treasurer was taken, which resulted in no choice, Cronkhite having the highest vote. On the third ballot, E. L. Cronkhite was nominated State treasurer, and S. M. Etter, the present incumbent, was, on the first ballot, renominated for superintendent of public instruction.

After the platform was read, W.

W. O'Brien, of Chicago, introduced a resolution commending the independence of Representative Springer in voting for General Shields for doorkeeper of the House of Representatives.

This resolution acted as a fire-brand, and amid much excitement and confusion the convention was declared adjourned.

tions on the enfishment of colored men in the army came up.

Bruce said colored men wanted all color lines abolished, and to be ciothed with all the rights of American citizens. They felt capable of paddling their own cance. They asked no special legislation. The bill went over without action. Mitchell presented the following cablegram from the United States consul at Tientsin, China: "Famine is spreading; cannibalism exists; no rain; worse next year; will indemnity bill pass?"

The cablegram was referred to the committee on foreign relations, and the bill providing for the return of the Chinese indemnity fund to China is pending.

the Chinese indemnity fund to China is pending.

On motion of Morrill, the Senate took up and passed the bill to repair and put in operation the mint at New Orleans.

At the expiration of the morning hour consideration was resumed of unfinished business, being the repeal of the bankrupt act.

The bill was then laid aside, and Eston (Conn.) called up the resolution of inquiry into the arrest of Benjamin Noyes, and detailed the circumstances as he understood them.

After debate, Eaton's resolution, directing the judiciary committee to inquire into the arrest of Benja-The Fereign Wool Duty. miu Noyes, insurance president, was agreed to, and the Senate pro-ceeded to consider the deficiency appropriation bill. Several amend-ments were added and the bill passed. GALVESTON, 11 .- A News special from San Antonio, says: At a wool grower's convention, held to-day, resolutions were adopted requesting the representatives in Congres Windom, from the committee on conference on the bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to the Secretary of the Treasury to employ temporary clerks and for other purposes, explained that the which they had failed to agree.

The House had appropriated $6,500 for temporary cierks at $2 per day. The Senate had increased the sum to $20,000 and struck out the limi-tation. The Senate insisted on its amendments in relation to the colector of internal revenue and railway mail clerks, and a new conferonce was ordered.
