states that he is improving in health very rapidly.

of Ely, Nev., and W. J. Newberry of this city have bought 127½ acres

$100 each. R. J. Jeff, L. R. Jeff and J. B. Hanway are the incorporators.

grand union lay off at the intersection of Main and First South streets has Fifth South and Main streets will be closed. The grand union lay off at Second and Main will go down, and and L. M. Carpenter, the real estate

M. Rich Porter of Weber State academy who took the medical examination in plant pathology last May, has just received word from the department of agriculture in Washington, that he passed with the following average: 82.20 per cent.

No Shortage in Ice—There is a temporary shortage of ice in this city, so that the ice companies have been forced to curtail their business for the time being. However, the trouble will be over in a few days.
There will be no shortage this summer in ice, as the artificial ice plants are able to make up all deficiencies.

the platform of a State Prison car Storing Coal—Coal dealers report that citizens and corporations are in good earnest to store coal, so that dealers are falling behind on their deliveries, and are receiving orders ahead. One prominent dealer reports that he is 1,000 tons behind.

It is said that storage largely began the middle of May. Tenants occupying rented houses are the unfortunate ones who can not store coal, and must take things as they find them.

"WAKE UP! LET US GET ACQUAINTED"

Visitors From Outside Cities
Coming Here in Response To Call.

NEW SCHEME IN FULL SWING.

Utah and Salt Lake Being Boosted From Morning 'Till Night for Whole Week.

The chamber of commerce is all in readiness for "get acquainted week" which opened yesterday. The officers and members of the three organizations originating the scheme are all in readiness. Everything is in readiness. The railroad rates of one-third fare are now in effect. These rates apply to traffic between any point in Utah and Salt Lake and are good until July 12. Merchants, business men and Utahns in general commenced arriving yesterday afternoon. Logan and other cities telephoned the chamber of commerce yesterday morning that they were going to send big crowds of their best citizens.

The chamber of commerce will hold "open house" all week. The visitors are invited to make this place their headquarters during their stay here. The exhibits are in more attractive shape than ever and a number of features will be introduced for the first time. The chamber of commerce and the three organizations already formed. The citizens of outside cities will see what Salt Lake's citizens are doing in the way of upbuilding the state and their town.

PAYING BACK CALLS.

The business men of this city have been entertained by outside cities, and this is what they are going to pay back. Residents of every city in Utah have been not only invited, but urged to come here and see what Utah and Salt Lake are doing. The business men of outside cities and those of this city will get acquainted or strengthen acquaintances already formed. The citizens of outside cities will see what
town.

BOOSTING UTAH GOODS.

The idea has a business side, too.
Leading merchants in all lines are cutting prices as low as possible to let the visitors "get acquainted" with good goods and fair figures. Tomorrow has been set aside as "Utah Made Goods" day and then all stores and factories will exhibit, push, sell, talk and think nothing but products and offerings made right here at home. Store windows will show goods made here and merchants will pass only Utah made goods across their counter, unless earnest requests for other merchandise are made.

REAL ESTATE DAY.

This evening will see the big crowds on hand. Record-breaking crowds are expected in the city Thursday as that is Real Estate day.
In the neighborhood of 400 prizes, ranging in value from $1 to $100, are offered to holders of lucky ticket numbers. The average value of prizes is $10, making the total amount to be represented in the drawing reach the handsome figure of $4,000. Every ticket purchased to Salt Lake entitles the holder to one chance. The drawing will be conducted by the Utah National Bank.

The organizations managing the week's doings are the Manufacturers and Merchants, Real Estate and Utah Fair associations. Everybody is urged to take little cards on which is printed
"Wake Up! Let Us Get Acquainted."
