There was genuine trouble for sure, That's how the scrap came about. The lads were not evenly matched, but it made no difference. One was tall, the other short. The tall one wouldn't let "shorty" ride on his "lift," and a chal-Lord Eberley in the first race, lost control of the horse and was thrown over the fence at the six-furlong pole. His left leg was broken and he was other-wise badly injured. For the first time during the season the judges had occa-sion to take action on foul riding. In lenge was issued forthwith. So at the time stated the crowd assembled, the boys stripped to the waist, and put on the mitts. A certain broker who has a penchant for baseball and who was particularly in evidence at the brokers' ball game, was referee, and when he gave the word the lads went at it. To state it briefly, the small boy didn't give the big 'un a look in even. For ten rounds he hammered the big fellow who stated the big set of the big fellow ten rounds he hammered the big fellow who stayed Jeffries like and took the punishment. Both their faces looked not unlike mashed tomatoes before the eighth round, and it is hard to tell "what might have been" had not the bout been stopped in the tenth. A Bottle of the Misses Bell's Celebated Complexion Tonic Without Cost

This generous offer is made in order that all may have an opportunity to test its wonderful merits

Beauty's chief charm is the complexion. If the skin is clear and smooth, a woman will be classed as beautiful even if nature has not given her percet features.

The Misses Bell, of 76 Fifth Avenue, New York, when they slaced their now justly celebrated Complexion Tonic before the public, gave to those suffering from poor complexions a boon long needed. Thousands have made their kins absolutely perfect by its u-e. Now, in order to still further intro-luce it, the Misses Bell will give to any ady writing them during the present south an opportunity to try one large bottle (the price of which is $i) at absolutely no cost. Do not wait, but SEND AT ONCE.

The Misses Bell's Complexion Tonic la not a paint or powder to cover up the freckles, pimples or moth patches, but is, as its name implies, a tonic for the It eradicates the blemish entirely and forever. It not only does this, but it beautifies the skin, smoothing away wrinkles, drawing out ALL discolora-tions, removing all pimples, acne, eczema or roughness.

The Misses Bell have at their parlors more than ten thousand letters from p-trons acknowledging wonderful improvements in their complexions. Misses Bell have never used a testimonial in public print, as they value a woman's delicacy in such things, but the original letters can be seen any tline at parlors, 76 Fifth Avenue.

Remember an opportunity is given you to try one bottle of this really wonder-ful Tonie for the skin FREE. Address THE MISSES BELL
