FUNERAL OF E, J, ELLISON.

Tyyhoid Situation Becoming Alarming -Sound Advice of Apostle Taylor.

Special Correspondence.

Layton, Utah, Oct. 10 .- The funeral services over the remains of Elijah E. Ellison were held today at 1:30 in the scrives over the pennins of Engan E. Ellison were held today at 1:30 in the Kaysville meetinghouse. The deceased had a host of friends and a goodly num-ber turned out to pay him their last respects. The pall bearers were his brothers, Ephraim, Mathew and Jos-eph and his brothers-in-law William, Henry and Edward Morgan. Pretty de-signs in artificial and cut flowers cov-ered the casket. The Kaysville choir furnished some excellent numbers for opening and closing. The speakers were Elder J. W. Thornley of Kaysville, Bishop David Cook of the Syracuse ward, Elder Schofleid Kershaw of Lay-ton, and Apostie John W. Taylor. The latter speaker advised the people to ab-stain from the use of pork. to clean up their premises, to keep their bodies clean and then to fast and pray that the typhoid scourge might abate. EVANSTON, WYO. SHOWER OF TOADS.

Remarkable Phenamenon Occurs Near Hillard During Thunderstorm.

Special Correspondence.

Evans(), Wyo., Oct. 12.—A remark-able phenomenon was witnessed a few days ago near Hillard while a thunder storm was in progress. The storm was probably the heaviest that had visited that section in many vesses and while that section in many years, and while it was at its height millions of small frogs fell to the earth. The next morning hunters in passing over the spot where the shower of frogs occurred found the little animals by the thousouther the state and as optime thouses southerly direction. A few years ago a similar phenomenon was witnessed in the Medicine Butte country, not far from Hilliard. Six years ago this same section was treated to a shower of sait which country the ground with a coat which covered the ground with a coat-ing of salt one-quarter of an inch thick. This unusual shower traced its incep-tion to the Great Salt Lake.
