Architect W. J. Brinkman Completes Work of Altar for Lady of Sorrows Church.

SPENT SUMMER IN SALT LAKE

While Here He Studied Local Buildings and Gave High Praise to Those of Pioneer Era.

William J. Brinkman of Chicago, a well known architect, who spent several weeks of the past summer in Salt Lake, and who spoke very highly of the architecture of the Salt Lake Temple while here, declaring it to be a more successful piece of work than 90 per cent of the great structures of today, has just completed a Chicago work which brings him marked distinction and praise. It is the altar and interior of "Our Lady of Sorrows Church," and in speaking of it the New World, a Catholic periodical, says that "The high altar is one of the grandest works of art in the city of Chicago. It is of the purest Carrara marble and was made entirely in Italy in the world famous works of Carrara. The whole church interior is noble in its outlines and was planned and completed in Roman Renaissance style by Architect W. J. Brinkman. Beyond question the conception of the interior of this church is a remarkable piece of modern architecture, grand and inspiring. The impression is profoundly religious in its effect. Both in the history of architecture and in the style of its ornament it is at once simple, delicate and sublime, and is true to the principles of the classic renaissance at its best period."

ARCHITECTURE NEGLECTED.

"It is a matter of supreme regret," continues the editor of the magazine, in another paragraph, "that we Americans devote so little thought to architecture as an art, and exhibit such a lack of interest in the great architects of our country. In no art is there as close connection between our delinquency in the work and our admiration of the artist's mind as in architecture, and we rarely inquire for an architect's name, or seek information concerning his personality or genius."

THE INTERIOR OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

is a remarkable testimonial to the inspiration, taste and skill of the architect, and we venture to predict that it will be noted in the history of the world's architecture as one of the rare productions on the American continent, when more pretentious and expensive structures have been forgotten."

PRAISE FOR TEMPLE.

Mr. Brinkman spent the summer in Salt Lake resting from the work of superintending the construction of this building, and planning its interior design. He spent much time studying the Salt Lake architecture, and for that portion of it which was built by the early settlers—the tabernacle, temple and Salt Lake Theater, his praise outburst that for the most modern attempts. The temple, he declared, has no building in the world, designed at the time that it was, which in any way equals it for purity of design, strength of outline, and correctness of the principles upon which it was built.

BOY ABUSED MOTHER

Harry Hanson Sent to Reform School—Sold Newspapers and Eloped With Girl.

Harry Hanson, a boy about 16 years of age, was today committed to the state industrial school by Judge Gowans. Though young in years, the lad has had an experience that would be unlooked for in another offender of twice the age. A few months ago he eloped to Los Angeles with 14-year-old Mabel Griffith; was there arrested and sentenced to the reform school. He was finally paroled under promise that he would keep away from the girl, and later he was permitted to return to his mother in Salt Lake.

Young Hanson found a news stand at the corner of Main and First South streets, and was in a position to do well financially. He was the only child of his mother, and she looked to him for support. Lately he has been accused of meeting the girl in clandestine and also of writing letters to her, in answer to missives written by the girl to him. Letters from both are in possession of the court.

He says Miss Hills is Rochester's pride, and hopes that all Rochester, or Monroe county people now in Salt Lake street, so far, she is supporting her aged parents back in York state, and is spoken of as a very worthy young woman."

It was reported to the police this morning that a quantity of carpenter tools were stolen from the residence of W. S. Burton, 118 south Second West street, last night. The police are working on the case and have hopes of landing the thieves in jail.

RECRUITS COMING IN.

Recruits for the regular army are now being received in this city at the rate of one a day. The old soldiers are being sent to the cavalry regiments, which are now about full, with 5 officers and men to a troop, on being called. The "regulars" are being distributed among the infantry regiments, with artillery next, and then the engineers and signal corps in their order. No new recruits are being taken for foreign service at present.

He advises her to do the right thing at all times, saying that he will do likewise, and he promises that when both shall have attained a lawful age their lives will be united.

