This appears to us unnecessary harshness, and under the circumstances extreme cruelty. What is the object in view? Is it to extort information that could not be obtained otherwise than by the terrors of a prison? Are the same tactics to be used as in the case of Dr. Clinton? THE UTAH COMMISSIONERS.

THE Utah Commissioners having accomplished the work required of them by law for the present season are about to leave for the East. Col. Godfrey started two or three days ago and Judge Carleton and Senator Paddock went away this morning, and by Monday Governor Ramsay, and Col. Pettigrew will have turned their backs on the went to the work-house to-day for land of the setting sun. These gentiemen have had a somewhat difficult and delicate task to perform. It was scarcely to be expected that they would discharge the duties imposed upon them by the ninth section of the Edmunds Act with-out censure from one party or another. The Cabinet meeting to-day was quite brief and unimportant. The contents of the several annual re-ports of the executive officers were discussed, each officer giving an idea of what his reports showed. The feasibility of including certain re-commendations in the President's message was also referred to. One member said, "We discussed neither neither and the several annual re-the several annual re-discussed, each officer giving an idea of what his reports showed.
