CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 17.—After a long discussion the Senate, thirty-nine to eight, adopted a resolution authorizing the sub-committee of three to visit Oregon during recess, if deemed expedient, and examine into the charges against Senator Grover.
It was agreed to print 10,000 extra copies of the monetary commission report.
The committees on printing and to audit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate were authorized to sit during recess.
The Senate then went into executive session.
When the doors were reopened the thanks of the Senate were voted to the Vice-President, who replied as follows:
"Sensors: I thank you sincerely for the complimentary manner in which you have alluded to my brief occupancy of the chair. I came to you almost wholly a stranger, and a stranger to your rules. I trust in the future to be better acquainted with both. Renewing my thanks, I declare the Senate adjourned without delay."

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

In the executive session there was a debate lasting an hour and a half, concerning the nomination of Fredrick Douglass.

Senator Conkling made the principal speech in favor of its confirmation, and Senator Whyte was the principal speaker against it. The arguments advanced by the opposition were addressed solely to the question of the business qualifications of Douglass for this particular appointment, and especially to the fact that the bar association opposed his confirmation on the ground that he was not a citizen of the United States.

The nomination was, however, confirmed on a yeas and nays vote of five or six majority. No republican voted against it, and Gordon, Hill, Beck and Garland, with one or two other democrats, voted for its confirmation. It is understood that Lamar, who was absent on account of illness, would have voted aye if present.

EASTERN.

PAID THEIR RESPECTS.

WASHINGTON, 17.—At the reception this evening, many Senators paid their respects to the President and Mrs. Hayes.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT BY THE BAR OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA TO EX-ASSOCIATE JUSTICE DAVIS.

The bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, to take action as to the retirement of Davis, met today. Ex-Senator Carpenter called to the chair Secretary Edwards. D. Middleton was made secretary.

On motion the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions: Mr. S. Carpenter, late Attorney General; Geo. H. Williams, Hon. S. A. Phillips, R. T. Merry, Esq., J. H. Ashton, Esq., Hon. J. C. Carey, and Hon. W. O. Graham.

The committee reported, through Carpenter, the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the members of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States have, with deep regret, of the resignation of Mr. Justice Davis.

Resolved, That they desire to record their sense of learning, ability, love of justice and of fearless independence which he brought to the discharge of his judicial duties, and their grateful appreciation of the courtesy which he habitually extended to them.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting be requested to communicate these resolutions to Judge Davis, and that the Attorney General be requested to present them to the Court, and ask that they may be entered upon its minutes.

Carpenter said: Mr. Chairman, in moving the adoption of these resolutions, it is certainly unnecessary for me to make any remarks, but ever beyond the motion itself. Every member of this bar has a high appreciation of the judicial service of Judge Davis, and I believe every member regrets his leaving the bench. His courtesy to all his duties, his willingness to meet all the proper responsibilities which attach to the high office he has held have made him not only our admiration, but excited our warmest admiration. I move, sir, that the resolution be adopted.

Mr. Williams—Mr. Chairman, I rise to second the motion of my learned brother. I cordially concur in all he has said in regard to the merits of Mr. Justice Davis. Everybody in this country acquainted with the Supreme Court will feel the loss which the judiciary has sustained in his retirement from the bench, but it is some consolation to know that what the judicial department of the government has lost the legislative department has gained in his election to the Senate. I do not consider it necessary to add anything more to the expression contained in the resolutions.

The resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

On motion of ex-Attorney General Williams the meeting adjourned.

Committee to Inquire into the Case of Senator Grover.

Senators Morton, McMillan, and Salisbury were appointed a committee to inquire into the charges against Senator Grover, of Oregon.

The colored people and President Hayes' friends.

Judge M. W. Gibbs, a colored Arkansas elector on the Republican ticket, in an interview with the President this afternoon, remarked that the nomination of Key as Postmaster-General has excited some alarm among the colored people, but it was offset by the nomination of Douglass. He assured the President that the colored people intend to support him in his measures of reconciliation. Judge Gibbs says the President remarked in reply that he was sincere in his policy, and would adhere to it unless it should prove impracticable. For eight years the policy of force and the market has been tried on the South, but has failed utterly, and he has now determined to change

Pinchback Expelled.

NEW ORLEANS, 17.—The republican state committee met at noon and Pinchback was expelled from the organization by a vote of 22 to 4. A. Dumont, who during the campaign was chairman of the campaign committee, was then elected president of the State central committee.

Consolidated.

AUGUSTA, 17.—The Chronicle and Sentinel, established in 1785, and the Constitutionalist, established in 1789, were consolidated, to-day, under the name of the Chronicle and Constitutionalist.

A Murderer Breaks from his Guard—Seems Truly Anticipated.

LOUISVILLE, 17.—A Lancaster, Kentucky, to-day, G. C. Kennedy broke from the guard, who was taking him to jail by order of the lower court, to answer the charge of murdering his brother. The prisoner escaped from an outdoor of twenty-five men joined him and defied the authorities. The guard fired on the house and wounded one man. One hundred men now surround the house, and serious trouble is anticipated.

Railway Fares Again Reduced—State of the Jackson and Great Western R. R.