ACCOUNTING ASKED FOR

Administrator for Late Wm. C. Staines Institutes Suit Against Executors Of Burton Estate.

Orrin P. Miller, administrator of the estate of William C. Staines, deceased, filed suit today in the district court against the executors of the will of Robert T. Burton, for an accounting of the said estate of William C. Staines from April, 1901, to date.

The complaint sets forth that William C. Staines died Aug. 3, 1881, and that Robert T. Burton and James T. Little were subsequently appointed executors. Mr. Little died Feb. 28, 1898, leaving Robert T. Burton as the sole executor. The latter acting at the time of his death, Nov. 11, 1907. It is alleged that since April 1, 1901, there had been no accounting, the last being a small balance in the hands of the executor, together with personal property.

Capt Meyer Tells Why Contract for Feeding Soldiers Went to Jap.

In regard to the objections made by the labor unions because, Capt. Meyer of the Fourteenth cavalry, the recruit officer of the regular army in this city, gave the contract for feeding recruits to a Japanese restaurant, the captain said this morning, that he had no choice but to do so, as required by the regulations, and received but two bids, one from the Pearl restaurant on east Second South street, and one from the Japanese restaurant on west Brigham street. So far, he was restricted to the choice between the two. The fare given the men by the Pearl restaurant, had long been the subject of complaint from the men. And besides, the bid of the Jap was lower. Capt. Meyer gave the situation a careful investigation, and found that he could get better food for less money at the Japanese restaurant. He did not get the contract, and everything has been satisfactory, except to certain labor union leaders who are against anything and everything Japanese. The prejudice against the Jap, in this instance, is entirely unfounded, as he has been a respectable resident of Salt Lake City for 10 years, and is well and favorably known here.

GOVERNOR DETAILS RESULTS OF TOUR

Made Slumming Trip Through Saloons in Company With Two Officers.

STARTLING CONDITIONS EXIST

Men and Women Mingle Indiscriminately in Low Dives—American Waitresses in Foul Greek Resort.

At a meeting of the juvenile court commission, held yesterday in the office of Governor Cutler, the executive submitted in writing the results of personal observations on his part relative to the manner in which saloons, resorts and some roominghouses are conducted in this city. Conditions were found to be decidedly inimical to the welfare of young people, male and female, and strong recommendations were made by the governor for remedial measures to be adopted without delay. The subject was discussed at length by members of the commission.

GOVERNOR'S REPORT.

Following is the report as read at the meeting: "On the evening of Saturday, Feb. 22, in company with the secretary of the state juvenile court commission and the chief probation officer of Salt Lake county, I made the rounds of a number of the saloons and poolrooms of Salt Lake City, so as to study at first hand the situation as it affects the young people of our city. It was my first visit to these places, and the revelation as to conditions existing there was so startling that I consider it well to call your attention to these conditions."

"I was particularly struck with the number of young men under 25 years of age frequenting saloons and poolrooms. There were so many of them in the places we visited that I shall not attempt to give an estimate as to the number. In the poolrooms, where these poolrooms are conducted in connection with a bar, or within so easy access of one that drinking is an almost inevitable incident, and, doubtless, the further step is made easy, to gambling and other forms of vice."

"But even this was not the worst feature. In one or two of the saloons, sitting at card tables and playing, were boys a little under 18 years of age. Surrounding them were a number of human wrecks, men who are hopeless victims of vice and competent teachers of crime. The ultimate fate of boys of tender age who come into such association cannot be overestimated. Still younger boys were found on the streets in the business districts; and in a number of instances they manifested a hardness and exaggeration of their ages that was remarkable in boys so young. It would indicate that their parents were at least passively in league with their delinquency, and that they were young boys were found in saloons, and still younger ones on the streets, as late as 11 p. m. And it developed that some of these boys were of Christian parentage."

AMERICAN GIRL WAITERS.

