

PROBABLY MURDER.

“Davy” Davis Found Dead Near the Mouth of Bingham Canyon

LATE THIS AFTERNOON.

Speculation as to whether the Dead Was Killed Himself or Was Shot By an Unknown.

Word was received by the News from Bingham Junction at four o'clock this afternoon to the effect that a mounted messenger had just reached that place from the range near the mouth of Bingham canyon with the information that a man had been found dead in his wagon.

Particulars were very meager at first but from what could be gleaned it appears that Robert Staines, a sheep herder, rode to the camp of a half-witted man familiarly known as “Davy” Davis. He was bullet-stricken and found dead with a bullet hole in his body from which the blood was still freely flowing indicating that he had not long been shot. Davy was immediately sent to Bingham Junction where he died and from there thelings were removed here.

Conner Odenbach received a somewhat different version of the story. It was the fact that the body was found on the prairie and that it had been dead for some time, possibly as it was discovered with snow. It was also suggested that this was foul play. The coroner announced his intention of taking the dead man's clothes to the scene of the death.

The deceased was about 60 years of age and was a private in the now famous Indian army of Utah. At the time of his death he was in the company of a sheepman named Henry Clinton.

LIGHT DAY IN COURTS.

Another Candidate for the Reform School—the Carrington Case—General Legal Business.

Today's session of the Third district court amounted to an opening and adjournment and nothing more. There was no business that any attorney cared to press particularly, and the judges had plenty of office work to do to take advantage of any opportunity to get away. Besides, this judge would not feel in the best of health, though he has no serious ailment.

REFRESH SCHOOL GRADUATE.

Andrew Wilkins, a 10-year-old boy of Murray, is in the county jail under a report from his father that he has run away from the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Wilkins, and is staying with a companion Andrew Hammer. He was tried before Justice James Saunders, of Murray, yesterday afternoon, on a charge of misbehavior in taking two horses from a neighbor's stable and bringing them into the city. Hammer was sentenced to ten days in jail, while Wilkins was to be committed to the Reformatory. This boy is 10 years of age, and his father aged 45, so he is surely too young for such a severe sentence. His school, relatives to obey his father, were unkindness, language, does not come up to sight out in public in mischievous practice will not work, sometimes sheeves, and generally he has been bad. His mother is a widow and has three sons around their positions. This is the report of his conduct made to the district court. His father wishes him to be the Reform school, hoping it will do him good.

THE CARRINGTON CASE.

The dispute over jurisdiction in the case against Dr. J. A. Carrington was settled last evening by District Attorney Judson concerning the withdrawal of the criminal hearing before the United States commissioners but this country.

NOTES.

Judgment in favor of the plaintiff was given in the suit of the Deseret Savings bank vs. W. C. Clegg. Grace Stewart wants a divorce from Alvin Stewart, who says she has been in a cruel and unnatural master.

Burgess M. Gerry has filed a $10,000 action suit against the Co. Star Silver Mining Company for injuries alleged to have been received on January 15, 1894. The complainant states his capital of $15,000 in the capital of a quarter of a million dollars. The quarter ends on the site and the payment will be made on that date.

AN INQUEST HELD.

Over Mrs. N. P. Thompson's Remains —The Company Exonerated.

Cornner Odenbach went down to Murray this morning, and held an inquest over the remains of Mrs. N. P. Thompson, whose son died, was entombed in last evening's News. The information elicited at the inquest, was that the deceased, who was a widow, was living in the city, the information being given by the wife of the deceased woman, who was killed by a Rio Grande Western train. The findings of the jury exonerated the company from all blame. Mrs. Thompson's funeral will take place from the family residence tomorrow.

MINOR MENTION.

The inauguration of State officials in Utah will take place one week after the President's proclamation of independence.

Local institution of education in Utah under the Constitution adopted by order of state of personal property estimated to December 12, at 10 a.m. latest, was $4,500,000. The present value of due and legal debts of creditors more than owing on certain property for order to compromise with Wilber Hobson, a creditor of the estate, came to the number of $100,000.

Private Court.

The orders made in the Private Court today were as follows:

Order of Morgan H. Williams, deceased, authorizing an amended petition for order of sale of personal property estimated to December 12, at 10 a.m. latest, was $4,500,000. The present value of due and legal debts of creditors more than owing on certain property for order to compromise with Wilber Hobson, a creditor of the estate, came on without notice. On presentation of the matter by J. C. Rags, attorney for the estate, there being no objection, motion was made to pay Marshal and Sheriff expenses of $50 on account of their services. Estate of Eli Wright, deceased, ordered made appropriate expenses.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

The Case Against “Honey” Townsend Dismissed—Hog’s Case On—Homicide.

W. M. Townsend was arrested and thrown into jail last evening with the charged assault with a deadly weapon leveled against him. It appears from testimony as nearly as can be learned, that man by the name of Reeves, upon whose complaint “Honey,” he is familiarly known, was arrested, called at Townsend's home on Fifth West street, about 9 o'clock in the evening and began broadcasting a large hole in a threatening manner, and demanding his money, producing “Honey” and his house and to what is generally termed money meat.

This bold and impudent fellow, Townsend did not much appreciate, and having read the book entitled “The Art of Self Defense” as well as the two world war books, he concluded that he was in a position of greater strength than ever. Accordingly, as the story goes, he seized his revolver, and not wanting to give Reeves time to draw his weapon, which, being loaded, was discharged, with the emphatic pronouncement given. A trip to the police station was quickly made by Reeves and Honey was thrown in jail.

Han, Charles McRae, of Texas, is to the city and makes the difference between the ordinary and criminal here. He is the best in the country and is excelling in the great mining town. Nearly everybody here, and a great many people elsewhere, have got the mining fever, and he is the best man to cure it. He is a good doctor and a good lawyer. As far as I am concerned, he is a good man.
