

SOCIAL

One of the elaborate events of Wednesday was the tea given by Mrs. S. F. Panton. Both the broad veranda and the rooms were used, being effectively decorated, and punch being served outside. Red roses, sage, lilies, palms and vines were used with artistic taste, and the affair altogether was a most delightful one. Receiving with the hostess was Mrs. Heber M. Wells, and assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Frederick D. Bickford, Mrs. J. L. Franklin, Mrs. Lena Jennings, Mrs. E. A. Alpin and Mrs. Orson Howard. Mrs. Alpin served punch, and Miss Louise Jennings assisted in the dining-room. Little Marion Jennings met the guests at the door.

Miss Althea Wheeler was hostess at one of the prettiest teas of Wednesday. Her function was in honor of Mrs. Alice P. Norton of Chicago, and about 100 guests enjoyed the afternoon. The rooms were brilliant with June roses in different hues, and lavishly decorated. Receiving with Miss Wheeler and Mrs. Norton were Miss Wevlin of Chicago and Miss Georgia Wheeler. Mrs. W. H. Farnsworth presided in the dining room and was assisted by Mrs. Tempest, Mrs. Scofield, Mrs. Croxall and Miss Youngberg.

A thoroughly delightful affair was the card party Wednesday at which Mrs. Claude Gates, Mrs. Nebeker and Mrs. Raymond entertained. It might properly be called a roving party, so lavishly were the beautiful June blooms used throughout. Scores and tallies carried out the idea, being done in hand painted designs of roses. Prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. Thomas Currie and Mrs. Lawrence Young. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. George H. Taylor, Miss Annie Taylor, Mrs. George H. Young, Miss Ella Harrison and Miss La Von Raymond.

The ladies of St. Mark's Guild will hold a straw hat sale next Tuesday from 7 to 10 o'clock p. m.

On Tuesday Miss Anna McCormick entertained a number of friends at luncheon at the Country club in honor of Miss Inez Trent of California. Her guests were Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Miss Katherine Williams, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Miller, Miss Margie Miller, Miss Katherine Geddes, Miss Addie Zane, Miss Stella Salisbury and Miss Dorothy Kinney.

Mrs. Alexander Dowd of Sunnyside was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday. Her guests being the members of her sewing club. The decorations were chiefly in flags, carrying out the idea of the day, the parlor having flags draped in artistic designs, and flowers in the national colors. While the dining room was done in the same hues, the table being decorated with red, white and blue flowers, with tiny flags at each place and many details of the menu carrying out the idea.

Miss Bob Ellerbeck entertained in honor of Miss Helen Lee on Wednesday, about a dozen of her girl friends being invited to meet her, and spending a delightful afternoon.

Thursday was the birthday anniversary of Miss Jean Spencer, and a number of her friends surprised her by gathering unexpectantly at her home in the evening, the impromptu hostess being thoroughly surprised. The rooms were bright with the floral offerings of friends, and a delightful time was spent.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Stiehl entertained a few friends at dinner on Monday in honor of Miss Esther Allen, who left this week for Europe.

Miss Edith Sherman was hostess at an informal afternoon affair on Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Longmaid of Montana.

Mrs. Harold Russell and Mrs. Frank Jennings were guests of honor at a delightful luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. Le Grande Young, and also at a similar event today at which Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett was hostess, both affairs being exceedingly pretty and enjoyable. Tonight Mrs. W. W. Ritter entertains in their honor, and on Monday Mrs. William Reid will give a luncheon.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Perry S. Heath gave a dinner, the affair being an extremely pretty one. The table was beautiful in its decorations.

Tired babies become rested babies when fed on Mellin's Food. Mellin's Food nourishes.

You will be glad that you sent for a sample of Mellin's Food when you see how eagerly baby takes it.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

of pink and red roses, and these flowers were also used throughout the house. The guests were: Susan and Mr. Thomas Kearse, Mr. and Mrs. David Keith, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Holman and Mr. and Mrs. W. Mont Perry.

