SOMETHING NEW IN KAMAS.

KAMAS, November 2d, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 1st, the first "Liberal" political meeting ever held in this place, was held under the chairmanship of Col. Ferry, from Park City. The speakers were Major J. F. Bradley and the Hon. T. C. Griffiths.

Many of the citizens of Kamas turned out to hear them expecting to learn something from them of the platform and principles of the "Liberal" party, but they were badly disappointed, for not one word was said about it, not even so much as to state who the candidate was. The first speaker asserted several times in the preliminaries of his speech that he did not wish to interfere with our religious principles, but their object and business here was of a political nature; but from that on, his whole speech was full of a tirade of abuse of the "Mormon" people, the "Mormon" Church, the Church authorities, the Utah Legislature, the People's candidate, etc. He was so very desirous to separate Church and State that he said he wanted a government without any God in it. The other speakers followed in a similar strain until ten o'clock, so much so, that one of our wildest boys made the remark after the meeting that they had talked like apostates.

The speakers wished to have a platform established on which all could unite but to the best of my judgment for us to unite with them we would have to deny God, forsake our religion, exchange honorable plural marriage for the social evil, and submit to let Utah be governed by a very small minority. They talked to us about the United States as though we had just been "shot out of a bomb shell right from the old country." I don't think the People's Party have lost anything by their visit.

The weather here is good, roads good and dry for freighters. Crops have been excellent this season and prosperity has attended us generally.

Our Y. M. M. I. Association and other societies are doing well. Educational interests are looking up in Kamas, eight young men started to-day to attend school at the B. Y. Academy, and others expect to go either there or to the University, and our day school is well attended.

Respectfully yours,

S. F. ATWOOD.

DELEGATE ELECTION.

CHESTER, 7, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

Precisely one hour after sunrise the three judges of election were at their post armed and equipped as the law directs, presently a committee of three in behalf of Hon. John T. Caine appeared to watch the interests of the People's nominee. About 10 o'clock Mr. Jacob Coleman, the deputy registrar for this precinct appeared and handed to the Senior Judge the following:

Salt Lake City, Utah,
Oct. 31, 1881.

Dear Sir: The executive committee of the Liberal party herewith send you a package of ballots containing the name of Philip T. Van Zile for Delegate to the 48th Congress. We respectfully ask that you place one of them in the hands of every legal voter in your precinct, and that you do all that you can in a legitimate way to further the cause of the Liberal Party and its candidate during the remaining days of the campaign and particularly on election day the 7th, of November.

In behalf of the Committee,
WM. MCKAY, Secretary.

He then handed the enclosed.

For Delegate to Congress.
PHILIP T. VAN ZILE.

requesting the Senior Judge to carry out the instructions as above as to distribution. The Judge very properly declined as the said instructions contemplated this to be done by the Deputy. But the Deputy remarked there was no money in it.

The People's Party Committee handed him 2 tickets and the people's platform, the other the Liberal's platform never hove in sight. After reading the papers handed him he returned them and left minus his vote and presence. Query—Does his liberalism go no further than the $27 charged for 9 days services or is it a conclusion that the money is all? I may be permitted to ask, judging from the face of the ballot does it "pertinently refer" to anything but a "congress." Is it a congress of agriculturalists, bi-mettalists or what does that ballot "designate," if neither states where as to territory, or when the election is to be held. (See copy of People's ballot.) This designates, territorial election, number of Congress and date of holding election, Nov. 7, 1882. There was the spice of a challenge for cause made against one Max Dustenberg and wife on the ground of bigamy. Mr. D. being unable to produce a decree of divorce from the Probate Court and declining to receive his testimony that it was issued and was by him forwarded to the grand jury in and for the First Judicial District Court, and that they, the said jury, tore it up, refusing to indict him on the above ground. The judges not "immediately," had the room cleared, conferred, and presently announced "they sustained the challenge." Perhaps the heavens may fall because of this refusal to receive his unsupported word and vote. Thus the election has passed and the result shows.

For J. T. Caine, 26.
For P. T. Van Zile.

I desire here to note that whether we consider the deputy registrar or the judges, great fairness has characterised the entire proceedings, the fact that two of the judges were of the "Liberal" persuasion, argues well for their pure disinterestedness. It is only due to say a comfortable and convenient office was freely given by the county attorney who aided materially in distributing the ballots.

The challenge was made by the People's committee.

The irate Jerusalem pet threatens appeals, extirpation of every polygamist and the overthrow of the election which he purposes to contest, he demanded his exceptions filed to the proceedings of the judges. Great trepidation has fallen on the judges.

ITEM.

RATIFICATION AT GRANTSVILLE.

GRANTSVILLE, Nov. 4, 1882.

