FUNERAL OF WILLARD JONES.

Special Correspondence. Provo, Utan Co, May 18.-A mass meeting of citizens for Tuesday evening to be held in the court house has been called by Mayor Roylance. The object of the meeting is to consider the ques-tion of bonding the city for money with which to complete the waterworks extension, and to build an electric light-ing plant. If the meeting favors the bonding proposition the city council will arrange for a special election to vote on a bond issue, to be held some-time during June, as the decision of the taxpayers on this question will af-feet the tax lovy to be made by the city council for 1965. If the vote should be in favor of bonding it will not be necessary to levy a tax for water-works extension purposes, as has been done for the past two years, while if the vote is against bonding, such a levy will be necessary. Among the speakers who have been invited to address the meeting are Mayor Robinson of Logan and Mayor Boyer of Springville, both of which cities have municipal lighting plants, President Abel J. Evans and Manager J. H. Wootten of the Utah County Light & Power company, and Engineer Frank C. Kelsey of Sait Lake City. THE SALOON BUSINESS.

Citizens Take Steps to Have Saloons Close at 9 p.m.

Special Correspondence. American Fork, Utah Co., May 18 .---Last evening a soodly number of citi-gens assembled in City hall, pursuant zens essembled in City hall, pursuant H to a call by the mayor, to consider the question of time in the evening when the saloons of the city should close their doors. Mayor Clark was nominat-ed chairman of the meeting, and in an opening speech explained the reason for the call of the meeting. Our city ordinance at present permits the sa-loon to keep the doors open until 11 p. m., and it has been agitated on the street and elsewhere by a certain class that it would be better for all con-cerned to change the ordinance so as to allow business to be done until 12 p. m., and others have favored an oarlier hour for closing. At the meeting last evening, after considerable discussion for and against early choing, it was the sense of the early closing. It was the sense of the great majority of clizens present that the city council be asked to grant the saloen people three months' time un-der the present ordinance in which to reduce their stock, and after that time that an ordinance pass closing the saloens at 0 p. m. The question of resaloons at D p. m. The question of re-ducing the license also was presented, but it was left for the city council to use their judgment in the fatter. It was also given out that some of the drug stores were selling as much in-toxicating liquors as the saloon, and to the the the case, a wrong was being
