SAFE BLOWERS BUSY AT BOISE

Third Robbery in One Week Was Pulled Off Sunday Morning.

MARBLE CREEK LAND CASE

Signature Railroad War Going on Among Small Roads Centering at Idaho Capital.

(Special Correspondence.)

BOISE, Nov. 26.—Safe-blowers are still carrying on their work in Boise. The third robbery of this kind within the past three weeks was accomplished about 4 o'clock Sunday morning, when two men entered the Idaho steam laundry, corner Main and Fifteenth streets, and took the safe and carried off all that was contained of particular value, which consisted of the time of but a few minutes. Postage stamps and a small medal were left, the thieves evidently not caring to take them. The robbery was observed by a night watchman who entered the building through one of the windows, and immediately gave the alarm. Two officers arrived immediately, but the robbers had fled and no trace of them has been found up to this time.

ON SERIOUS CHARGE

A. W. Heckner and Vernon Hunt, two young men of this city, have been charged with the murder of Carrie Hunt, aged 17, and Henrietta Lohman, aged 16, into houses of prostitution. Evidence in the case is now all in and the court has the matter under advisement. The young men were arrested in Boise while engaged at their respective occupations. The girls were overtaken by the state police in a house of prostitution, where they were found with the young men. The young ladies were attending high school in this city and were boarding out, when they took up the story of the girls, they were first drawn into the scheme by misrepresentation and big promises, then finally forced to leave the town under threats of harm to themselves if they refused. It was brought out in the hearing that at least one of the young men had been engaged in this kind of business for a number of years. He posed as a moving picture artist and would move about from place to place with itinerant shows.

TWO CAREY FAMILIES DOWN WITH SMALLPOX

(Special Correspondence.)

CAREY, Nov. 26.—The pleasant fall weather prevailing for several weeks was followed a week ago by cold and storm. Have had storm or rain or snow or both every day for over a week. Sheep owners have their flocks down near the lower hills, waiting for snow to fall so they can trail out on the desert. Cattle men are meeting with considerable trouble in feeding their stock as they have for some reason scattered over the range more than usual. Several parties have been in the valley of late trying to buy hay, but the surplus seems to have already been bought up.

The district school has not started yet; material that had to be shipped in was ordered in time but fails to arrive, hence the delay. The contractors are in hopes of having the building ready for school to commence on Monday next.

A flurry of excitement last Sunday followed the arrival of the county physician who came down from Hailey to investigate three or four cases of sickness. Before leaving the doctor put up yesterday at two o'clock and quarantined the families of Guy Phippen and Emily Dismore for smallpox.

The contractors of the new school commenced work on the building for the Carey State bank last Monday, and will crowd the labor as fast as possible. Parker Richards, one of the contractors fell from a scaffold last week, and injured his arm and wrist so that he was unable to work for a few days.

S. P. Richards has so far recovered from his injury of six weeks ago as to be able to move about comfortably with his shoe on again.

LAD LOSES LIFE IN ACCIDENT AT MCCAMMON

(Special Correspondence.)

MCCAMMON, Nov. 25.—While hunting with an older brother last Sunday the 9-year old son of John Thornley met with a fatal shooting accident. In jumping a small stream of water the little boy let his brother's gun, which he was carrying, fall on the rocks. The hammer struck a stone and the gun exploded, the shot striking the little fellow in the thigh, literally blowing it to pieces. The accident occurred at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and the boy lived until 5 o'clock Monday morning. The body was shipped to Smithfield, Utah, for burial.

A ward conference held here Sunday, Nov. 21, the McCammon ward having resigned Elder Riley Dixon of Denver was chosen as bishop. The following officers were named for the respective organizations of the ward: Y. M. C. A., John L. Bergerson, president; John E. Hanson and George W. Gittins, counselors; Relief society, Eva Gittins, president, Elizabeth Singer and Lena Gittins, counselors and Zina Green, secretary. Primary association, John E. Hanson, president, Jeannet Parkinson and Olga Hanson, counselors and Nina Lowery, secretary.

