

CURIOUS PEOPLE OF PHILIPPINES

Dr. Jones, Killed by Head Hunters
Of Luzon, Describes Them
In a Letter.

THEY REMIND ONE OF INDIANS

Call Their Bodies "A Bad Lot"—
Negritos Bury Dead in Trees
—Use Bows and Arrows.

Chicago, April 29.—The voice of science speaking from the grave comes to Dr. G. A. Dorsey of the Field Columbian museum in a letter from Dr. William Jones, written a few days before his death at the hands of head-hunters in Luzon. The letter is full of interesting comment on the language, traits and discredited gods of the natives, who call their dieties "a bad lot" and contains a vivid description of a terrible typhoon, during which "all nature was awake and in anger."

"The culture of the Negritos is pretty much the same wherever I went," said Jones in the course of his communication.

"The only differences were due to location near or away from the river. Near the river the people use nets and fish with nets; away from the river they have no nets or rafts. Language elsewhere was pretty much the same, but there were slight differences of intonation."

"Well, at last I've come upon the Talois. They are curious creatures and some will at once remind you of North American Indians not only as to incident and literary elements, but as to the esoteric ideas they displayed. Still I am unable to discern if the Negritos have the Manitou in the Algonquian, Sioux or Pawnee sense. His Manitou is a real tangible thing, which he names by the name of the animal he thinks of. In fact, the Negritos are incomprehensible toward his gods. He will go through the day with you, telling what good points and what bad points this and that god has, and at the end he will curse the whole lot and say they are no good. A rather interesting attitude this, psychologically."

"The Negritos I met seem practically no smaller or no larger than the Negritos. They are not the Simon-pure creatures that Weysser said they were. So far I have discovered nothing in their speech which can be said to be peculiarly Negritish."

Of the Negritos Dr. Jones says further:

"They bury in trees. They were warlike like the Hmong and have the same head shape. They move in small parties of three, four, five, up to a dozen or so. When compelled by necessity they make a small grass shelter, which they leave without a thought when they get up and walk off."

"They use the kind of bows and arrows used by the Hmong, but have no carabao, cane and fruits which they trade for. The men go in a bark cloth and the women in a short bark cloth skirt. They wear the body with a knife."

"They carry the tubes in their ears, a hole through the belly. They wear anklets and wristlets of cord. Hair is woolly and kinky and of a russet brown. They are shy and timid, given to giggling and nervous and have a little regard for the truth as the Hmong or Philippino."

GOV. DRAPER SOUNDS WARNING
AGAINST JAPANESE

Boston, April 29.—Gov. Eben S. Draper in a speech at the eighty-sixth annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers sounded a note of warning against the rivalry of Japan, yesterday. He said that Japan is now the great competitor of America in cotton manufactures, and that the rapidly decreasing exports of cotton goods to China indicated a very grave proposition for the American manufacturer. Because the cost of labor in Japan is one-fourth that in this country, he said that the island empire had been able to make great inroads on that branch of the commerce of the United States and was threatening to take away even more. He suggested no remedy, but urged that the manufacturers endeavor to win back the decreasing Pacific business.

ZINC ORE.

Senator Smoot Thinks There Will be a
Graduated Duty on It.

Washington, April 29.—The present prospects for the proposed amendment to the tariff bill will be postponed for several days, possibly till the beginning of next week.

The committee did not meet today, but Senator Smoot was in conference for a time with the zinc producers. Later he expressed the opinion that a graduated duty on zinc ore would be substituted for the present provision. He believed this scale would amount to about one-fourth of a cent a pound on 35 per cent of the zinc in the ore that is not in excess of 30 per cent. This rate to be gradually increased until the duty is made one cent a pound on 30 per cent of the zinc in the ore in cases in which the ore contains more than 30 per cent of zinc. It is probable that in addition a differential of one-third a cent over the duty on ore will be provided for spelter and of one-half of a cent on rolled and sheet zinc. The zinc men ask a much larger protection.

MANUFACTURERS OF BOGUS MONEY

Tom Crow and W. A. Wakefield
Arrested at Marysville, Cal.
On Charge.

WERE SHADOWED FOR WEEKS

Pockets Full of Counterfeit Coin—
One Dropped Bag With $700
In It Out of Window.

Marysville, Cal., April 28.—The police here have arrested Tom Crow, W. A. Wakefield and Fred Foster, members of an alleged band of counterfeiters, who for three months are asserted to have been manufacturing bogus money in a private residence in the fashionable district of this city, and a fourth man, whose name is not given. The men have been shadowed for weeks by officers, who arrested one last night on a minor charge, and found his pockets full of counterfeit coin. The officials then went to the Crow house, where they were met by Crow, who was armed with a revolver. He was compelled to drop the weapon and was placed under arrest, not before he had thrown out of the window a bag containing more than $700 in bad money. The residence was then searched and a counterfeit plant, the most extensive ever seen in this section, was found.