Miss Carrie Sappington was hostess at a rosebud breakfast on Wednesday, given in honor of Miss Nellie Pinkerton, whose marriage takes place in the near future. Rosebuds, used with tiny cupid, were the decorations, which were most artistic. The other guests were: Miss Creta Pinkerton, Miss Agatha Barker, Miss Gertrude Mayer, Miss Leigh Block and Miss Cassidy.

A delightful event of the week was the card party given by Mrs. E. E. Calvin. No prettier decorations were seen in the week than those carried out in the several rooms. White, pink and red roses being used with smilax, the chandeliers being twined with them and the windows, mantels, sideboard and stands being filled. The house was such, and the prizes were won by Mrs. D. J. Malone of Pocatello, and Mrs. Driscoll.

On Thursday Mrs. Nebeker, Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Raymond were hostesses at a second card party given at the home of their mother, Mrs. H. S. Young. The decorations were the same as before, and prizes were won by Mrs. H. S. Beattie and Mrs. Clarence M. Cannon.

Flinch was the amusement at the afternoon party given by Mrs. Samuel Paul and Miss Paul on Thursday, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were bright with June flowers, and prizes were awarded Mrs. Lyons and Miss Paul.

On Thursday and last evenings Mr. and Mrs. Dorn entertained at cards, a large number being present at each event. The game was hearts, and roses were used throughout in the decorations.

Next Monday the large reception will be given at the Fort by Capt. and Mrs. Woodward in honor of the new officers.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson has issued invitations for a tea to be given next Wednesday.

Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed will entertain at cards on the afternoon of June 23.

Miss Pearl Weiler has issued invitations for a Kensington next Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss May Billings.

Miss Gertrude Mayer will entertain the members of Miss Nellie Pinkerton's bridal party next Monday evening at her home.

WEDDING BELLS

One of the most charming events of the season was the wedding of Miss Margaret Robertson and Dr. A. A. Kerr, on Thursday night. The ceremony was performed at the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock. Rev. William Paden officiating, and beautiful music being furnished by a trio, consisting of Mr. J. A. Wells, Mr. Arthur Shepherd and Claude Nettleton, all musical friends of the bride, Mrs. Wetzel singing the entire "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, with organ accompaniment by Mr. Shepherd, and violin obligato by Mr. Nettleton. The church literally bloomed with flowers, the platform being a veritable garden of various, colorful plants, vines and flowering plants, while in front of the pulpit stood a great vase of white roses, and white flowers entwined the altar. The bride procession was on the old English order, the minister coming first, followed by the little ring bearer, Agnes Caffey. Next came the groom, followed by his best man, Dr. Harry Davis, and after him two little girls, Winifred Brice and Annie Bryant, carrying baskets of pink and white roses. The maid of honor, Miss Olive Gray, came next, and after her the bride, walking alone, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, came behind her. The bride's gown was an exquisite creation of white chiffon over tulle, the bodice being elaborately shirred, and trimmed with lace and hands of white velvet. Rich lace finished the skirt, and a long veil of tulle and shirred tulle, of bride's roses completed the toilet. Miss Gray, the maid of honor, wore a gown of white organdie with lace fleche and trimmings, and a large picture hat of white, trimmed in white plumes, while a large ostrich feather fan, a gift of the bride, completed the costume. The little ring and flower girls were all in dainty white and made a pretty picture. Dr. Niles, Critchlow, Helton and Charles Van Dyke were the ushers. At the close of the service Mr. Shepherd played the Mendelssohn wedding march, and following the service a reception was held in the church parlors, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion in palms, smilax, and pink and white roses, the punch and refreshment tables being especially effective. Later the bridal couple left for a trip to Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis, after which they will return here to reside.