ST. CHARLES GETS TOUCH OF REAL ZERO WEATHER

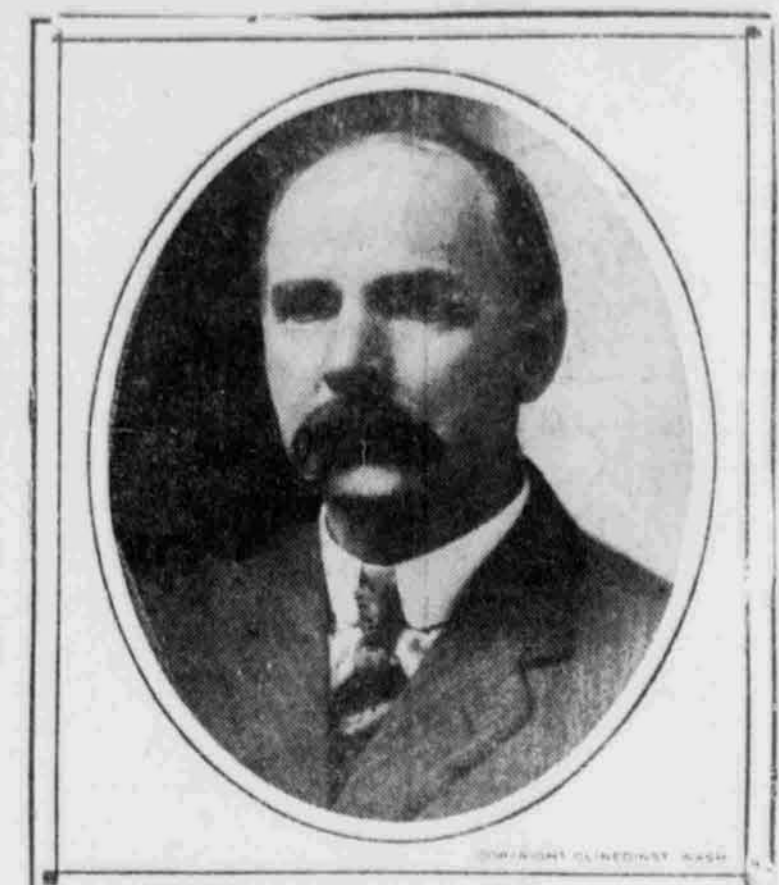

(Special Correspondence.)

ST. CHARLES, Nov. 26.—It commenced to snow on Friday night the 12th inst. It kept it up until about three inches fell and then cleared off, and Monday night was very cold—down to zero. Yesterday it commenced raining, rained all night, and is still pouring down. The ground is thoroughly soaked.

John Cony and wife, and John Cummings, from Nevada, spent a week here visiting with their uncle, John A. Benoni S. and Daniel Hunt. A few thoughtful doctors prefer have lately been purchased by Bishop Pugmire and others, from Stanley

IDAHO PENCILERS HOLD CONVENTION

Eastern Idaho Press Club Meets At Pocatello in Quarterly Gathering.

FAVOR DIRECT PRIMARY LAW

Many Reforms Needed, in the Opinion Of Speakers, to Reach the Ideal Journalistic Standard.

(Special Correspondence.)

POCATELLO, Nov. 25.—The Eastern Idaho Press club held its quarterly convention here Saturday and Sunday. A very successful convention was held, James H. Wallis of Rexburg presiding. Fourteen new members joined the club. An interesting address was made by Editor Charles J. Lisle of the Pocatello Record, pertaining to the attitude of the press towards the direct primary law. "If there is any law," said Mr. Lisle, "on the statute books that is truly American, it is this direct primary law. No newspaper can take money from any candidate, to be under obligations to him as above any other candidate, and the rich and the poor stand alike before the newspaper bar." Many reforms, however, were discussed for the betterment of the craft. The convention came to a close Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

A farewell party was tendered Mrs. Rebecca A. Douglas, last evening in the west side L. D. R. church by the Young Ladies Improvement association. Mrs. Douglas is a member of the Mutual Improvement association (M. I. A.) board, and leaves shortly for California to spend the winter with her husband.

