THE MEXICAN CONGRESS.

From the east and west, from the north and south, from our own country and from other lands, have come a great body of representative men, men of intelligence and of common sense.

The Mexican Congress will begin its second session tomorrow, in the Senate Chamber of the United States Capitol. It is the first time since the Mexican Revolution that a Mexican Congress has met in the United States.

The Mexican Congress is composed of two chambers, the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies. The Senate is composed of 100 members, and the Chamber of Deputies is composed of 300 members.

The Mexican Congress is a body of men who are interested in the future of Mexico. They are men who are interested in the future of the Mexican people, and they are men who are interested in the future of the Mexican Republic.