CHICAGO, 17.—Late this evening all the roads interested in the late advance made in St. Louis, came down again to the figures of the Lake Shore of New York Central, and the Chicago and North Western, and corresponding figures from other western to other eastern points. This is an official restoration of the figures which prevailed during the fall and winter.

A dispatch received here says the Illinois Central R. R. Company, to-day, bought the Jackson & Great Western, and the Chicago & North Western, paying for it $1,050,000, and assuming all the mortgages and indebtedness. The northern section of the road will be bought next month by the same company, and will give the Illinois Central an outlet to New Orleans.

Another Proposed Mode of Adjusting the Louisiana Difficulties.

The Tribune's Washington special says Governor Warmouth has, at the request of the President, submitted his views concerning the Louisiana difficulties. It is in effect that the Louisiana constitution makes the legislature the sole judge of the qualification of its members. Louisiana lawyers gravely doubt whether the returning board, which is specifically clothed with jurisdiction over the electoral vote, has the right to do this, and the board to do this as to the uncontested seats, but not as to the contested, and proposes that the Senators and Representatives whose seats are uncontested, should be seated, and upon the contested ones, regardless of the returning board, and that then both houses meet jointly, canvass the returns, and declare the vote for Governor.

This, then, would give the Louisiana legislature a constitutional and legal way. Warmouth and friends think this adjustment will be decided on by the cabinet on Monday or Tuesday, and that the Vice-President, with a committee, will be sent to Louisiana to effect the compromise. The troops cannot, of course, be withdrawn without an adjustment.

Joe Goss Fined and Committed to Jail.

CINCINNATI, 17.—Joe Goss was fined $250 for violating the laws of the State of Ohio, and was committed to jail in a prize fight, and being unable to pay the same, was committed to jail.

Great Excitement over the Chinese Murders.

SAN FRANCISCO, 17.—A Chico dispatch says great excitement prevails there from the fact that a number of citizens, this morning, received threatening letters through the Chinese, and that they may be entered upon its minutes.

Carpenter said: Mr. Chairman, in moving the adoption of these resolutions, it is certainly unnecessary for me to make any remarks, but ever beyond the motion itself. Every member of this bar has a high appreciation of the judicial service of Judge Davis, and I believe every member regrets his leaving the bench. BOSTON, 18.—The internal revenue agent for New England reports charges of grave frauds under the revenue laws against Howe and French, wholesale druggists, and other persons, and that they are tampering with the goods of the revenue agents. PITTSBURGH, 18.—A fire this morning destroyed the Fort Pitt boiler works, belonging to C. & S. Snyder, loss $140,000, Wilson & Snyder's brass foundry, loss $15,000; Mansfield & Co's brass foundry, loss $20,000. The total insurance is about $60,000. The origin is unknown, but is supposed to have originated in the first named establishment.

China and Japan News.

SAN FRANCISCO, 18.—Arrived, the City of Peking, bringing the following news:

Hongkong, Feb. 16th, Shanghai, 16th.—The British Legation started for the interior to make arrangements for the consular agencies at the ports opened by the recent Chefoo convention.

Repealed the laws of the northwestern army of General Tso over the troops of Yakub Beg. The capture of the town of Manas, beyond Urumchi, is reported.

Yokohama, 25th.—Public attention is chiefly directed to the progress of the insurrection in the province of Satsuma. This movement, which has now spread in many directions, and has called for extraordinary measures for its suppression by the government. Up to this time, however, few authentic details have been made public. The actual causes of the outbreak are yet unknown. The insurgents are believed to be mostly young men of Satsuma, and are disaffected by the condition of comparative obscurity in which the recent great social and political changes have left them. Their numbers are probably estimated at from 5,000 to 10,000, and are currently reported that their movements are directed by the celebrated Satsuma statesman and soldier, Saigo, the elder brother of the present commander of the expedition. It is reported, however, that the government is displeased with his failure of preventing the insurrection, and orders have been issued depriving him of his rank. He has hitherto held the office of marshal in the army. Saigo's reputation for patriotism and devoted loyalty has hitherto been unquestioned. If it is true that he has been deprived of his rank, this will add much difficulty to the task of subjugation. The younger Saigo is actively serving the government in his former position of commander of the province of Satsuma. The Emperor remains at the old capital of Kioto, half way between the present capital and the scene of the disturbances. The majority of the troops are believed to be loyal, and the principal government business is now transacted there.

Large bodies of troops and strong naval forces have been sent against the rebels under the command of the Imperial Prince Arima, the Emperor's uncle. Collisions have already taken place at Kumamoto, the chief city of the province, and the rebels have been driven into the mountains. The government is absolutely unknown, until after decisive action.

The above are the only authentic facts thus far revealed at this moment. There is no reason to doubt the ability of the imperial government to crush this insurrection with decisive promptness. It may be better organized and of greater strength than the recent rebels in China, but it has no resources that will long enable it to withstand the power of the central government.

Much indignation is expressed at the foreign governments for the extraordinary conduct of the United States consul at Kioto in offering, without authority, and on behalf of the foreign community to the Emperor, on the restoration of his power, the title of prince, and forcing it upon the attention of the Japanese authorities.