"A still worse feature was found in a Greek resort on west Second South. About a score of tables were surrounded by men in various stages of intoxication, who were drinking and playing cards. Profane, blasphemous and obscene language was being freely used. The room was dim with smoke, and the air was thick with the fumes of beer and whisky. And here, waiting on these men and hearing their foul language, were two American girls, who said she was 17, while the other, it appeared to me, could not have been more than 14 years of age. The sister of the younger, a girl about 16 or 17 years old, was also there, her sister explaining that she had come to accompany her home. We made our visit to this place about 10 p. m. If we had not immediately seen the three girls home, I do not know how much longer they would have remained."

"These girls were brought into this condition by an advertisement in the newspapers, promising good pay for light work. One of them informed us that she was getting $7 a week, and that her employment there was with her mother's consent. Whether or not the mother was aware of the character of the place I do not know. But it would not take long for such companionship to work the complete destruction of any young girl. I am informed that there are in the city other similar places, where young girls are employed in the same manner, and where worse evils prevail than appear on the surface."

"In two saloons women were found as late as 11 p. m. in one case in a private booth connected with a public saloon. One young woman appeared to be under the influence of liquor, and surrounded as she was, by a crowd of young men who were drinking, you can readily understand how demoralizing the conditions. In one notorious roominghouse conditions were found so filthy that details to you. I call these conditions to your attention for the reason that you are probably unaware of some of these evils, and I think it is our duty to deal in the way of helping to correct them."

SOMETHING SHOULD BE DONE.

"If you think the situation can be partly met by men in various districts being asked to do special volunteer probation work, both in behalf of boys and girls of juvenile court age and in behalf of young people who are older, but may be required to deal with the overworked condition of the present officers of the Salt Lake juvenile court, then, if the law can be enforced in such a way as to punish severely men who employ young girls in saloons, a great deal can be done to correct these evils."

"I thank you in advance for such attention as you may be able to give this vital matter, and stand pledged and ready to render such assistance as may be in my power."

TO NOTIFY RESORT.

Upon the reading of the governor's communication, the matter was discussed briefly and it was unanimously voted that action should be taken at once to remedy the evil. As a result the proprietors of the offending resorts will be notified at once that they must not permit boys and girls to patronize the place, and vigorous steps will be taken to see that the order is enforced."

REMARKABLE STATEMENTS.

Correspondent is Moved to Write Owing to Tribune's Ignorance.

A communication received this morning from a local business man addressed to the editor regarding the smelter fumes is herewith reproduced without comment:

"In the Wednesday edition of the Tribune, some remarkable statements are made as to a so-called discovery by the smelting company, first, that sulphuric acid has been a bother all over the country, and that it is purely sulphuric acid. They propose to catch the sulphuric acid (when there is none to catch) by means of zinc oxide."

"The Evening Telegram of the same date, dwells at length on 'Money being wrung from smelters,' 'merchants boycotting the farmers,' etc., etc., not mentioning, however, that it is purely motives of self, that actuate the merchants."

REPORT ON EXPLOSION

Governor Cutler Receives Communication On Black Dragon Mine.

Gov. Cutler received today from State Coal Mine Inspector J. E. Pettit, a report of an investigation of the explosion in the Black Dragon mine, by which it is supposed two Greeks lost their lives. The names of the missing men are William K. and George G. Preston, and the accident occurred Feb. 12 of this year.

The mine is owned by the Giron Asphalium company, and is located at Dragon, Utah. Following the explosion, the loose Gironers were burned fiercely for 10 days, closing up all approaches to the men. Inspector Pettit states that it will be at least two months before the true cause of the accident will be known, as the lower levels and tunnels were so wrecked and it is impossible to reach the inside workings. The investigation was held at Dragon Feb. 15 and 17, and the report to Gov. Cutler covers 60 type written pages. The inquiry was conducted by T. W. O'Donnell, attorney for Utah county, and the testimony was reported by W. H. Haun, official stenographer. About a dozen witnesses in all were examined.

WILL PLEAD SATURDAY.