The marriage of Miss Lena Crona and Benjamin F. Trapp took place on Tuesday, the ceremony being performed in the afternoon at the First church, Rev. D. M. Helmick performing the ceremony. Only the family and intimate friends were present, and the wedding party left immediately afterward for the Utah reservation, where Mr. Trapp is stationed for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lowther announced the engagement of their daughter, Edith M., to Elliott E. Kimball. The wedding will take place June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. White have announced the engagement of their daughter, Cora Ethel, to Isaac M. Parry of Cedar City. The marriage will take place soon.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Littley and Mr. John Danglefield took place Thursday night, Bishop B. M. T. Seddon of the Fifth ward officiating. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, between 50 and 60 friends of the happy couple being present. The evening was most pleasantly spent and the contracting parties were showered with good wishes and congratulations. They were also the recipients of many beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Danglefield will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Billings announced the engagement of their daughter, May, to B. M. White. The marriage will take place Tuesday, July 5.

The wedding of Miss Grace Holmes and Dr. W. W. Anness was one of the most elaborate bridal events of the week, the ceremony being performed at the First M. E. church on Wednesday night, with Rev. Benjamin Young officiating, and a large reception following at the bride's home. The church was most beautifully decorated, and the marriage ceremony was elaborately carried out. The ushers were Dr. Charles Pank, Claire Rivera, William Dred and V. P. Hickey. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Mrs. Ruth Robinson and Lorraine Brown, in dainty gowns of white organdie. Next came the bride, Miss Jessie Williamson, and Miss Ethel Lane, groomed in white organdie over tulle and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Virgil P. Hickey, the matron of honor, followed. Her gown was of white organdie over tulle, and her bouquet white carnations tied with green tulle. The bridesmaids wore a broad silk, made on trains over tulle, trimmed with applique. A long veil of tulle, fastened to the head with a sunburst of pearls, the gift of the groom, and a shower bouquet of bride's roses, completed the costume.

The strains of the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" accompanied the entrance of the party, and Mendelssohn's march the close of the service. Prof. Anderson playing. At the home the decorations were elaborate and beautiful, and friends of the bride couple assisted in making the affair delightful. The bride and groom left on Thursday for Pocatello, where they will reside.

A pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Winnie Saville and Sylvester G. Cannon, the reception being held at the bride's home, following and her party received. With Mrs. Caine were Mrs. Frank W. Jennings and Miss Blanche Kimball. Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr and Mrs. David B. Hemstead served punch in the library. Mrs. James E. Jennings poured coffee in the diningroom and Miss Hanauer served ice. Assisting in serving were Misses Jennings, Young and Miss Allie Miller. An orchestra was stationed on the veranda, furnishing delightful music.

Mrs. James E. Jennings was hostess at one of the pretty teas of the week given in honor of Mrs. Leroy Dinwoody home on East Temple street was bright with a profusion of June roses and vines, the hall being in green with sprays of syringa, the reception room in white and green with roses mingling with asparagus-plumosa, and the drawingroom in green, white and red. The diningroom was in pink, white and green, sprays of syringa and bowls of pink roses forming a background for the table which was a veritable picture, with a centerpiece of pink roses surrounded with ferns and pink sweet peas and crystal candlesticks. The table was spread with white lace over pink silk, and was altogether effective. The lights throughout were shaded in white and green, and the porch was made cozy with rugs and screens. A stringed orchestra discoursed sweet music during the afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Jennings in entertaining her guests were Mrs. Walter Jennings, Mrs. Kenneth Chamberlain Kerr, Mrs. Frank W. Jennings, Mrs. Joseph T. Caine, Mrs. Priscilla Jennings served coffee. Mrs. Sophia Sharp presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. W. W. Ritter, assisted by the Misses Elsie and Maud Ritter, Miss Annette Ferguson, Miss Helen Jennings and

Dr. and Mrs. J. Beattie have returned from a two months' trip through California.

Mrs. T. Lane and daughter, the Misses Ethel and Vera, leave on Saturday next for a six weeks' visit in St. Louis and eastern cities.

Mrs. Clint B. Leach and Miss Margaret Pointer left yesterday for a visit with their mother at Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chambers Dick and Cora Brown left this week for a two months' camping trip in the Uintah reservation.

Mrs. M. F. Cummings and children expect to leave for the east next week to be away all summer.

