

CLIPPINGS.

—The Paris people ride in stages as they do everything else, according to law. Bureaus are stationed at every block along the route, and at these a man buys a ticket, entitling him to a certain seat, numbered correspondently with his ticket. Should the seat not be vacant, there is nothing for it but to wait the arrival of the next stage.

—The losses of American seagoing vessels for November foot up, exclusive of cargoes, to $560,000. The number reported as totally lost and missing during that month, amounts to 37, viz., 1 steamer, 6 ships, 4 barks, 1 brig, and 25 schooners. Of these, 1 are missing, 23 wrecked, 4 burned, 5 foundered, 2 sunk by collisions, and 1 capsized.

—An exchange says it is a striking proof of the excellence of the constitution of Queen Victoria and of her physical training and regularity of habit, that during the twenty-three years she has been on the British throne, she has never been confined to her room by sickness for a single day, except on nine occasions.

—The New Orleans Delta announces that several planters in Louisiana and Mississippi have each offered 100 bales of cotton or 70 hogheads of sugar to their State treasuries, to enable them to meet any emergency.

—The twenty years legal contest waged by the indefatigable Mrs. Myre L. Gaines, was to be brought to a final issue in January, in the U. S. Supreme Court. It was No. 66 on the calendar.

—A Southern dealer visited a carriage manufactory in Rahway some time since, which he was told, notwithstanding, was a Black Republican concern. He expressed his satisfaction, "what is your politics?" The reply was prompt—"We sell carriages, sir, not principles." "Well," said the Southerner, "that is plain and square, at any rate," and at once ordered a bill of goods amounting to some hundreds of dollars.

—A paper published at Stockbridge in the year 1800 states that the library of a deceased clergyman sold for £3, and the liquor in his cellar for £276.

—The Coroner of New Orleans reports 85 murders in this city during the year, 32 suicides, 109 accidental deaths, 79 deaths from intemperance, and 105 cases of drowning.

—Miss Caroline Richings, an actress, had a narrow escape at the Richmond, Va., theatre, a few weeks since. Her gossamer dress caught fire, and the promptitude of one of the actors saved her from being burnt.

—At Chatham, C. W., the Indian Pahmahmay, convicted at the last Assizes for murder of another Indian, was executed December 22d. Previous to his sentence he had no knowledge of the Christian religion, but he died professing the Catholic faith, receiving the sacrament from a priest.

—Capt. McClintock, of the British Navy, who has lately returned from a survey of the Northern Ocean, reports that Southwest of Iceland, where he expected a depth of 2,000 fathoms, he only found 748 fathoms, and in 1,200 fathoms he brought up a living starfish.

—The Coroner of San Francisco held eighty inquests during the year 1860.

—The number of persons indicted in San Francisco last year; for the graver crimes was 222; the number of bills ignored, 7; convictions, 114; acquittals, 12; nolle prosequi entered, 8.

—The number of Catholic parochial priest-hood (exclusive of monks and others) all over Europe, amounts to 260,000, of which Italy alone contains nearly 115,000, France 48,000, Germany 21,000, and Spain 31,000. There is in Italy one for every 217 inhabitants of all ages and sexes.

—Mr. Knock, tobacco dealer, New Orleans, recently swindled his customers out of $60,000, and fled to France. He changed the heads certified first class tobacco to casks of worthless stuff, and sold it at No. 1 prices.

—Mr. Levi Burnel, of Milwaukee, has just perfected what he calls an "Anemograph." It writes down on a strip of paper, which is moved by a clock two inches an hour, the force and direction of the wind. The slightest change of the wind is recorded with unerring accuracy.

—In a gossip letter to a friend, a lady writes: In alluding to the fashions, allow me to express the hope that "secession;" if it comes, will not bring in any ugly ones. If we can keep out homely styles of dress, we shall, after all, have a great deal to be thankful for."

Mr. Whitcomb of Mesardis, Me., while hunting recently on Big Machias stream, fell in with a herd of six bull moose, and by dexterity and caution managed to kill five of them, unaided.

—One gentleman, said to be an Indian officer, made beautiful practice with a Turner rifle, at the late contest at Liverpool. His firing position was somewhat peculiar. He sat down on the ground supported the barrel of his rifle on the left arm, laid his left hand on his right arm, and drawing up his legs towards the chin, rested the butt of his rifle against the middle of his right arm, supporting the toe of the but on his right knee. The position was somewhat acrobatic; but when it was brought level with the object not a tremor could be noticed. "Bull's eyes" or centers generally reward the rifleman's steadiness.

—It is said that the editor of the Charleston Mercury, who writes its fierce disunion articles, is one Gordon, a Massachusetts, who has been in the South but two or three years.

—Count Walewski is paid 30,000 francs as Senator; 100,000 francs as member of the council of the regency; and 100,000 as minister of state. Forty-six thousand dollars a year.

—A poor Chimney-sweep in Liverpool, England, has just become heir to an estate worth $200,000.

—After gorging himself with what he thought was roast chicken, on landing at Aspinwall lately, a passenger thought he would relieve nautical fare by taking a supply, on going into the yard to take his pick, he was disgusted to see that his chickens were iguanas, a huge Central American lizard.

—There is a Turkish Law that a man, for every falsehood he utters, shall have a red mark set on his house. If such a law were in force in the United States, we fear that some people who build fine houses might have their painting done without expense, except to their characters and conscience.

—The present Lord Chancellor of England is so averse to lawsuits, that he refused recently to go to law with a tenant who had cut down some valuable trees.

Save your Paper Rags.

The inhabitants of Utah are requested to gather up and save their worn out wagon covers, and every description of cotton and linen rags for paper making, and deliver them, from time to time, to the Bishops of the several Wards, or the 'News' and 'Mountaineer' Offices or their agents, for which, when clean, they will be allowed five cents a pound. The rags can be sufficiently cleansed in pure water, without soap.

It is expected that, in a few months, all who wish can receive paper in exchange for rags.

9th EDWARD HUNTER, Presiding Bishop.
