Nathaniel Shipman's Body Lies. New York, Feb. 10 .- Search has been instituted here to discover whether the body of Nathaniel Shipman, the hero of Cooper's famous "Leather Stocking Tales," lies in the churchyard of the first Baptist church in Hoosick Falls. It is firmly believed that the bones of the great trapper are resting here, but the exact whereabouts of the grave cannot be ascertained. The investigation discloses positive-ly that "Leather Stockings" died m 1809, at the home of John Ryan, who had married his daughter. The object of locating the grave is to mark it with a suitable monument, the funds to be aised among the citizens of this his-

FIVE HUNDRED HOMES LOST.

An estimate made from a general inspecilon of the smouldering ruins placed the number of dwellings and apartment houses destroyed at 500, and the num-ter of families left without shelter at 000. A re-estimate after the confusion such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude.

In fact it has been six months since I took the package and I have not had one particle of distress or difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted told me my case was Chronic Dyspep-sta and absolutely incurable as I had suffered twenty-five years. I distributed half a dozen packages among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy. Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, through the line on the night of Feb. 7, reports Lord Kitchener, the line of outposts being attacked at various points throughaout the night, but few escaped, and ten dead Boers were picked up in the morning near Heilbron. "I did not gewthe exact details of the Boer casualties," continues Lord Kitchener, "but as far as I have ascertained they consisted of 383 in killed, wounded and prisoners, as well as about 700 horses and many cattle. Our casualties were only 10. Lord Kitchener's great plan, which he has been elaborating for months past failed by the escape of Dewet, but was successful in the greatest single cap-ture of Boers since Lord Kitchener arriver in South Africa. Altogether 23 columns were employed in an immense irregular parallelogram formed by the lines of blockhouses and the railroads between Wolvehock, Frankfort, Lindley and Kroonstadt. It is es-timated that Dewet's force amounted, roughly speaking, to 2,000 men. Lord Kitchener personally superintended the final preparations for the expedition and the great move was made on a frontier of forty miles, the advance extending sixty miles, with the object of driving the Boers against the railroad line, where armored trains were patrolling and were repeatedly in action, shelling the Boers to prevent their crossing the railroad. Dewet suc ceeded in slipping through the lines to the southward. The whereabouts of Mr.

Steyn is unknown, though one report says he is with Dewet. THE HINDOO TWINS.

> Connected Like the Siamese Twins, They Are Separated by Surgeon.

Paris, Feb. 9 .- The Hindoo twins Radica and Dordina, who were united in a manner similar to the Slamese twins, who were exhibited throughout the world, were separated today by Dr. Doyon. The operation lasted twenty minutes and was successful, but owing to the weak condition of the patients, to the illness of one of the who has been suffering from thrush final result of the operation is still doubtful The Figaro this morning publishes an

MEMORIAL TO WASHINGTON.

Novelist Murray Advocates Erecting One in England.

London; Feb. 10 .- David Christie Murray, the novelist and playwright, has written a letter to the Daily Chronicle with reference to the Anglo-American committee, which was inauagurated under the presidency of the Duke or Sutherland at Stafford House, a couple of years ago, to promote an entente cordiale, but which has since remained dormant and is now sending circulars to its members asking them to assist a platform propaganda. Mr. Murray thinks this is unnecessary as it is need less to convert the converted; but he suggests that the committee take take means to erect, by British subscriptions and on British soil, a statue or other stately memorial to George Washington, as a "national recognition of the justice of the cause in which he fought, and a final sign of our amity with the American people.' Mr. Murray then argues at great length in favor of this plan. He thinks hat all impartial Englishmen have for a century past regretted the blunder which led to the war. He says: "We owe it to ourselves by all the means open to a brave and honorable race to repair and atone for the folly of ancestors."
