Shooting Affray in Reno, Nevada, Over a Political Dispute.

A SACRAMENTO PAPER ATTACHED.

Eighteen Years' Imprisonment for Forgiving Promiscuous Sister—Other Paragraphs.

H. A. Williamson, who forged promissory notes in Portland, Ore., is now serving up to the extent of about fifteen years, and who fled to Japan, Mo., where he was arrested, has been sentenced to fifteen years in prison.

The 18-year-old girl at Louisville, Indiana, is being pushed to conviction and is expected to have it rung before snow flies. The defense tries to have ten stamps more added to its mill. A concession will also be given to the girl.

The De Lamer (Linton) company has moved its works from Salt Lake City to Cedar Park. The wall has received a depth of nearly 200 feet, but no water is 100 feet deep; 200 feet, over the water tanks to which about five tenths of the surface, and will be pumped out from that point.

On Tuesday afternoon attachment papers were served upon the Sacrament, Cal., Avenue Hotel, the paper says. The man was caught against the paper by Joseph Hyatt, a soldier and reporter, in $11,000 wages. All documents and properties were taken into custody for delivery in order to prevent his attachment.

Mark Steppenow, a tramp barber who had been living on East Street, San Francisco, saved life late the other night because he was out of steady work and was trying to earn money. He was walking down Second Street, intending to sleep all night in a barber's chair, and made preparations for article satisfactorily. He closed all the windows and doors and then turned on the gas. The boy was awakened next morning and taken to the doctor.

Near Telluride, Colo., the Pancake mill has gone down temporarily, says Denver, Aug. 1. The last condition of the mill between the mill and the town prevent the feeding of ore. Another reason is the low tide at the foot of the mine, which is spreading for some time, and it had to be put off for starting the ore mill tractors to the mine. The miners are employed at the mill, however, and because the mine has notched, enough men can be found here and there the mill will come into operation.

A shooting affray occurred at Reno, Nevada, on Tuesday night, which is likely to result in the death of James Loring. During a political dispute between James Loring and Thomas Wren, the former shot him twice towards Wren, and Wren, turning, shot back a single shot at Loring, the charge taking effect in the latter's breast. He turned and Wren fired a second charge into Loring's back. Loring is said to be in a critical condition. While the shooting was in progress, the immediate result of a political dispute there has been bitter feeling between the men for some time.

The Helton (Mont.) independent says that Frank Steele was shot while shooting at North Mountain and was wounded in the shoulder and left arm Monday evening. The shot is supposed to have been fired by Henry Steele, a member of company L, who was in the crowd that was preparing to march on the state capitol. The ball, which was three-quarters of an inch in diameter, struck the back of Mr. Steele's left leg and passed a narrow space between the bone. Steele will come up for hearing, but there will probably be no charge preferred against him. A second shooting was entirely accidental.

Miss Fannie Utjen, a girl 22 years old, who lived with her parents in Salt Lake, died Saturday morning from the effects produced by carbolic acid that she had taken. She had been suffering from the infection and friends say that the poison was taken accidentally and was an overdose. The girl has been sick for some time with influenza. She was very nervous and excited, and was unable to sleep. Saturday night she went up stairs to go to bed and came down a few minutes later to the room where the members of the family were sitting and bid them "Goodbye." She admitted that she had swallowed poison. Every effort was made to save her life, but the woman, but weak poisons were used and powerful salts had lessened the lining of the stomach.

John Vassarossa, a patient at the German hospital in San Francisco, killed himself on Wednesday night by shooting himself in the head and stomach, his skull. While the attendant was giving another patient a drink of milk, Vassarossa, who was walking about the ward, made a quick leap through the window, carrying the gun with him, and ran to the grand, a distance of twenty feet. As soon as possible he was removed to the operating room, where Dr. Morse impaled his skull. The patient died within half an hour after the operation. Vassarossa was born in Italy, July, 21 years ago. He was taken to the hospital on the 25th of last month suffering from a gunshot wound in the neck, which he inflicted upon himself with suicidal intent. The cause of his attempt was due to depression in love since his admission into the hospital his mind had not been sound.

The postmaster who holds his office within a short distance makes an effort to help the people of his town and sends it to the postoffice department of Washington. Here the postmaster's records are examined, and if his credit is good the order is addressed straight to his office and forwarded to the government agent. The postmaster's rubber stamps are made. The government agent has the stamp mounted, specially printed and sent by registered mail to the postmaster, who sends a model for him to Washington—Kate Field's Washington.
