Arrest of Lewd Characters .-Since the recent rulings of the Federal Courts, a feeling of security seemed to pervade the class of lewd and dissolute persons who infest the central portion of the city, and a movement carried out by the police on Saturday night created considerable excitement in some quarters. About half-past 10 o'clock the police made a simultane-ous raid on six houses of prostitution and arrested twenty-six of the female inmates and six males, the latter being Hebe West, John Johnson, Thomas Adair, J. O. Brown, James Blair and Joseph Miller. All of these were conducted to the City Hall, where the majority were released on ball to appear this morning. A few who were unable to secure bondismen were kept in custody until to day, when all were arraigued and their trials set for various hours this afternoon and to-morrow. The small number of men arrested may be accounted for by the early hour of the night at which the raid was made. At one house, just as some quarters. About half-past 10 raid was made. At one house, just as the police surrounded it, several well-known "morality" screechers ap-proached, hat finding the officers there, retired.
