the utmost stubbornness. The British maneuvering and the accuracy of nim on the part of the British artillery during the fighting on Monday were be-yond praise. There is not the slightest likelihood that the Boers will succeed in dislodging us from the positions we have gained, and the prospects of the relief of Ladysmith are decidedly hopeful."

Spencer Wilkinson in the Morning Post today says: "The British forces appear to be everywhere on the move. In the absence of local knowledge it is idle to guess the site of Gen. Buller's new attack. If, as seems likely, this is east of Potgieter's Drift, the dis-tance to Ladysmith is only ten miles and the country is more open than any other route. In any event Gen. Buller's troops will have to break the enemy's resistance by hard fighting, for the de-lay involved in crossing the river must it difficult to gain the start make needed to turn the enemy's flank.

'It is not known whether Lord Robberts has moved to begin the campaign or not. It may be that he has only moved to some point nearer the scene of operations, where he can be in communication with all his generals.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Spearman's Camp, in a dispatch dated Monday night, says: "Under the personal direction of Gen. Buller the attack on the Boer positions was begun this morning by nearly the whole of this morning by nearly the whole of our batterles-seventy-two guns-shell. ing the ridges where the enemy have their trenches and redoubts on the Brakfontein and the low crest facing Potgleter's Drift.

being constructed under fire near Schiel (Skiel?) drift the eleventh brigade, now under command of Col. Wynne made a demonstration against the Brakfontein ridge, marching across the meadows with the support of seven batteries of artillery. "At 11 o'clock the enemy opened a heavy cannonade of shrapnel, common sheli and pompon shells, chefly Spion Kop. This was accompanied by a rattling musketry fire. Our gunners behaved admirably and were as cool as if upon parade. "The demonstration having gained its effect, the real attack on the Boer left was delivered at 4 o'clock. The Durham light infantry carried Vaal Krantz, the key of the lower ridges, while Gen. Hildyard's brigade assailed the higher ridges. The general and his troops are blyouacking upon the field of battle. In the language of boudoir bulleting, 'mother and child are doing well.' Our losses are triffing." Three thousand militia have been ordered to prepare for embarkation.

The obsolete guns at the various coast defenses are being replaced with mod-ern naval guns. The government is preparing a plan to be submitted to parliament for the conversion of the yeomanry, volunteers and militia into a well organized and properly equipped army for home defense.

Lee, Las Vegas, N. M.; E. S. Gosney, Modder River, Feb. 7.-Gen. Macdon- Flagstaff, Ariz.; J. B. Blake, Pendleton, intains his position at Koedo berg Drift. His movement has evident-ly disconcerted the Boers, and at the same time safeguards the position of a portion of the Belmont garrison in the direction of Douglas, where there are still a few Boers. The British casualties till now are two men The ninth lancers made several attempts to draw out the Boers but were unsuccessful. The British hold the highest portion of the kopje, the Boers' position being on the lowest portion. Owing to the steepness of the southern slope of the kopje it is impossible to mount artillery. The usual daily shelling here continues. The outposts report that the Boers are making advanced trenches in the open plain in front of Magersfontein drift, presumably to prevent the Brit-ish horse and field artillery from approaching within range of their positions.

gins in the spring! Among the delegates is Governor John G. Brady, W. L. Distin, surveyor general: Wm. A. Kelly, supervisor of the densus; John G. Price, who was appointed a detegate by a mass convention of miners; Richard F. Lewis, a business man of Juneau; Mr. Washburn, manager of the Alaskan Commercial company: Louis Sloss Jr., a business man from Skagway, and Father Barnum, a Roman Catholic misstonary, who spent many years in Alaska, but who is now librarian of the Georgetown university. These men make requests for legislaion that they claim is absolutely necessary for the protection of the people and the preservation of the peace. They ask for the establishment of courts at St. Michael or Cape Nome, at Eagle City, and at Juneau or Skagway. There is now only one court in the Territory and the people are compelled to go 1,000 miles and often a longer distance, and to remain away from their homes several months and sometimes a year when they are interested in litigation r are summoned as witnesses.

The delegation from Alaska asks for other legislation, particularly authority to organize municipal governments which cannot be done under the present statutes. Towns of 1,500 and 2,000 people already exist by sufferance and they are governed by officials elected without the authority of law. There are no county, township of municipal organizations in Alaska, no school dis-tricts, no police, no fire departments, no power to make roads or streets or to enforce order or sanitary conditions except by common consent, and where money is needed for these purposes it is raised by subscription. Before June it is expected that the town of Cape Nome will contain 20,000 inhabitants, and it is scarcely possible so that so large a community can be governed without law or formal authority.

Already the sanitary conditions are said to be dreadful. Before the last boat left there an epidemic of typhold fever had broken out and there is no telling how far it has extended. There is no

Labouchere Mobbed.

Northampton, England, Feb. 7.-The announcement that Henry Labouchere, editor of Truth and liberal member of Parliament for Northampton, would ad-dress a peace meeting in the Northampton hall this evening drew a noisy crowd of opponents, who swarmed upon the platform and smashed the chairs.

