STOLEN.

ALL persons, and especially those residing in or passing through the northern portion of this Territory, are requested not to take or purchase (unless with a view to return it to the owners) certain property taken from a California emigrant train, by Bannock Indians of Oregon, and Shoshonee Indians of this Territory, such as horses, mules and cattle, brand S, pistols, jewelry, &c.
I especially caution, under the severest penalty of the law, persons not to harbor, give, sell, take or buy anything whatever from any chief or from any of their men or squaws belonging to the three bands of Indians roaming in the neighborhood of Willow creek and Brigham City settlements, and in Cache, Malad and Bear river valleys, and in the northern portion of this Territory generally; until the twenty or more Indians who took part in the recent massacre on Sublett's Cut-off, July 21, are delivered up.
JACOB FORNEY,
Superintendent of Indian Affairs. 24-1f

OGDEN CITY EXCITEMENT.

STILL ON THEY COME!!
THE undersigned wishes to inform the citizens of Ogden City and the surrounding country that he has just received and is putting up at the storehouse of Gen'l West, a large and splendid assortment of STAPLE & FANCY GOODS
Consisting of every variety and quality, especially a splendid assortment of PRINTS, which will be sold cheaper than has ever before been offered in Ogden City.
He has also a well selected stock of BOOTS, Men, Women and Children's SHOES.
A superior article of COFFEE, SUGAR & TEA, which will be sold low.

SOAP, RAISINS, CANDIES, CANDLES, INDIGO & Madder, ALUM, ROSIN, COPPERAS, GLASS of different sizes, BRASS KETTLES, SPADES, SHOVELS, HOES, PITCH FORKS, SCYTHE BLADES for cradling and mowing, and almost every article that is made, from a shoe tack to a sugar mill, all of which will be sold unusually low for CASH, OATS, BARLEY, GOOD BUTTER & EGGS.

The undersigned makes this publication in order that his fellow citizens in Ogden City and in the surrounding valley may be induced to give him a call; confidently believing that he will be able to induce them to abandon the practice of driving their teams in double quick time to Salt Lake City, while they have to encounter the burning sands and scorching rays of the sun, when they might have a pleasant evening's ride to their own enterprising city, and inhale its mountain air without a heated breath from sand or sun. So come along one and all! You will at all times find Dandy Dan at his post, as polite as a French Dancing Master. While the undersigned thinks he will be able to render full satisfaction to any who may give him a call.

In conclusion, let me say to the citizens of this valley, and especially to the way-worn emigrant, who may be traveling towards the rising or setting sun, and whose eye may chance to see this, that our location in this city may be known by that splendid pole, whose top aspires to heaven, on the summit of which floats in silent majesty the stars and stripes of our glorious Union; and while these mountains have a base or rippling stream flowing from the same, to irrigate this valley, may this national ensign continue to wave amid the lightnings of heaven as a memento of the magnanimity and enterprising spirit of Gen'l West, who erected it, whose enterprise and liberality are ever commensurate with the wants of his fellow citizens.

So citizens! all come along, and don't be alarmed! You shall see Dancing Dan and eight by ten cotton yarn.
Press thro' the crowd and bring your money in the store.
We'll give you better bargains than e'er you've had before.
27-1m J. B. COX.

UTAH WAR!

THE subscribers, under the firm of J. C. Little & Co., have opened an auction and commission store in that large and commodious warehouse, South Temple Street, opposite the Tabernacle, where they are prepared to receive consignments of dry goods, groceries and merchandise of every description.

Also Mules, Horses, Cattle, Wagons, Carriages, &c. to sell on commission, at private sale or public auction. Having an abundance of storage room, merchants and other persons coming to the city with goods or merchandise will find it to their advantage to call and see us before entering into any arrangements, which may enable them to save heavy rents and expenses, and obtain a speedy return for their goods.

There is a large corral attached to these premises, secured by a plank fence, 8 feet high. Hay and feed constantly on hand, and we will be responsible for the safe keeping of all cattle and animals committed to our charge.