Messenger Boys Who Robbed Greek Before Judge Diehl.

John Gillan and Charles Renick, the two messenger boys arrested on the charge of robbing a Greek named Tom Pellas of his money, pleaded guilty before Judge Diehl's court. They took until Saturday morning to plead and in default of $200 bail were committed to the custody of the sheriff.

This afternoon, Judge Diehl has the highest docket of the month, there being 58 cases set for hearing.

Horrors of Fat Girls Coming Out

Coming out is the first great event of a girl's life. She thinks and dreams about it from the hour she is born, and what it means. It is to accompany a friend to a social hour. Then how terrible must be the anticipations of the over-fat young maid when she realizes her proportions as far from conforming to the standards of fascination set by the more shapely girls with whom she is about to compete. Hence, ensues a desperate effort to get rid of rigid dieting, curtailment of fudge and chocolate delights, strenuous exercising at the risk of developing a square-set and an outline of fire, to take off the excess of manly fat. Or else the distracted debutante flies for succor to the "patent" and "secret" advertised remedies.

The result is very frequently that the so-called remedies and starvation diet ruin her stomach, while the exercise makes her coarse and boyish, and she is accompanied by a serious physical danger. A far better plan, one which other fat folks by the way, whether male or female, old or young, may adopt with equal benefit, is to go to the drugstore, get these three simple remedies, viz., 1/2 oz. Marmola, 1/2 oz. Fluid Extract cascara Aromatic, and 1/2 oz. Syrup Simpkins, mix them together and take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

With the aid of this harmless remedy, one can lose 25 pounds or as little as one pleases, quickly and safely. It works naturally, does not cause wrinkles and reduces the body symmetrically. Furthermore, it depends on neither exercising nor diet to help it do the work, and it will not distress the stomach. On the contrary, it is beneficial to the system, clearing the blood and clearing the complexion. Finally it saves a girl's money, for any druggist will fill this receipt for a small sum.

METEORIC CAREER OF GLACIA CALLA

before the guests went away the young hostess gave an exhibition cake walk. The dinner was the end of her social career, but she continued to drive the horses and to receive marked attention from a host of admirers. Among her acquaintances at this period was the late Shah of Persia, who was then on his last visit to Paris. The grand vizier gave her splendid diamonds and pearls.

It was while in Paris also that she met Roy. The acquaintance was renewed when they met again in America, and the marriage at Boston followed.

HOW MURDER LEAKED OUT.

It appears from the story told by Mrs. Roy, in accusing her husband of killing her brother, that her mother, Mrs. Kelly, found out the secret on the day Carkins was buried. She said the mother had gathered up the clothing which Carkins wore when he was killed and found bullet holes in the back of the coat.

"When she found those bullet holes and the bloodstains," said Mrs. Roy, "she rushed into the room where Paul was sitting and thrust the bloodstained clothing in his face, saying: 'Oh, you coward,' she cried, 'you shot my boy in the back and you have killed him!'"

"My husband jumped up and caught her by the hand, I shot Sonny, he said. 'He had his own pistol out and was shooting at me. I had to shoot to save my own life.'"

NO WARRANT ISSUED.

New York Nor Federal Authorities Have Asked for Roy's Arrest.

Paris, Feb. 27.—No steps have yet been taken to arrest Paul Roy, who is charged by his American wife, known as Glacia Calla, with the murder of her brother, George A. Carkins, at Newington, N. H., on Jan. 2. The report current yesterday that a warrant had been received in Paris for the arrest of Roy was incorrect. Neither through the state department at Washington nor the New York police have the French authorities been notified of the commission of this alleged crime. M. Hamard, chief of the surety department, says that when the papers arrive here, a French magistrate will make an investigation, the result of which will determine the subsequent proceedings under the French law.

VISIT JUVENILE COURT.

