in Old Mexico.

Speaking of the passage of the advance party, through Silver Reef, Kane County, the Minister of that place remarked as follows: "Mr. Johnson, the promoter of this exodus, is 64 years of age, patriarchal in the fullest sense, being the father of forty living children, 22 of whom are married. Of the number there are 25 sons. This advance party consists of seven families, 25 persons in all, with eight vehicles, well equipped, which will make camp and remain in the vicinity of St. George until the 10th inst., when another contingent will join them in their journey over the southern deserts in search of the promised land."

Mr. J. E. Johnson, of this city, brother of B. F. Johnson, and who, like him, is a pioneer in horticulture in Utah, will accompany the party.

Walker Opera House.—The second Careless Orchestral concert, at the Walker Opera House last night, was, like that of Monday night, a highly successful entertainment.

To-morrow night the grand dramatic opening will occur, the piece to be presented being one of the most successful of its kind, "My Father," having had a successful run every where it has been presented. It is a dramatic masterpiece, occupying a high position in the profession, and is sustained by an able company.

A Reckless Rough.—On Saturday while General Cook, Hon. W. F. Cody, generally known as "Buffalo Bill," Major Oakes, and a party of ladies were on their way from Manitou Springs to Denver, they met with an exciting episode. A long haired, brawny rough topped the train. He called himself "California Jack," drew a long pistol, which he flourished threateningly, and wanted to be brought face to face with "Buffalo Bill." The conductor came along, and discovering that the blatant braver had no ticket, promptly fired him off the train. After the train moved off he fired three shots from his revolver at the car in which the party were seated, but fortunately he did not hit anybody. Neither General Cook nor Mr. Cody had any weapons, and might have fared hard with "California Jack."