A political meeting was held here last evening, Hon. F. M. Lyman, chairman, and Wm. Jefferies, secretary.

Hon. J. T. Caine, S. R. Thurman, F. S. Richards, Warren N. Dusenberry and James Sharp, addressed the large assembly. Their speeches were argumentative, historical, anecdotal, patriotic, earnest and soul-stirring. The liberal platform of the People's Party was ably contrasted with the illiberal platform of the "Liberal" party, greatly to the disadvantage of the latter, and to the eternal disgrace of its originators and advocates. The People's platform was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted. The action of the convention in nominating Hon. J. T. Caine as our Delegate to Congress was ratified with unanimity and cheers. The Grantsville brass band, led by Prof. J. Ratcliffe, discoursed inspiring and patriotic music. The entire proceedings was spirited and good, and of that broad and liberal character which will confer benefits upon home, country and the whole human race, blessing friend and foe alike in their operation; and no man will have the ghost of a chance here, to be elected as Delegate to Congress on the 7th of Noverber, but the Hon. John T. Caine.

JEFFERIES.

Individuality.

In asserting your own individuality, do it with becoming modesty. How? Oh no Telemachus, "cheek" is not "better than wisdom." It is not better than anything. It is too brassy to be mistaken for anything else. All the triumphs of cheek are only apparent. The world knows the cheeky man, and assigns him to his proper level. It is true, that sometimes the man of cheek bores himself along through the crowds to seats and places intended for better people, and for the time we give way to him. But so we give way, my boy, to a man carrying a pot of paint in each hand. Not because we respect the man, but because we want to take care of our clothes. Avoid cheek, because you can sell goods without it, and your customers won't run away and hide in the cellar when the see you coming. Remember, my boy, the world is older than yourself by several thousand years; that for centuries past it has been so full of better and smarter young men than yourself that their feet stick out of the domer windows, and when these young men died, the old globe went whirling right along, and not one man in ten million went to the funeral, or even heard of the death.

Be as smart as you can, of course. Know as much as you can, without blowing the packing out of your cylinder heads. Shed the light of your wisdom abroad in the world, but try not to dazzle people with it, and don't always expect people to believe that a thing is so simply because you say it is. Don't be too sorry for your old father because he knows so much less than you do. Remember, my boy, he hasn't had your advantages. The world has great need of young men, but no greater need than the young men have of it. Young men are useful, and they are ornamental; we all love them and we couldn't engineer a picnic successfully without them. But they are no novelties, my son. Oh, no; nothing of the kind. They have been here before. Now, mind; I don't want you to be so modest that you will shut yourself clear out; but don't be so fresh you will have to be put on ice to keep from spoiling. Don't be afraid that your merits will not be discovered. People all over the State are hunting for you, and if you are worth fining, they will find you. A diamond is not so easily found as a fine pebble, but people search for it more earnestly, and shout and show it to the world when they find it. If you are a pebble, my boy, you'll help macadamize the road, and if you are a diamond, you'll go into the crown jewels or travel with a minstrel troupe, the Fates only know which.—Burlington Hawkeye.

The Lowell, Mass. Courier says: The healing properties of St. Jacobs Oil are becoming better and better known every day, and its sale is increasing correspondingly.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disorders of the system, and many other predisposing causes, all often turn the hair gray, and oftentimes it falls off. Then it is that a dressing is needed which will restore the vitality of the scalp, when dandruff and humors will disappear, and the hair will become clean, soft, and beautiful. Such a dressing is and experience has proved that it accomplishes the desired result. By its tonic action the glands are supplied with the nutriment they require to throw off the decayed matter which obstructs the growth of the hair, and the hair is thus permitted to grow luxuriantly. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from becoming thin or harsh, however great the age of the person. Thin hair it will thicken, and to faded or gray hair it restores the original color, but by a different process. In this case the operation is slow and natural, and the result permanent. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the roots are decayed and dead; but as long as the roots remain healthy, this Vigor will stimulate them to activity, and cause a new growth of hair. Where the glands are decayed, or the scalp glazed, stimulants are useless. Nothing will then start the hair, or prevent it from falling. In such cases, the Vigor is required only occasionally, to keep the scalp cool, clean, and soft. Under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, the Vigor is pronounced by its patrons the most agreeable preparation ever used, for the soft lustre and richness it bestows.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also excellent for human flesh. Read proof below.

FROM

COL. L. T. FOSTER,

YOUNGTOWN, Ohio, May 10th, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt that I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express. I determined at once to try it and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very respectfully,

L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure

Insure in its effects, mild in its actions as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargements, such as spavins, splints, curbs, ringbone, callous, swellings and any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or for rheumatism in man or for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mildly and yet certainly in its effects.

Send address for illustrated circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.
