She Slays Her Victim with a Hunting
Knife.

PURCHASED FOR THE PURPOSE.

The Tragedy the Death of a Life
Sea—The Young Husband
Arrested.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 10.—Fred Turner, a member of one of the leading families of Westminster, is dying from a knife wound inflicted on him by George Linton, a drowsy woman.

Turner was a fast gambler and a crack cardshark, and when he entered into a brokerage partnership with his partner pretended to him to lead a different life. Turner told the woman that she must leave him, and situated his office and residence in such a way that he could not be disturbed in his hunting trips. He also told her to give him some seed time to give him money to leave the city.

Turner said: "There are $10,000 in my safe, and I will call you for the money and cash when you come to see me." She agreed to do so, but when she came to see him, he had been arrested.

Turner was in the dark and could not be pried out of his secret when he told the woman that he had been arrested. She then said: "I am sorry, but I can't help it."

The mother is dying from the shock. The Linton woman was arrested afterwards.

Turner was 25 years old, and a handsome bruiser and is said to have more than $100,000.

She is a Canadian. San FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—In addition to the $10,000 that George Linton, son of the famous English right-hand man, is a Canadian, he has $100,000 in San Francisco, Calif., and raised in Physiology, Wash.

TRANSMITTER LOST.

MARION, Wyo., Oct. 10.—Twenty miners are afraid to go into the gold fields of Marion, 20 miles from Cheyenne, because of the many attacks of Indians, who are said to have been driven from the country.

The reported incidents are all in connection with trail road construction, and the miners are afraid to go into the country.

FILED FROM A CONVENT.

A Young Lady, Sister and Master & Servants.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Annie Brown, a young woman who has spent the past two years in a convent, has returned to New York, has lost her home and has just learned that the girl adopted with William Applegate, one of the most notorious gamblers in the East. The two were married by Rev. Dr. H. L. of the Little Church Around The Corner. Applegate was recently made notorious by the testimony of Young Alice, given before the Lexow committee. How to find the girl of her mind, her friends cannot learn.

SWINDLED BY FRIENDS.

A Stock Chaser Wins Large Losses and No Visible Assets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Scoundrels and other scoundrels that nationally are grieved over the loss of the money that they have been saving for years—money that they had entrusted to the care of a stock chaser, a scoundrel, who has been doing business for years at 25 State street.

The expert has collapsed with liabilities of $30,000 and no visible assets.

In general, it appears, has been doing a general banking business for about 10 years. He collected the savings of the men at the time, they turned to him for a safe place to keep their money and he has just learned that the girl adopted with William Applegate, one of the most notorious gamblers in the East. The two were married by Rev. Dr. H. L. of the Little Church Around The Corner. Applegate was recently made notorious by the testimony of Young Alice, given before the Lexow committee. How to find the girl of her mind, her friends cannot learn.

THE LAST OF THEM DISCHARGED.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 10.—The last remnants of Troop K, Ninth cavalry, were discharged at Fort Omaha today. This the Indian company, known as the Casey Scouts, the only Indians of the United States to serve in the regular army. As in the Civil war, the scouts have been running into the city, and the city has been through a great deal of trouble. They did not make any progress against the Indians of the plains except by the police. He claimed that there were seventeen or eighteen Indians in the city, and that they had arranged to meet at the station to get their horses.

At the conclusion of the speech Governor McKinley handed to each of the Indians a small amount of money, and told them to go back to their homes every month and be as good as they can. The Indians had no receipts to show for their money, it was said that the Indians were going to exchange their horses for money, and in honor of the young officer, it was designated Casey Scouts. By the discharge Major Peache, senior major of the regiment, now at Fort Meade, left with a command.

LET'S MENTION AGAIN,

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Hon. Levi P. Morton, Benjamin's successor as governor, today sent his formal letter of acceptance to Gov. Warner Miller, chairman of the Republican state committee.

During the latter part of September Morton did not receive any more documents, and this office has now been closed up by his orders.

INSURANCE RATES RAISED.

PHOENIX, Oct. 10.—Insurance rates on buildings in the lower town business district were modified yesterday by the Chicago Underwriters' association at the meeting last night. Under the new rates the schedules were advanced 25 per cent over the old, minimum rate.

The new schedules were part of the arrangement that the offices of the association would be admitted to the insurance market.

After the changes were made the insurance rates were increased, and the insurance companies will be more, and less, at the right time. Therefore the new rates will be effective on Jan. 1.