Miss Ethel Harris of St. Louis, has arrived in the city and will be the guest for several weeks of Miss Alice Needham.

The Misses Estel and Nellie Powers have gone east to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Hanak, who have many friends here, arrived yesterday afternoon from their home in Omaha and will be the guests for some time of Mrs. Emma Hanak, 527 First street.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash has gone to Wilmington, Del., to spend the summer.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

and her party received. With Mrs. Caine were Mrs. Frank W. Jennings and Miss Blanche Kimball. Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr and Mrs. David B. Hemstead served punch in the library. Mrs. James E. Jennings poured coffee in the diningroom and Miss Hanauer served ice. Assisting in serving were Misses Jennings, Young and Miss Allie Miller. An orchestra was stationed on the veranda, furnishing delightful music.

Mrs. James E. Jennings was hostess at one of the pretty teas of the week given in honor of Mrs. Leroy Dinwoody home on East Temple street was bright with a profusion of June roses and vines, the hall being in green with sprays of syringa, the reception room in white and green with roses mingling with asparagus-plumosa, and the drawingroom in green, white and red. The diningroom was in pink, white and green, sprays of syringa and bowls of pink roses forming a background for the table which was a veritable picture, with a centerpiece of pink roses surrounded with ferns and pink sweet peas and crystal candlesticks. The table was spread with white lace over pink silk, and was altogether effective. The lights throughout were shaded in white and green, and the porch was made cozy with rugs and screens. A stringed orchestra discoursed sweet music during the afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Jennings in entertaining her guests were Mrs. Walter Jennings, Mrs. Kenneth Chamberlain Kerr, Mrs. Frank W. Jennings, Mrs. Joseph T. Caine, Mrs. Priscilla Jennings served coffee. Mrs. Sophia Sharp presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. W. W. Ritter, assisted by the Misses Elsie and Maud Ritter, Miss Annette Ferguson, Miss Helen Jennings and

Dr. and Mrs. J. Beattie have returned from a two months' trip through California.

Mrs. T. Lane and daughter, the Misses Ethel and Vera, leave on Saturday next for a six weeks' visit in St. Louis and eastern cities.

Mrs. Clint B. Leach and Miss Margaret Pointer left yesterday for a visit with their mother at Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chambers Dick and Cora Brown left this week for a two months' camping trip in the Uintah reservation.

Mrs. M. F. Cummings and children expect to leave for the east next week to be away all summer.

Miss Ethel Harris of St. Louis, has arrived in the city and will be the guest for several weeks of Miss Alice Needham.

The Misses Estel and Nellie Powers have gone east to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Hanak, who have many friends here, arrived yesterday afternoon from their home in Omaha and will be the guests for some time of Mrs. Emma Hanak, 527 First street.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash has gone to Wilmington, Del., to spend the summer.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings, and carried roses. The bride's train was of white and costly, and a number of the girl friends of the bride and groom assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will be at home after July 15 at 745 south Second East St.

John Farrington's Stable, for stylish light livery, carriages, boarding. Phone 22

SUMMER SCHOOL.

June 20 to July 22. Agricultural College, Logan Utah.

Another pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Margaret McKee, daughter of Mrs. Esther McKee, and Jesse Fox Cannon, son of Pres. Angus and Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. The ceremony being performed at the Temple at noon by the groom's father, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride. The parlor in which the bride party received was done in green and white, orange blossoms and white roses being used with palms and ferns. A corner in the room was draped with a bower for the bride couple, sprays of orange blossoms covering the curtains and potted plants and palms formed a background. The walls of the room are tapestried in green, and against these, the white roses and blossoms showed with charming effect. The diningroom was in pink and green, the table having streamers of pink ribbon brought from the chandelier to the four corners, and a centerpiece of pink carnations, while above the table were the same flowers. The three other rooms were in yellow, red and pink roses, respectively, and on the porch outside were Japanese lanterns and flags, the latter forming a pretty corner in which punch was served. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie with lace trimmings,