

MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS

OVERLAND MINE
GOES FOR $37,500

Deuman Blanchard of Boston Has Purchased Property From Receiver E. W. Clark.

SALE MADE BY ORDER OF COURT

Mine Is Equipped With Pine Milling
Plant—in Camp Floyd Mining District.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, July 13.—A receiver's certificate, showing a sale of the Sundown, the Bethel and other mining properties in Camp Floyd district, together with mining equipments and Tooele City real estate, by E. W. Clark, receiver, to Deuman Blanchard of Boston, for $37,500, has been filed with the county recorder.

The sale was made under an order of sale of the third district court in the suit of Mercantile Trust company vs Overland Mining company et al. The property is equipped with a fine milling plant and is located near Sundown.

A lease has been entered into between the Tidal Wave Mining company of Provo and Silber Lloyd and Oscar V. Nell of Salt Lake City, under which the parties of the second part are leased the large amount of land on the property of the mining company for the purpose of extracting and shipping clay therefrom, for which the lessees are to pay the mining company 35 cents a ton. The clay is valuable for fire brick, and also contains some aluminum. It will be shipped to Salt Lake City.

Shareholders Met Yesterday and Chose Officers for ensuing Year.	100	100

The shareholders of the Bingham West Dip Tunnel company held their annual meeting yesterday, and elected a new board of directors, consisting of the following: Francis G. Lyman, F. M. Lyman, Jr., George E. Pratt, F. M. Bishop and Hugh S. Clark.

The secretary presented his financial report, covering the past year, showing the company to be in good condition, the inventory of equipment on hand, that official finds that there are two air compressors, one of 14, the other of 40 horse power, with tools, pipe and mine drills, besides a blacksmith shop, powerhouse, bunk and boarding houses.

The funds for driving the long tunnel, designed to cut the principal ledge of Bingham at great depth, are being furnished, the secretary says, by Louis Levine of Providence, R. I., who serves as president. In conclusion, the report says,
