

OGDEN CITY NEWS.

A Salt Lake Man Arrested — Suit against the U. P. Board of Education.

(Right Column)

Lewis W. Fly, a contractor and builder and a member of the G. A. R., died at the Washoe hotel last night, of pneumonia.

Robert O. Hill, the 15-year-old lad who made an unsuccessful attempt to blow up the Union Pacific engine of the Bunting Brothers, was yesterday committed to the Reform school by Judge Minot, on complaint of his parents.

The Union Pacific passenger, due in Ogden at 10 o'clock this evening was delayed two hours on account of snow in the eastern mountains.

The board of directors of the chamber of commerce held an extended and important meeting yesterday afternoon and discussed many matters of great moment to the city. The session was private and the business transacted was kept secret.

Yesterday Emanuel Peterson of Five Points, while sitting late at Carson's Inn house, saw a concealed fracture of the neck through a block of ice falling on him. Dr. Joyce reduced the fracture and the injured man was removed to his home.

The first special orange train of the season left Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and should reach Ogden about noon Saturday. Several stagecoaches were sent south.

The Legislature of Salt Lake was arrested last night by Sergeant Hines on a magistrate's warrant from Sheriff McQueen of Salt Lake county. The young man was accompanied by a woman whom he claimed to be his wife, and the couple left the city last Friday evening, on which they arrived from the south, before Hines had marked him a man. Lashouse was convicted of some petty offenses in Salt Lake and fined $50. He appealed his case to the magistrate and gave a bond of $100. Without notifying his bondsmen he left for Denver, and upon their complaint was intercepted here. An officer arrived this morning from Salt Lake and returned with the prisoner on the Union Pacific.

The trial of the damages case of Abram J. Kister vs. Union Pacific, in which $10,000 were claimed for the death of George W. Kister, was ended, and after less than two hours the jury reported that it had been unable to arrive at a verdict. The jury was discharged and the case went over until next term.

The board of education met last night contrary to all expectation the old Grant Avenue subject being up, but was not settled any more satisfactorily. The contractors are at work and the building is fast nearing completion but the question of the location of the door with the master will soon all appearances be under consideration for sometime to come. The city's annual report was presented. There is now in the treasury over $1,000,000. Of this amount we will soon add the amount coming from territorial taxes and also several thousand dollars yet to come from the city assessors and collector.

STUDENTS' SOCIETY.

Interest Lectures and Other Exercises at the L. B. S. College.

The Students' Society held its regular session last night. The following interesting and instructive program was rendered:

Hesitation, Echo and the Fairy, Miss Bell Salmon. Lecture on Longfellow, Miss Maria James. Miss James said the poet was born in Portland, Maine, Feb. 27, 1807. Her father was a lawyer and United States senator. His mother, from whom most likely he inherited his poetic genius, was of a loving, poetical nature. He entered Bowdoin college at fourteen years of age, and graduated four years later. He held the professorship of modern languages both at Bowdoin and Harvard, for many years.

The lecturer also traced his rising genius and fame, and read selections from Evangeline. The Birds of Killingtonworth and others of his poems, showing that he was a keen observer of nature, and that he had a strong sympathy for his fellowmen, and that he possessed true political sense.

He died March 24th, 1882, but his fame lives after him.

Song by Thomas Woodbury.

Song by Thomas Woodbury, "Ezra Robinson." The lecture treated of its greatness, glory, and subsequent fall. Greece was at the peak of the world in painting, sculpture and nearly all the fine arts.

The history of Athens and Sparta is really the history of Greece. The one was democratic, abolishing all the fine arts; the other was military and aristocratic, with no love for poetry and the arts. The history of the Italian Renaissance and of Greece is the history of Athens. The lecturer also spoke of the bravery and courage of the Greeks in testing off the Persian hosts, and how very gradually he succeeded, how, through internal dissensions, their ultimate downfall came about.

Guitar and mandolin selection. Mezzo, Ethan Cannon and Walter McKay.

Song lecture on "Poisons and their Autistics."

Poisons, said the speaker, is anything which, when taken into the system, affects the tissues and vital organs.

Some poisons are slowly absorbed. We may take a small quantity of a poison and it does not produce any effect, but the poison continues to act upon the system producing symptoms.

The first thing to do in a case of poisoning is to rid the stomach or intestines of the poison. This can be done by emetics or by means of a stomach pump. In cases of arsenic or strichnine poisoning it is best to give an emetic, as for instance a teaspoonful of the juice of the lime or lemon. It is also good to give a pint of water to each patient, but the safer way is to find the receptacle from which it was taken. Number 1 of Volume 1 of the Deseret a monthly magazine published by the students of the Latter-day Saints' college has just reached this office. The paper is a neat and creditable edited little journal well filled with articles of an educational character, and should receive the hearty support of every student in the institution from which it is issued.