Visitors at the juvenile court today were Miss C. M. Macomber, assistant probation officer of Minneapolis, and Miss C. M. Crosby, head resident of the Social Settlement Union House, of the same city. Both have been sojourning for a time on the Pacific, and the Forest Dale dramatic association, in behalf of the young subjects that both ladies are deeply interested in at the home city, editors of Italian newspapers in which complimentary notices were before the court today and the kindly manner in which the youthful offenders were treated by Judge Gowans and the attorneys of the court seemed to be appreciated by the visitors.

LATE LOCALS.

Bank Clearings.—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $7,150,021, as against $768,557.89 for the same day last year.

Forest Dale Ward.—The Drama "Down in Dixie" will be presented by the Forest Dale dramatic association Friday evening, Feb. 28, in the Forest Dale amusement hall, beginning at 8:15.

Gen. Mgr. Seal Recovers.—General Manager J. Seal of the International Harvester company has sufficiently recovered from the effects of an operation to leave the hospital and return once more to his business duties.

It is scheduled that the local Illinois Central offices in this city are rather pleased at the idea of the Central being merged into the Harmin system, and predict that this action will send a lot of the Illinois Central traffic for the coast over the Union Pacific, instead of over the Chicago & Northwestern, and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul roads between Chicago and the Missouri river.

ANARCHIST PLOT TO KILL PRIEST

Chicago, Feb. 27.—A plot to murder a Chicago priest at the altar of his church—just as Father Leo Heinrichs of Denver, was slain—was hatched in Chicago and frustrated almost by chance, according to the Rev. Father E. M. Dunne, chancellor of the archdiocese.

This information was given out by Father Dunne yesterday to prove further his contention that the murder in St. Elizabeth's church in Denver was planned by anarchistic anti-clericals in Chicago. The murder in Denver was similar in every respect to the one planned several months previous in which the Rev. Father Pasquale Renuzzo, pastor of St. Roch's church at Chicago Heights, was to be the victim. Father Dunne will hold a conference today with Chief of Police Shippy asking for certain arrests, and another with United States Dist. Atty. Sims and Col. James E. Stuart, chief of postoffice inspectors, looking towards the prosecution of the conspiracy. Newspapers in which complimentary notices are made, charges of criminal libel may also be made.

LETTER FROM ITALIAN.

Father Renuzzo was for a time Chancellor Dunne's assistant at the Guardian Angel (Italian) church on Forsyth street.

The first information of the planned Chicago assassination was given Father Renuzzo in a letter from an Italian in Chicago Heights. The name of the man is held a secret by Father Dunne, who claims that should their informant be known he would be found dead with a dozen knives in him before 24 hours had passed.

The information secured from the writer of the letter as to how the priest was to be killed was given to Lee H. Hook, mayor of Chicago Heights, and the police were notified. The men picked for the assassination in some manner got wind of the prospective arrest and disappeared.

Still feeling that he might come to the pastor in the church, two days later Mayor Hook issued a permit for Father Renuzzo to carry a revolver.

INTENDED TO KILL BABY JOHN MARTIN

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 27.—"I am firmly convinced that Mrs. Isabella Martin had planned to take the life of 'Baby John' as soon as she had used him as her tool to carry out a carnival of crime, mapped out in her brain, in my opinion one of the best developed minds in this country."

So stated Dist. Atty. Hall, of Trinity county, this morning.

Baby John Martin is in his charge, and will remain so until an indictment has been found against Mrs. Martin by the Alameda county grand jury.

WOULD KILL JUDGE WASTE.

Detectives armed with warrants will go to Weaverly the last of the week. The dynamite found yesterday was intended by Mrs. Martin to blow up the home of Superior Court Judge Waste. She felt that he had advised against her in her insurance suit and had him marked for a victim. Judge Waste himself admitted today by word of his emphysema, and died. He had a narrow escape from Judge Ogden's experience.

A technical question has arisen here as to whether any of the judges of the superior court in Oakland could try a case against Mrs. Martin for dynamiting Judge Ogden's home because the bar association had offered a reward for the person who dynamited the Ogden home. The question is being considered by Dist. Atty. Brown.