Mr. Labouchere's arrival was the signal for renewed attacks. The promoters of the meeting were forced off the plat-form and chairs were hurled into the body of the house amid cries of "God save the queen." Mr. Labouchere was struck on the head, but was not seriously injured. He managed to make his exit escorted by the police. A number of other persons were hurt, although not seriously

Ultimately the opponents of the peace meeting gained the platform and de-clared that Northampton had joined York City in repudiating the critics of the government.

DONT! WOMEN. Don't write to a woman, when the roof

leaks. Write to a carpenter. Don't write to a woman when the water pipe bursts. Write to a plumber. Don't write to a woman when you are sick, write to a doctor. But why such superfluous ad-vice? Simply to call attention to the fact that "women" who are not qualified physicians offer medical advice, in advertiscments worded in such a deceptive manner that you are apt to overlook the important fact that the woman is not a physician.

The great success of Dr. R. V. Pierce, in treating and curing diseases of women has led to imitations of his methods, especially his offer of a free consultation by letter to all sick women. At the head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., and with an experience of over thirty years, Dr. Pierce has achieved the position of the chief of specialists in the treatment of woman's diseases. There is no living physician, male or female, who can show an equal record of over half-a-million women treated and ninety-eight per cent. of cures. Write to the doctor. Your letter will be read in private, answered in private and its statements held as sacredly confidential. To assure the exclusion of a third party from this correspondence, every letter is sent sealed in a plain envelope, bearing no advertising or print-ing upon it. Address Dr. R. V. The whole West is worked up over plague, which has already reached the Hawalian Islands, should be communithe proposed changing of the land laws. The National association, at Fort Worth, declared in favor of a leasing law, but none of the bills pending in Congress is satisfactory to the stock interests and the convention or-dered the appointment of this special committee with power to prepare and present a bill which would meet the ideas of the stockmen and give them 000 a year by taxation, which goes into the treasury at Washington, and not more than half of it is expended for the protection from encroachments of cor-porations and hig operators. The association has assurances from Washington that no bill will be passed until they present their measure, Judge Northcutt, the chairman of the committee, has given the subject much attention and is the author of the so-called Wolcott bill. He has agreed to assist in preparing the kind of a law the stock interests desire. The committee, which consists of one member from each of the States and Territories containing arid lands, is made up of prominent sheepmen, cattlemen and attorneys for live stock associations. It will probably meet in this city in the near future to commence work on the proposed m The position of the National Live Stock association is that if any leasing law is to be passed it must be such a law as they desire and the proposed measure will be fully discussed before it is presented to Congress. There are many diverse interests to be considered and the committee has a big job ahead of it. The principal point insisted upon BICKFORD DENIES IT ALL. Says Senator Clark's Campaign was Without Bribery.

> Washington, Feb. 7 .- Walter M. Bickford was practically the only witness before the Senate committee on priv-ileges and elections in the Clark investigation. He was one of Senator Clark's special friends in the last Montana senatorial campaign. Mr. Bickford senatorial campaign, Mr. Bickford contradicted much of the testimony of Speaker Stiff, Senator Myers, Repre-Sentative Sullivan, Dr. Ector, Mr. Cowen and others. He, however, ad-mitted tendering to Dr. Ector $790 with which to lift the indebtedness of Rep-resentative Woods of Ravalli county, saying he had not intended that Mr. Woods should know of his doing this and his only purpose was to control the debt so that the Daly people could not get hold of it and thus force Woods nto voting contrary to his inclination. He received the money from Senator Clark's son, and when it was not accepted for Mr. Woods by Mr. Ector he had returned it to Mr. Clark. Mr. Bickford also explained the purchase of timber lands owned by Rep-resentative McLaughlin prior to the meeting of the legislature. He con-tended that the property was worth more than had been paid for it, and that the timber was necessary in Mr. Clark's business. In his deal with Mr. McLaughlin witness had never talked with him concerning the senatorial situation nor tried to influence him in that connection to vote for Mr. Clark. On his cross-examination Bickford stated that he was counsel for Mr. Clark, but after saying that he would not tell what his fees had been he said that all told Mr. Clark had paid him $2,000 as counsel. He also said Mr. William McDermott had refunded to him the money expended in the campaign and he thought Mr. Dermott was engaged in Mr. Clark's Interest.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 7.-The steamer Empress of China arrived today from Yokohama with details of the murder of Rev. S. M. Brooke in An imperial decree dated Shantung. Commenting on the decree the North China Daily News days:

"A more miserable and disgraceful state paper than the decree issued by the empress dowager in reference to the murder of Rev. Brooke we have not read for a long time. For months the missionaries in Shantung have been insisting to the local authorities, the adjacent consuls and legations at Pekin, on the unsetUed and dangerous condition of the country. We trust that all the preoccupation of our gov-ernment in the Transvaal will not prevent our legation from taking up this outrage vigorously and insisting that an end shall be put to the misgovern-ment of Shantung, to which the mur-der is really due. A large number of the Shantung officials, from the governor down, are really as guilty of the murder of Rev.