TWO ROBBERIES

Two robberies were pulled off the first two nights this week, the perpetrators getting away. Monday morning Knute Erickson, a Swedish shoe maker of 224 north Main street, was assaulted by two masked men who broke in the door of his shop, where he was asleep, overpowered him, and found his hands, removed his purse of some $10, and left after ransacking the shop, leaving behind them a bull's eye lantern. Erickson then freed himself and gave alarm to the police.

Tuesday morning Pat Leland's storage house on North Harrison avenue was broken into by two burglars who effected an entrance by forcing apart the sliding door with an iron bar. The noise awoke a young son of the proprietor and a man who slept with him; the latter was knocked down when he inquired into the cause of the noise, and was advised to return to bed and keep still. A suit case held in storage for William Walker, attracted their attention and was rifled. A box containing calicoes was piled open, but frightened at the noise made in opening it, and disgusted at the contents, they left.

The High Priests' quorum of the Pocatello stake of Zion met here last Sunday in its first semi-annual district conference, first in point of view of the new system of visiting the Pocatello stake by districts. President Thomas L. Cox, presided, assisted by Councilor H. Spillman. The Pocatello stake embraces the First and Second wards, and includes the Pocatello and the Ingram wards.

Considering the inclemency of the weather the attendance was very fair, 31 members answering the roll call at 10 a. m. Sunday morning at the business meeting of the quorum, which was held in a room of the west side church. The reports showed a gain in the number of members, 111 members were reported, 100 were ordained, six received transfer, two died, and one transferred. Thirteen wards had been visited, 123 meetings were held in the stake, 45 meetings in the Pocatello ward, 16 in the new Pocatello Second ward, and no reports had been received from some of the wards. Cash received, $55.36, expenditures, $27.56, balance on hand, $12.25. A general meeting was held in the east side, or Second ward meetinghouse at 2 p. m. Appropriate addresses were made by Elders Joseph B. Hawley, Joseph Edgley, and Fred Cox. A song was rendered by Elder Hyrum Spillman. A general meeting was held Sunday evening at 7:30, at the west side church, where the speakers were Elders H. Spillman, David Clark and Thomas L. Cox.

A Primary class drill was held Sunday afternoon in the First ward meetinghouse, conducted by President Evaline G. Zundel, assisted by Mrs. Josephine F. Short.

RACE IS PROMOTED

Joseph H. Race, at one time a round house foreman at this place, has been appointed master of the Pocatello Pocatello stake, vice A. H. Gair, who advanced to assistant superintendent of the Idaho division.

The Short Line has decided to put in four new side tracks in its yard south of the Pacific hotel as the steady increase of the volume of traffic finds the present yard full too small for the service.

In view of the many contemplated improvements known to be slated with the company, the next in order will be either a subway of a viaduct, under or over Center street, the rebuilding of the promised car shop and new depot. It is generally admitted that the present quarters are in a perpetual congested condition, and it is simply a question of time when the matter has to be done. As it is, the company is spending large amounts in permanent improvements in the town, a condition that seems likely to continue for the next decade.

The next annual conference of the Pocatello First and Second wards was respectively held here Sunday, Nov. 21. Reports given showed a very healthy condition in both wards, every association being organized, and all active. The old ward established as a branch in 1908 was divided last year to the mutual benefit of all concerned.

The Primary association of the First ward gave a successful and well attended banquet at the west side church, President Martha Blandin being in charge of the affair.

Thanksgiving day was observed here with a general cessation of business, the shops and stores being closed. A turkey dinner was served at the Y. M. C. A., the home of the railroad men.

Services commemorating the day were held in the evening at the Methodist church, Rev. E. E. Lawrence of the Baptist church being the pastor. A concert by the Relief society of the First ward was given at the west side church, President Martha Blandin being in charge of the affair.

Mrs. Mattie Nisden, wife of N. S. Nisden, Sr., met with a painful accident day before yesterday by falling down stairs at the store where she works, which was a high place, and which is very painful but not considered serious.