Wakefield was arrested without trouble, but Foster, who was found at his home, drew a knife on the officers before he was taken into custody. All three men are well known here, two of them having families.

The police assert that Crow, the alleged ringleader of the gang, made regular trips to Sacramento with bogus money. Some one in Sacramento put the coin into circulation.

The 320-pieces bear the dates of 1904 and 1905, and are excellent reproductions, except that they are light in weight. The 50-cent pieces are good counterfeits. The 10 and 25-pieces are short in weight, but the designs are perfect.

Reconstructs your whole body, makes rich red blood. Drives out impurities that have collected during the winter. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a family tonic. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.—Globe-Pitts Drug Co.

NEW SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Recognized by Washington Government and Congratulated by Taft.

Washington, April 28.—Mohammed V. the new sultan of Turkey, was today officially recognized as the reigning emperor of that empire by the Washington government. This action followed official announcement of the accession to the throne by the Turkish ambassador, a dispatch according recognition, signed by President Taft, was forwarded to Constantinople tonight. It follows:

"I offer to your imperial majesty my congratulations on your accession to the throne with such universal acclaim, voted by the people's representatives, and at a time so propitious to the high aspirations of the great nation over which you rule as the august head of a constitutional government. I assure you of the friendship of the government and people of the United States, who earnestly wish your majesty's happiness and for that of the people within your dominions, and I add my own wishes for your majesty's health and welfare."

HOMESTEAD LANDS.

Under the 320-Acre Bill Utah Has 7,044, 480 Acres.

Washington, April 28.—Approximately 167,476,800 acres of land in the various western states to which the 320-acre homestead bill applies have been designated by Secy. of the Interior Ballinger as coming within the provisions of the act. The area of land designated in each of the states is as follows:

Oregon, 7,021,100; Washington, 1,157,900; Utah, 7,044,480; Wyoming, 9,221,700; New Mexico, 14,234,500; Nevada, 49,512,000; Arizona, 26,557,500; Colorado, 20,169,000; and Montana, 15,641,600.

It was stated at the department today that approximately 40 per cent of the area designated except in Nevada, is now held by individuals through "some color of title," and it is believed that a larger percentage in Washington and Oregon are so held. Were all of the lands designated suitable for entry there would be about 65,000 homesteads. The lands in question are not susceptible of irrigation from any known source of water supply. The regulations under which entry for these lands are to be made recently were approved.

Diagrams showing the lands subject to entry will be furnished the local land offices as soon as possible and applications to enter will then be received.

A TRUE HEROINE.

Young Girl Saves Man from Death in Machinery, Then Faints.

Chicago, April 28.—A petition is going about today among 200 girls employed in a shirt factory for a Carnegie medal to reward Miss Margaret, 16, a 15-year-old girl, who risked her life to save William A. Street, who had been caught in some powerful machinery and was being twisted and torn while a group of stupefied fellow workmen stood about afraid to attempt his release. An arm and a hand were crushed between a belt and a wheel and the victim was being whirled around when the girl pushed the bystanders aside, seized Street by the belt, dragged him away, grabbed a stick and threw the belt from the main shaft. When the danger was over, she fainted.

BIG HATS SIGNS OF EVIL OF THE WORLD

New York, April 28.—In an address at a dinner given last night by the Calvary club, the Rev. Jenkins Lloyd Jones, a noted clergyman of Chicago, said:

"The big hats women wear are signs of the evil of the world. Right in Chicago, there is a store which without doubt caters to more sin than any other. In that store the reckless tastes of the wife, which defile the economics of the home, are satisfied, and the evil ambitions of the young girl to wear finery are indulged."

DYING HIGHWAYMAN'S LAST WORDS TO PRIEST

Logansport, Ind., April 28.—"You go to hell."

A dying highwayman, shot by a policeman who was himself fatally wounded by the thief's partner this morning, raised himself with one last supreme effort to shout this invitation at a priest bending over him with an appeal for confession. Then he fell back dead. The priest had tried in vain to get a statement of identity from him.

The highwayman, whose name is unknown, and Patrolman Joseph Kroeger were shot in a revolver duel late last night following a series of holdups by the duo (thief and his companion). The latter, who has been identified as Chas. Pierce or Seaton, Pa., was captured today. He is charged with having fired the shot that killed the policeman.

After the night performance of a circus, the three rode the crowd with revolvers in their hands. Two of the crooks established a station on the Third street bridge. They not only held up and robbed the passers-by but they forced their victims to line up against the rail to see their successors despoiled.

Patrolman Kroeger came running, and one of the thugs shot. The policeman fell but was able to draw his revolver and return the fire. One of the men went down. The other fled. The policeman lived only a few minutes.
